

'PROFITABLE PORK' SPECIAL

Will Exhibit In

O'Neill, Nebraska

Wednesday, October 2nd

9 A. M. to 12 o'clock Noon

The Profitable Pork Special will open its doors on the Burlington Tracks at nine o'clock next Wednesday morning and will remain open until twelve o'clock noon. Talks will be made at the train by prominent speakers from the University of Nebraska. The train will consist of Nine Coaches that will be filled with Exhibits showing different features of interest to hog raisers. Pamphlets will be distributed from the various coaches covering the different subjects discussed and featured on the trip.

One of the principal features will be the demonstration and discussion on the grading of hogs and the methods of judging.

The following Merchants and Professional Men invite you to come to O'Neill regularly and especially on Wed., October 2:
