BIG TYPE POLAND-CHINA HOG SALE

In the Pavilion at my farm adjoining Spencer, Nebraska.

SATUR., NOVEMBER 2nd

Sale called at 1:45 p. m. No postponements, regardless of weather.

21 GILTS — 29 BOARS

This offering is sired by A. Hesper and Sensation Junior, both good breeding boars. A. Hesper is the real big type, in the 1000-pound class and was first prize winner in the aged boar class at the Boyd county fair. Sensation Junior is out of the celebrated Dr. Stewart herd at Stratton, Neb. He has made excellent growth, is large for his age and is a good breeding boar. This will be your best chance to start in the purebred business as you can buy gilts not related to the boar you buy. These pigs have been well grown but not pampered and are in good breeding condition. You will find them large enough to please you.

TERMS If time is wanted, make arrangements with the clerk before the sale; 6 months time on bankable paper at ten per cent interest.

F. N. FUHR, Owner
Cols. H. S. Slaughter and C. L. Tequist, Auctioneers. Write for catalog Spencer State Bank, Clerk.

Z. J. Oswald, who has been relief agent at the Emmet depot for the past six weeks has gone to Creston where he is employed. Boyd Cogil is the present relief agent at Emmet.

Grimming black cats and jolly jack-o-lanterns greet us from almost every school house window. There are many entertainments planned and everybody is glad that Halloween is here.

Our nice spring weather was terminated by a lively rain which fell all day Monday; it turned into snow some time during the night for Tuesday morning our first snow greeted us.

There are a few potatoes to be dug yet and much good corn in the fields, but considerable benefits may be derived from this snow as it is said to purify the air and thus do away with many colds and other sickness.

There is an epidemic of blackleg circulating among the cattle near Emmet; Henry Werner, Gene Luben and Bill O'Connor have each lost one calf. Sam Jennings had a veterinary up from O'Neill Saturday to vaccinate his calves.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES

Twenty-four of Holt county's best citizens met at the O'Neill high school last Saturday to decide the winners of the county which will enter the state contest at the Diamond Jubilee celebration in Omaha. This group of young people were indeed a splendid representation of the young people of Holt county. Representatives were entered from Stuart, Inman, O'Neill, Chambers, Martha and Ewing. The contests were given in intelligence, civic personality and physical tests. The intelligence and civic personality tests together with a key for scoring each were sent up from the University of Nebraska. With the exception of the first six contestants the contestants scored close. Each contestant brought with them a preliminary blank of physical examination by his or her home doctor. Dr. Carter of O'Neill gave the final physical test Saturday. Those receiving the highest score were:

Girl: First: Ruth Keyes, Inman, age 16, grade 12; second: Mildred Agnes, St. Mary's Academy, O'Neill, age 16, grade 11.

Boy: First: Ernest M. Christon, Ewing high school, age 16, grade 12; second: Ignatius Hytrek, Stuart high school, age 17, grade 12.

The committee to score the students was composed of H. F. Weigal, Supt. of Schools, Stuart; R. W. Tilley, Supt. of Schools, Chambers; Sr. M. Dolores, St. Mary's Academy, O'Neill; Sr. M. Etheldreda, St. Mary's Academy, O'Neill; Miss Alice French, Supt. of Schools, Inman; Guy C. Miller, Supt. of Schools, O'Neill; and C. L. Watson, Supt. of Schools, Ewing. Following are the names of the contestants:

John W. Service, Ewing. Gwendolyn Coppoc, Chambers. Henrietta Gunter, Ewing. Irma Mae Prenger, Stuart. Mildred Agnes, St. Mary's Academy. Madeline Leach, Stuart. Grace Quilty, St. Mary's Academy. John M. Grady, St. Mary's Academy. Ignatius Hytrek, Stuart.
