INSURANCE

Any Kind That You May Want

15% to 25% Saved on Insurance Policy

Insure against Loss from Fire Lightning Tornado

Every car owner should Insure against Collision Public Liability and Property Damage

Plate Glass insurance in a strong company

Hail

Court Bonds Contractors Bonds Notory's Bonds written

-SEE-

L. G. Gillespie Insurance Agency

O'Neill, Nebraska. Our Slogan "Service and Prompt Settlements"

~~

FRANCIS RUTTER DAVIS

lage of Chambers Tuesday afternoon the community goes out to the bereavfrom 1:30 to 3:30 during which time ed widow and children. its business houses were closed while its citizens sorrowfully paid tribute to the memory of Grandpa Davis, who passed away Sunday morning, January 12th at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Hubert Smith.

in Maryland, April 9, 1848. When but Bridget Carr. a-small lad of 15 years, he joined the Union army, July 13, 1863 and served Friday from her home in Chelsea, death. Mr. Davis lived a true Christian life. He was ordained a deacon | Sunday in the Methodist church in 1885 and served as a pastor at Farmersville with his family to Nebraska and took his residence in Holt county.

Mrs. Davis celebrated their golden sea, where Mr. Bell has been stationwedding anniversary at the Metho- ed for the past year; early in the dist church in Chambers, where a month Mr. Bell sailed on the S. S. large crowd gathered to honor this Oglalla for a several months voyage worthy couple. Those who are left to to South America and Mrs. Bell came mourn the loss of this kind and gentle to O'Neill to visit in the meantime. husband and father are the aged widow and seven children, Mrs. Gertrude the death of his wife. Grubb; Mrs. Jennie Greenstreet; Mrs. Annie Grubb, of Chambers; Mr.

of his life conducting a variety store at Chambers. He enjoyed as he well deserved, the respect of his fellow- from St. Patrick's church, Saturday of age. citizens, to a marked degree. All who morning, at nine o'clock. knew him can testify to the goodness of his nature, his integrity and faith as a Christian. He will be long held in memory by his many friends. He was the last one of the Civil War veterans living at Chambers and vicinity to pass on to the Great Be-

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, January 14th, at the Methodist church where he so often | failure. filled the pulpit; Rev. David Scott officiating, assisted by Rev. W. L. Peters; interment at the Chambers Reverant silence gripped the vil- cemetery. The deepest sympathy of

MRS. O. A. BELL

Mrs. O. A. Bell passed away this morning at nine o'clock, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Francis Rutter Davis, son of Mr. Carr, on west Douglas street in this and Mrs. Ebenezer Davis, was born city. Mrs. Bell will be remembered as faithfully under the colors until he Massachusetts, for a visit with her was honorably discharged on July 18, parents. She had been suffering with bad cold for several days and per-Farnam, at Niantic, Illinois. God as the mercury registered 24 degrees blessed this union with 8 children; one below zero that day; she became daughter preceded the father in quite ill and little hopes have been entertained for her recovery since

Bridget Carr was born in Stafford, Nebraska, August 7, 1895, and spent and Sprecardville, Grundy county, the early part of her life on the Carr Missouri. In the year 1900 he came ranch which adjoins the town of Stafford. She was graduated from St. a homestead 12 miles southwest of Mary's Academy in 1915; she taught Chambers, where he lived for about school in Page and O'Neill and other 12 years; after that he lived a short | points in the county for several years time at Grand Island, and 4 years in prior to her marriage on December 4, Colorado. In 1916 he again took up 1927, to O. A. Bell, a member of the medical department of the U.S. Navy. On February 21, 1921, Mr. and They have made their home in Chel-Mr. Bell has been notified at sea of mother, sisters and brothers as fol-Claudius Davis of Pierce, Colorado; lows: Mrs. Helen Regan, Stafford, Springs, Mo., where he had gone officers of the local I. O. O. F. lodge; thing has developed to throw much Mrs. Ruth Mehuron of Alton, Iowa; Nebraska; Mrs. Anna Jordan, O'Neill; with the hopes of benefitting his the new officers are: Dale Bressler, Mrs. Cordia Smith and Mrs. Ruby Mrs. Catherine Keiser, Cody, Nebr.; Wilcox of Chambers, also 24 grand- Mrs. Mary Layman, Chicago; Mrs. children and 12 great grand-children. Agnes Sutcliffe, Yankton, South Da- ha. Mr. Davis spent the last few years kota; Emmet Carr, Chicago; James, Patrick, Loretta and Cecil, at home.

WILLIAM MESSNER

William Messner passed away last Friday at the home of his son Clayton, eight miles southwest of O'Neill eral years. He was eighty-two years, one month and nine days old. The cause of his death was given as heart

The deceased was born December

Heston, of Pleasant Plains, on Febr- last Monday. uary 18, 1875; to this union two children were born, Clayton, of near this city, and Clyde, of Pleasant Plains,

Mr. Messner and family came to Holt county in 1880 and located near what was then the town of Mineola, northeast of O'Neill. Later he moved with his family to O'Neill.

sons above mentioned and one sister who resides in Iowa.

the Presbyterian church of this city Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. Burial was in Prospect Hill cemetery.

JASPER H. RITTS

Jasper H. Ritts of this city, died in a hospital in Eugene, Oregon, last Sunday evening. The remains are expected to arrive in O'Neill Friday morning at 7:30. The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. O. A. Fortune Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Methodist church in this

Mr. Ritts left O'Neill on November 24th for a visit with his daughters, Mrs. O. F. Herring, at Eugene, Oregon; he had not been in the best of health and thought that the change this year, 1,279 renewals and 248 new in climate might prove beneficial. He had been ill for a short time at the home of his daughter, but was taken to the hospital the morning of his

The deceased was about 57 years old. He came to Holt county in the spring of 1895 and took up residence on his grandfather's homestead where he farmed for several years until he was able to obtain a farm of his own. The children surviving are Mrs. O. F. Herring, Eugene, Oregon; Lloyd Ritts, Floyd Ritts, Lester Ritts, all of O'Neill; Buhl Russell Ritts died in 1911 at the age of eleven months.

We are unable to obtain the particulars at this time but will publish a complete obituary next week.

JAMES ALBERT BOIES

Stafford January 17th, at the age of week. years, were conducted in the Page burial was in the Page cemetery ana, October 22, 1856. He grew to ciative audience. The cold weather of trucks. It has been conservatively manhood in Indiana and at the age of and other activities that evening was 26 years he came to Central City no doubt the cause of the lack of at- drivers for each car throughout the and from there to Holt county thirty- tendance. The players are exception- county; if that be true, there should seven years ago. He located near ally good artists and should draw a Stafford which had since been his crowd.

In 1876 he was married to Rose Phelps. To this union were born three ever been shown in this section of the children. One son and his wife have state was "The Gold Diggers of preceded him in death. Two sons, Broadway" which was at the Royal Charles, of Ewing, and William, of Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tues-Stafford, survive, together with 11 grandchildren and nine great grand- The theatre was well filled at each children and other relatives.

MAYOR JAMES DAHLMAN,

one of the most widely known resihealth while preparing for another

For twenty-one years Mr. Dahlman has filled the office of mayor of The funeral services will be held Omaha. He was seventy-three years

Under the charter of Omaha, City Commissioner John Hopkins, who is vice-president of the council, acts as mayor during the interim following the mayor's death, until his successor is chosen. Mr. Hopkins is a form-

LOCAL NEWS.

Ewing, were issued a marriage license on the 18th.

> granted a marriage license by County Judge Malone on January 18th.

to her room for the past five weeks past three weeks. Since last Friday with a siege of rheumatism; Mrs. the mercury has continued to stay

Nu Fu Club last Friday afternoon. The high score prize was awarded Mrs. Ernest Young and Mrs. Geo.

Henry Losher went to Atkinson Sunday to visit his son George, who Harry Bowen, the official weather is in the hospital recovering from an operation. He is getting along nicely and will be home in a few days.

Mrs. W. J. McPherran, who has taking instruction in the Interstate cold. February warmed up noticeably Power Co. offices, returned to her home in Ponca, Neb., Wednesday.

8, 1848, at Pleasant Plains, Iowa, Jack McAllister and John Herra, where he grew to manhood; he was of Atkinson, were among those transunited in marriage to Miss Mary M. acting business at the court house

> Rev. H. H. Beers was in WaKenney, Kansas, last Sunday where he preached for a brother minister. He returned home early in the week.

The price for hens is quite a help to the farmers these days when money is hard to get. The price is 21c. When an old hen will bring more than $1.00 The deceased leaves a wife, the two farmers can afford to raise chickens.

Sheridan Simmons went to South Sioux City Tuesday morning to at-tend the "get together" dinner given The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Frazell of Ewing, from by the South Sioux City chapter of the Izaak Walton League that even-

> Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunter, of Star visited Sunday with his mother, sister and aunt, Mrs. J. M. Hunter, Mrs. Wm. Brady, of Calgary, Canada and Mrs. Nettie Williams, of Tipton,

> Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bruzzell returned to their home near Gillette, Wyoming, last Saturday. They were called here last week to attend the funeral services for their daughter, Mrs. Edward Menish.

The renewal of auto licenses are not coming in as rapidly as they did last year, according to the Treasurer's office. Up to the present time ones have been issued; a year ago at this time over 2,000 receipts had been

O. Ellsworth will hold a public sale at his place five miles southeast of O'Neill, on Wednesday, February 5th. Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth expect to move to a small tract near Alvo, Nebraska, sixteen miles from Lincoln. They have made a number of Fire Chief G. E. Miles, accompanied by five of his associate firemen, just completed rebuilding the line re-C. E. Zimmerman, G. E. Burge, Ed cently acquired from John A. Robert-Haggensick, Norbert Uhl, James son which paralells the power line Davidson Jr., left early Tuesday running north along highway No. 8. morning in the large Neligh-O'Neill There are eleven phones on the line. Friday by a score of 13-19. bus for Kearney, Nebraska, to attend The line is now a metalic circuit and the annual State Firemen's conven- is giving excellent service. Funeral services for James Albert tion which convened in that city Tues- W. E. Conklin, in charge of issuing Butte had possession of the ball most Boies, who died at his home near day, Wednesday and Thursday of this drivers licenses, reports to us that of the time. When the whistle for the Methodist church Sunday afternoon their second appearance at the K. C. This number seems to be consider- boys had to stage a come-back. They by the Rev. Samuel McKeown, and opera house Wednesday evening. ably below the estimate for Holt went on the floor like a new team, They presented "Her Good-for-Noth- county, Last year there were 4400 played the game right, and brought Mr. Boies was born at Rome, Indi- ing Husband" to a small but appre- cars licensed besides a large number

Without doubt the most beautiful picture in natural colors that has day. It was an all-talking picture. performance and every one seemed to be overjoyed at having had the privilege to see the picture. Mrs. Rasley OMAHA, DIED WEDNESDAY tells us that she has a number of the real big pictures coming to the Roy-Mayor James Dahlman, perhaps al during the next few months.

District Deputy Grand Master Bert The deceased leaves her father and dents of Nebraska, passed away on Gray and staff came up from Page Wednesday morning at Excelsior Wednesday evening and installed the to discover who did the job but no N. G.; Russell Bowen, V. G.; A. E. race for the office of Mayor of Oma- Bowen, Chaplain; J. C. Harnish, Secretary; B. T. Winchell, R. S. N. G.; Alva Winchell, L. S. N. G.; W. P. Curtis, R. S. V. G.; J. H. Meredith, L S. V. G.; Elmer Bowen, Warden; Ira Moss, Conductor; R. N. Brittell, I. G.; L. G. Gillespie, O. G. The members of the staff accompanying Mr. Gray were N. G. Miller, Harold Miller, W. I. Gray, J. E. Smith, Alva Townsend, George Park.

Miss Nona Bressler invited twenty er O'Neill young man who has been of her girl friends to her home to where he has made his home for sev- quite proficient in the official man- help celebrate her birthday anniveragement of Omaha for several years, sary Tuesday evening. Those present were Mary Haffner, Opal Harbottle, Corinne Smith, Grace Loy, Elva Stauffer, Pearl Burge, Loree Sauers, Florence Surber, Margaret Honeywell, George W. Schindler, Newboro, Hazel Schwisow, Elizabeth Henry, Nebraska, and Miss Rose T. Cracher, Mrs. E. D. Henry, Elizabeth Harkins, Patrice Robertson, Rebecca Haskins, Bernice Scofield, Jean Selah, Carolyn Clifford Jarman and Miss Arelie Beers, Honore Langmack, Mae Lang-May Lowery, both of Chambers, were mack. From all reports, a jolly time

> The weather has been one of the Mrs. Burt Gunn has been confined main topics of conversation for the Pearl Harding has been caring for around the zero mark; Friday morning the thermometer at the court Mrs. Les Hough was hostess to the house registered 24 below; Saturday 7 below; Sunday zero; Monday 15 below; Tuesday 17 below; Wednesday 10 below; Thursday 1 above. Considerable discussion has been current as to the weather during January 1929; reporter, we learn that the month was fairly cold but not so severe as this year; up until the 25th the coldest point was 7 below; on the 25th 15 spent the past two weeks in ONeill below and balance of the month was until the 8th and 9th when the mercury stood at 19 below each morning; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Milander and about the middle of the month a few son Donnie, drove over from Cedar warm days are recorded but on the county Sunday and spent a couple of 19th it was 15 below; warmer weathdays visiting at the George Crellin er followed and no more zero weathhome in this city. Mrs. Milander is a er is recorded for the remainder of the winter.

The Bell Telephone Company have estimated that there are at least two be several hundred more drivers licenses issued before the number is complete. Many people do not realize that they are subject to a heavy penalty for driving without a drivers license and that they will be liable for all damages to another car. The cheapest and safest way is to get a O'NEILL NATIONAL FARM LOAN license before something happens.

THIEVES BUTCHER HEIFER ON NOLLKAMPER PLACE

Some time during the night of December 31st, thieves butchered a twoyear-old heifer belonging to Wm. Nollkamper, of Omaha, in one of his pastures about eighteen miles north of O'Neill. An effort has been made light upon the case.

O'NEILL HIGH SCHOOL WINS

The O'Neill high school basketball team won a very interesting and exciting game from the Butte cagers.

The first half of the game did not look so well for the O'Neill boys, for only 5594 drivers licenses have been half sounded, the score was 7-3 favorissued since the law went into effect. ing Butte. Then things changed, the nome the victory.

Basket Ball Schedule for	Season
January 23-Long Pine	Here
January 28-Butte	Here
January 30-Atkinson	There
February 4-Long Pine
February 11-St. Mary's
February 14-Lynch
February 21-Lynch
February 25-Atkinson
February 28-Neligh

ASS'N. ELECTS DIRECTORS

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the O'Neill National Farm Loan Association the following directors were elected:

R. H. Murray, Winfield Hayne, Jas. F. O'Donnell, C. J. Kimbrough and Paul Schwisow. The directors elected the following officers R. H. Murray, President; Winfield Hayne, Vice-President; Jas. F. O'Donnell, Secretary-Treasurer.

EVERY time you yield to temptation to spend a dollar you cannot afford to part with, you weaken your will to bank it.

The O'Neill National Bank

Capital, Surplus and Undivided

Profits, $125,000.00

This bank carries no indebtedness of officers or stockholders.

Genuine 13-Plate FORD BATTERY

Allowance on old Battery

All Ford owners are entitled to our inspection service. Come in today. Have the fluid checked and terminals cleaned and greased.

Quality That Outlives the Price.

Mellor Motor Co.

Ford Dealers