HIGH SCHOOL MUSIC CONTEST AT WAYNE, APRIL 11-12
 The second annual district high school music contest will be held at the State Teacher's College at Wayne Friday and Saturday, April 11-12. This announcement will be of interest to all high schools and to the music-loving public in general, for the best musical talent of northeast Nebraska high schools will be assembled in Wayne on those dates for competition in the state music contest.
 The program will include bands, orchestras, girls' glee clubs, boys' glee clubs, mixed choruses, small group events and soloists, both vocal and instrumental. Friday afternoon and evening will be devoted entirely to competition in solos and small group events, while those events requiring large numbers of contestants will be held on Saturday. Last year twenty-four schools, with about five hundred contestants, participated in the contest.
 Entry blanks have already been sent out to the schools. These must be returned to the secretary, Mr. Maurice K. Peterson, Hartington, by April 1. The public is invited and urged to attend the program.
