OBITUARY

Samuel H. Wolf was born in Bedford County, Pennsylvania on March 11th, 1850; died on his farm four and one-half miles southeast of O'Neill, November 26th, 1929, being 79 years, 8 months and 15 days of age at the time of his death.

He moved to Rollersville, Ohio on September 1, 1870; from there to Greeley, Iowa, August 1, 1871. Driving a yoke of oxen, he arrived in this territory on Christmas eve, 1873 with a view to homesteading in what was at that time unorganized territory. He went through all the hardships of the early pioneer.

He was married to Miss Sarah Jane Thompson, on May 31, 1877, the first couple to be married in the territory which now is Holt county. He was the father of twelve children, seven of whom are living. He joined the Elkhorn Valley Lodge No. 57 on March 4th, 1876, and is the last charter member of that lodge.

He leaves to mourn his death, one sister, Mrs. Dave Wisegarver; his wife; four sons and three daughters; Will and Elmer, of O'Neill; Claude, of Cheyenne, Wyoming; John, of Moorcroft, Wyoming; Mrs. W. R. Shaw, of Tonawanda; Mrs. R. A. Baker, of Ainsworth; Mrs. D. J. Kelley, of Winnetoon; and a large number of old friends.

Funeral services were held from the Methodist church Friday afternoon at two o'clock conducted by Rev. O. A. Fortune; burial was in Prospect Hill cemetery where the L. O. O. F. Lodge had charge of the services.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means to express our thanks and appreciation for the kindness of our neighbors, friends, and members of the Odd Fellow Lodge during the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father.

EMMET NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Beckwith are the parents of a baby daughter, born Saturday, November 30th. This is the latest member of the Beckwith family and is surely a welcome one.

Merile Ohmart was on the sick list a few days last week. Her sister Florence, was substitute teacher at the Karney school.

Mrs. Joe Corrigan, Mrs. Fraley and Mrs. Kee, called on Mrs. Julia Samples, Sunday.

Little George Barrett was quite sick a week ago, but is better now.

The Nye-Snyder Coal Co., of Emmet, gave Miss Anna Nelson, Father Burns and Mr. Ohmart each a ton of coal for Thanksgiving. This gift was surely appreciated and these folks are very thankful to the Nye-Snyder Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Freed and son Robert called at the Fat Barrett home Sunday evening.

Sewell Johnson picked corn for Fred Beckwith a few days last week.

The Reich Findley family of Atkinson spent Thanksgiving evening at the J. Jennings home. Mr. Jennings is slowly improving. He is able to walk all about the yard and one day last week he walked about one-fourth of a mile to the home of a near-by neighbor.

A nice layer of snow and a chilly northwest breeze tell us that winter has begun, although the calendar denies this fact.

60,000 FEET OF FILM USED IN "WILD" SHOTS

More than 60,000 feet of film were exposed in order to record the thrilling scenes that comprise the African portion of "The Four Feathers," one of Paramount's chief bids for motion picture supremacy during 1928-29.

A year of the most dangerous and painstaking sort of effort was spent in capturing this part of the screen version of A. E. W. Mason's famous novel by Merian C. Cooper and Ernest B. Schoedsack, who also have offered the motion picture public, thru Paramount, "Grass" and "Chang."

Thousands of Fuzzy-Wuzzys, rulers of the Red Sea Hills of the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan, as well as hundreds of wild animals, appeared before the camera during the making of the location of Mason's "British bible of courage."

Included among the featured players in this production are Richard Arlen, Fay Wray, Clive Brook, William Powell, Theodore von Eltz, Nita Beery, George Fawcett, Noble Johnson and E. J. Ratcliffe. "The Four Feathers" comes to the Royal Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.
