

Amelia Christens Our Giant "Zep"

Amelia Earhart, noted American aviatrix, is seen here christening the new giant Goodyear Zeppelin "Defender" during the National Air Races in Cleveland. The new ship when completed will be considerably larger than the German Graf Zeppelin, and with its sister ship also under construction, will form the basis of the United States' commercial air armada. (International Newsreel)

Didn't Rehearse

"DISMISSED!" — Because Margaret Anglin failed to appear for rehearsal her contract for an appearance in Milwaukee was canceled. The actress also was cited to Equity.

English Beauty Arrives

Valerie French (right) granddaughter of the Earl of Ypres arrived on the Homeric for a visit to the United States. While here we are given to understand from London reports, she will marry Henry Bradley Martin, who is laid up with a fractured hip in a Denver hospital. Miss French refused to affirm or deny the report stating it was "entirely a private matter." (International Newsreel)

Student Flyer Crashes Plane In Brooklyn

In the crash of the plane (pictured above) which occurred in the heart of Brooklyn, N. Y., Gustave Azelia, student pilot, was badly hurt and his sister, a passenger, probably fatally injured when the ship ran out of fuel and nose dived into a vacant lot. Azelia had borrowed the plane from a friend and was making a solo flight preparatory to trying for a pilot's license. (International Newsreel)

Doctor Held

Dr. Francisco C. Franceschi noted Porto Rican yachtsman was held by the Spanish authorities at San Lucar De Barameda, Spain, for the murder of a seaman, Angel Carbo. He is shown here on his yacht (bottom) previous to crime. (International Newsreel)

Wedding Date Set

Governor and Mrs. John H. Trumbull of Connecticut have announced the wedding date for the marriage of their daughter, Florence, to John Coolidge, as September 23. The ceremony will be performed at the Congregational Church, in Plainville, Connecticut, and the Rev. Kenneth Welles of Albany, N. Y., will officiate. (International Newsreel)

Beaten by Sadist

Billy Sousini, four years old, of Los Angeles, California, was brutally beaten by Mrs. Bella Edens, twenty-five, an avowed sadist, when the child was left with her by its parents. She was later arrested by the police when the child alleged that she had beaten him with a strap, forced him to hold burning matches until they burned his fingers and pinched his neck and shoulders until they were black and blue. (International Newsreel)

British Line Holds as Arabs Attack

Latest advices from the Far Eastern front indicate that the British forces in Palestine were attacked by a strong force of Arabs at the town of Neblus. Heavy losses are reported on both sides. (International Newsreel)

Receives His Reward

General Logan Felard, as commander of the Second Brigade of U. S. Marines in Nicaragua, did excellent service in controlling a troublesome condition. He has just been awarded the distinguished service medal star for "exceptionally meritorious service." (International Newsreel)

Marries Her Third

By her recent marriage in Paris, her third trip to the altar, Margaret Stuyvesant Rutherford becomes Princess Murat. The Prince is a descendant of the former King of Naples. Previous romances with Ogden Mills and Sir Paul Duke went on the rocks. (International Newsreel)

Receives High Post

Mrs. Thomas C. Bickett, of Raleigh, N. C., widow of a former governor of North Carolina, is the first woman to serve as president of the North Carolina Railway System, Inc. She received the appointment from Gov. Gardner in recognition of her reputation as leader of welfare campaigns in which she displayed unusual executive ability. (International Newsreel)

Stork Stops Show

While Helen Hays MacArthur awaits an heir, actors engaged to support her in a new play are unable to rehearse and the show has been abandoned for the present. The actors claim a breach of contract and want Equity to order a salary settlement. (International Newsreel)

Her Beauty Wins

Miss Nannette Sparks (above) of Russellville, Alabama, was chosen as the most beautiful from among 1,600 students at the University of North Carolina Summer School. Twelve hundred votes were cast, Miss Sparks winning by a majority of 700. (International Newsreel)

Will Brave the Falls

With complete self assurance, Mrs. Susan D. Grove, of Hagerstown, Md., 69-year-old mother of five children, announces that she plans to take a trip over Niagara Falls in a rubber ball. She further adds that she isn't one bit afraid of her coming venture, and anticipates a successful journey. (International Newsreel)