THE LINCOLN JOURNAL, HAULS BY AUTO

Since some daily papers have raised the rates by carrier to 20c a week, $10.40 a year, and to $8 a year by mail with Sunday, of $5 a year with-out Sunday, many are ordering the Lincoln Journal.

The Journal's rate by mail is $4 a year without Sunday, $6 a year with Sunday, or 15c a week by carrier

Daily newspaper readers will be pleased to know that the Lincoln Morning Journals are now being rushed by auto to Fremont and there put on the same early morning Northwestern train that the Omaha morning papers use.

This gives our community unexcelled service on a morning newspaper from the capitol city, and one that is edited 100% for Nebraskans. All of the other big Nebraska morning dailies are printed on the Iowa line and edit for Iowa readers also.

Mail one dollar to the Nebraska State Journal of Lincoln, and they will send you a trial subscription, or better yet, order for a whole year. The regular year rate is $4 daily, $6 with Sunday. Don't give money to strangers, order direct or through our office. They want wide-awake carriers in every town.

EMMET ITEMS

The Emmet postmaster, John Conard, is enjoying a new Atwater-Kent

Mrs. Mollie Holopeter came down from Wood Lake, Sunday for a visit at the D. H. Allen home. George Lowery is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Low-ery, recovering from the effects of an auto accident. Robert Bathke, of Norfolk, arrived here recently and is going to spend the winter at the William Carrigan and Pat Barrett homes. A number of folks in this vicinity were recently vaccinated for smallpox. Some of them think the effects of the vaccine was worse than having the disease. The Guy Beckwith children are having the German measles, and are not a bit sick. The rash on their they have the measles. Tedo Dailey is becoming an expert with the lariat, as Mrs. Frank Enbody can testify. No bones were broken; he just caught and threw her, and she has to wear bandages on both knees.

Mrs. D. H. Allen left Monday for Scottsbiuff, where she will attend a W. F. M. S. convention of the Northwest district; from there she expects to go to Denver and Boulder, Colo., to visit relatives and friends. Friends of Art Wilson will be glad to know that he is a very successful field man for the Oatman Conden-sary. He has just finished his fourth sary. He has just finished his fourth year with them and, although happily situated, he still feels that Holt county is his "first love." Speaking of his family, he says that Arthur Jr., is in Harvard University, working on his Ph. D. degree; Harriet is teaching in South Dakota and Jack is finishing High School and on the football team. football team.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Troxtel and the former's mother, accompanied by Mrs. Earl Carnes and Mrs. McElhaney, all of Neligh, Nebraska, came to O'Neill Friday. Mrs. Carnes and Mrs. McElhaney stopped in O'Neill, the former to visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harnish, and the latter to visit her seen Ted. ter to visit her son Ted, who is court reporter for Judge Dickson. The Troxtel family came to Emmet for a visit with old friends Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckwith.

A car belonging to Harry Furgin-son, who canvasses the territory be-tween Emmet and Bassett for a food and medicine company, was quite badly smashed up in an auto accident last week. Just as two trucks going the opposite direction were passing him, another car that was behind the trucks, attempted to pass them and would have smashed into Mr. Furginson's car had not Mr. Furginson turned into the ditch to avoid a collision. He was not badly hurt and is driving his car again, although it is badly bent.
