George Fullerton returned home from Wyoming Sunday.
Elmer Armstrong spent the weekend at the home of Siebert Bros.
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roth spent Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Quinn.

Stine and T. E. Mairn's took a rough ride over the sand on the new county road Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roth and Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Miller enjoyed a picnic dinner at the river Sunday.
Mrs. Emma Diehl and son Frank of Atkinson, were pleasant callers at Orville Harrison, left Thursday for Fremont for a visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. George Worth and daughters, and Pete Worth, of Dalton, Neb., are visiting the Bob Worth and Roy Karr homes at this time.
Quite a crowd gathered at the Merriday Hubby home on Friday evening for a charivari supper. They report a fine time and a delicious lunch.

A large crowd attended the Ladies Aid held at Mrs. A. L. Borg's, Thursday. Although the day was rainy, several O'Neill ladies and one from Page, were there, in the interests of the W. C. T. U.

Last Thursday morning word was phoned around the neighborhood to the effect that the Will Kaczor house was on fire. Neighbors hurried there, but it was soon discovered to be the soot in the chimney burning. We are glad that it proved to be only a scare.

EMMET NEWS

Mrs. Ralph Young and children and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckwith were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Beckwith.

Franwin Hickman and Charles Chase, of Atkinson, visited Harold Seger at his home east of Emmet Sunday afternoon.

The pupils of the town and county schools are planning on a good time during their vacation Thursday and Friday while their teachers are at Institute in O'Neill.

Although frost was expected several weeks ago, it has not come yet and more corn is maturing every day. Everyone seems to appreciate the nice fall weather.

Mrs. Fred Beckwith, who has been suffering several weeks with an attack of diabetes, is improving steadily. Her doctor says that she could not get better any faster.

The state highway commission has bought the clay hill west of Emmet and are going to clay highway 20 past Emmet. The highway both east and west of Emmet has been very rough all summer because the soil under the gravel was not solid enough and thus the roughness of the road caused a wash-board effect. The plan is to scrape off all the gravel and put on clay and then put back the gravel. This will insure a smooth road. Work on this project has already begun; most of the gravel has been scraped off and the clay is dug.

This unusually high stalk cotton comes from the Herbert Hoover farm at Wasco, California, owned by the President. This plant comes from a field of 400 acres and every part of this acreage has a stand equal to this plant. This stalk contains about 85 bolls, which is an average of the Hoover farm as a whole. This cotton was derived from a pure scall seed. (Herbert Photos, New York).
