

Veteran of U. S. Supreme Court at 35

Charles E. Cropley who, although but 35 years old, has 22 years of service in the United States Supreme Court to his credit. Cropley first entered Uncle Sam's judicial service at the age of 13 when he began as a page. Associate Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes is the only one of the present Justices who was serving at that time. Cropley served under four Chief Justices.

Forgets Her Passport, France Waives Rule

All the resources of international telephones, telegraphs and fast mail were brought into play over the week-end to save Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow and Miss Elizabeth Morrow from delay at the hands of the French immigration service. Mrs. Morrow did what many do who go abroad—forgot her passport.

Pittsburgh Lass Queen At Sweet Briar College

Miss Eliza Ruth Hasson, a Pittsburgh, Pa., girl, has been elected Queen of the May at Sweet Briar College at Lynchburg, Virginia. The annual festival starts May 4.

Fair Entrants in Southland Pageant

The land of sunshine will again witness an exemplary battle—this time, however, it will be a battle of beauty, attended by the Queen of Beauty from every land, all seeking the honor of "most beautiful." Above are pictured some of the fair contestants (left) Evelyn Witt, acclaimed Queen of Beauty in her native State of Pennsylvania. Martha Hick, of Pittsfield, Mass., who will represent the

Ray State; Mary Dean, who sailed from Cristobal, Canal Zone, to carry the laurels for "Miss Canal Zone." (Center) Haydee Morales, 18-year-old Nicaraguan girl, who bears the title of "Miss Nicaragua." (Lower) Miss Doreen Dendix, one of London's most beautiful hostesses, is considered an authentic type of English beauty.

Attack Dry Law to Restore State's Powers

William H. Stayton, chairman of the board of directors of the Association Against Prohibition, demanded the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, leaving each State free to permit or prohibit liquor, as it may choose, in an anti-dry attack before the House Judiciary Committee.

Former Governor Seeks Senate Seat

Eben S. Draper, of Hopedale, Mass., former army captain, recently announced his candidacy for the United States Senate.

Ready for "Blind" Flight

The student aviator at Oakland, Calif., at the left is about to be enclosed in hood covering the cockpit, which will make him depend entirely upon his instruments for guidance in flying the plane. He gains self-reliance and confidence in his instruments which will stand him in good stead when he encounters dense fog or blizzards and must determine his course entirely without external aids.

Honesty Brings Reward

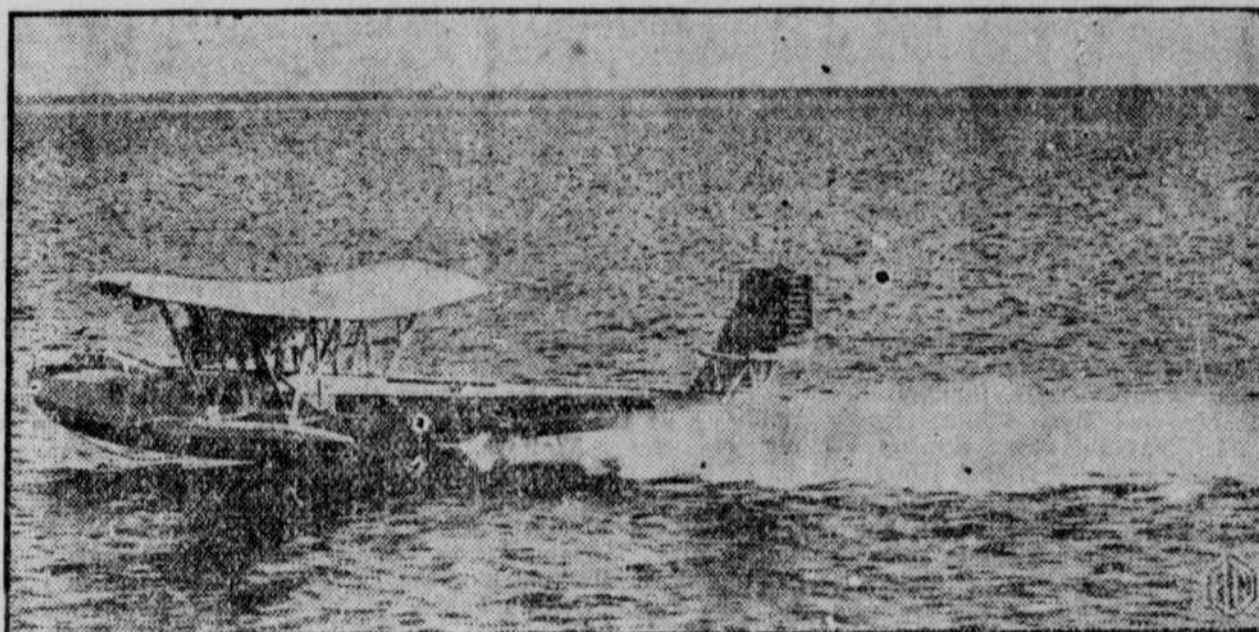

Police Commissioner Grover Whalen, New York City, giving a five-thousand-dollar reward to Clodomiro Ruiz, an honest taxi driver, who returned a bag he found in his cab. The bag contained jewels worth $45,000. With the reward Ruiz plans to take his sick wife to a farm in Porto Rico, where he hopes she will regain her health.

Impeached Governor Will Stage Comeback

Former Governor James E. Ferguson, of Texas, who, although he was impeached and removed from office in 1917, announces that he will be a Democratic candidate for Governor in the July elections. Since his removal from office as Governor, Ferguson has been an unsuccessful candidate for the United States Senate and ran for President on the American Party ticket.

First Air Mail From Chile to U. S.

Huge flying boat carrying its precious cargo of the first air mail to be carried from Chile, Argentina and Brazil to the United States. The ship is shown just after taking off from Port of Spain, Trinidad, at the northern tip of South America, to carry the mail over one relay division of the 8,000 mile jump. The route crosses over 16 countries on two continents and the service will cut down the travel time from 18 days to about one week.

Picturesque Attire for Ocean Cruise

The picturesque young lady pictured above is all ready for a yachting cruise, from the manner in which she is attired. She dons a blouse of silk crepe and a circular skirt of flannel that boasts light blue stars over a smooth white surface. The cape of blue flannel replaces the jacket of yore at the shoulders.

Oldest Woman Slaps Methods of Today

Mrs. Hester Ann Harmon, who is celebrating her 108th birthday in the Milwaukee Hospital, is believed to be America's oldest woman. Mrs. Harmon, whose mind is alert, is of the opinion that the world is living too fast nowadays to break many records for longevity.

Broadway Star in American Legion Show

Valerie Raemier, Broadway's highest salaried show girl, was judged by a committee of American Legion artists to be the most beautiful girl in America. She will represent the United States in the forthcoming American Legion picture "Raus Mitt 'Em."

The Bottle-Cry of Freedom

Patrolman Peter Harfst, New York, looks over a few of the 1,800 bottles of liquor unloaded upon the police, following a raid. The 1,800 bottles are valued at $10,000, and it has been necessary to convert the police station into a miniature liquor warehouse.

Will Lead North Carolina State Prom

Miss Florence Briggs, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Briggs, will lead the annual prom at North Carolina State College this year. Miss Briggs is sponsor of the Pan-Hellenic Council of National Greek letter societies at North Carolina State College.