AUNT LUCIA VISITS O'NEILL TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

The big show event of the year was the home talent play "Aunt Lucia," presented at the opera house Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, under the direction of Miss Gladys Lindy, and sponsored by the Ladies of the Presbyterian Guild.

Almost every family in O'Neill was represented in the cast of characters which consisted of about two hundred individuals, headed by Bennett Gilligan as Aunt Lucia.

The play was well presented and was one big laugh from start to finish. The plot of the play was laid in the fraternity house of a college, and centers around the coming of Aunt Lucia. Bennett Gilligan, as Jerry, had 'dolled' up in a ladies costume to have some fun with the gang, when he was taken for the supposed Aunt Lucia; every effort on his part to ditch the ladies clothes was frustrated by the entrance of someone; one can only imagine a few of the many amusing incidents that occurred during the evening while Jerry was trying to carry out the part of Aunt Lucia.

The Flapper Chorus, composed of the business men of the city, was one of the big events of the evening. The costumes were varied, each one representing some flapper of national prominence and were very amusing.

The choruses and special numbers were very entertaining, as was also the baby pageant.

Large crowds were present each evening and the ladies say that the venture was a financial as well as a social success.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Warner and family, accompanied by Mrs. E. Wilkinson, of Valentine, are spending Thanksgiving at the home of Mrs. Warner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wells, at Stanton, Nebraska.

Arthur Barnes received word last Friday afternoon of the death of his sister, Mrs. Ralph Ball, at Shelby, Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes and children, accompanied by Mrs. Will Luben and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Luben of Emmet, left Saturday morning to attend the funeral, which was held Sunday.

Harry Kestenholt was arraigned in county court last Monday, charged with driving a truck without number plates either in front or on the rear of the truck. He was fined ten dollars and costs.

Special Prohibition Officer George Bay, assisted by Deputy Sheriff Bergstrom, searched the residence occupied by Arthur G. Wyant, Tuesday evening; they found seven and one-half pints of "shine." Wyant was arraigned before County Judge Malone Wednesday morning where he pleaded guilty to possession; he was fined $100 and costs.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rasley made a business trip to Norfolk Tuesday.

Officers of the Catholic Daughters of O'Neill entertained the entire court at a "Hard Time" party, at the K. C. Hall, Monday evening. Everyone appeared in ridiculous costume, which caused a great deal of merriment. Mrs. J. P. Protivinsky was awarded the costume prize. The recreation of the evening was playing Monte Carlo, at which Mrs. L. K. Hough won the high score prize. There were twenty-two couples playing.

School at St. Mary's closed Wednesday noon for Thanksgiving vacation.

Eva T. Harmon of this city, who is now teaching school in the western part of the state, headed the list of the Magna Cum Laude, honor roll of the Nebraska State Normal College at Chadron, Nebraska, for the summer quarter, 1929. A student must complete at least 15 hours college credits with an average of two and one-half quality points per credit hour to be entitled to "Magna Cum Laude" honors. The Normal had an attendance of about 700 students.
