SHAW—PRIBIL

Miss Elsie Pribil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pribil Jr., and Clarence E. Shaw, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Shaw, were married Tuesday morning at St. Patrick's church at eight o'clock, by Father Leahy.

They were attended by Dennis and Miss Margaret McCarthy.

Following the ceremony the wedding party went to the home of the bride's parents where a wedding breakfast was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw left by auto Tuesday for a short trip to points in South Dakota, after which they will be at home to their many friends on a farm south of O'Neill.

The Frontier joins with their friends in extending congratulations.

SAMUEL WOLF

Samuel Wolf passed away at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, at his home four miles southeast of O'Neill, following an illness of several months which confined him to his bed only part of the time.

Mr. Wolf was one of the very early settlers of this part of the county; he, in company with a brother-in-law, drove a yoke of oxen from Iowa, arriving here on Christmas eve 1873, several months before the General O'Neill Colony located here.

Mr. Wolf was the organizer of the I. O. O. F. lodge in O'Neill on March 4, 1876. Mr. Wolf became a member of the order in Norfolk, Nebraska, in September 1874, and continued his membership in the order until his death.

The deceased was seventy-nine years old. He was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Jane Thompson in 1877. To this union twelve children were born, seven of whom are living. The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Wolf was the first to be performed in what is now Holt county.

John Wolf, Morecroft, Wyoming; Mrs. R. A. Baker, Ainsworth, Nebraska; Mrs. W. R. Shaw, Tonawanda, Nebraska; Mrs. Mildred Kelly, Winnetoon, Nebraska, are here to attend the funeral services which will be held from the Methodist church in this city Friday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. O. A. Fortune. The I. O. O. F. lodge will have charge of the services at the grave.

Besides the above named children the deceased leaves a loving wife and three sons; Will and Elmer, of near O'Neill, and Claude, of Morecroft, Wyoming. The latter has been at the bedside of his father for several days but was called home Tuesday morning; he will not return for the funeral services.

As The-Frontier is printing Wednesday evening this week, we are unable to obtain the information for an obituary notice; a further announcement will be published next week.

GWENDOLYN ZOE TOMLINSON

The infant daughter, Gwendolyn Zoe, of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Tomlinson, born last Sunday at a Norfolk hospital, died Wednesday morning at six o'clock.

The remains were brought to O'Neill Wednesday afternoon and laid to rest in Prospect Hill Cemetery. The services were in charge of Rev. Beers.
