WE'LL TUNE IN!

For the first two-hour program ever broadcast over the radio, William Spier, music critic, was sent to Europe to make electrical transcriptions of famous bands, orchestras, typical ensembles and choruses of nine nations. The result, assembled with program notes and introductions by Deems Taylor, one of America's famous composers and critic, will be sent out over 38 American radio stations on Thanksgiving Day by the General Baking Company as the tenth anniversary 'Bond Bakers' Birthday Broadcast. John Philip Sousa and his famous band will play the 'American finale.' (Herbert Photos, N. Y.)
