SOUTH OF O'NEILL

Miss Evelyn Hall was in O'Neill shopping, last week.

Frank Peter purchased a seeder from Biglin's last week.

Miss Enid Anderson went home on the Chambers mail Saturday morning.

Grover Shaw was southeast of Chambers, Monday on business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shaw are moving this week onto the Polensky place.

Mrs. Grover Shaw returned last week; she is much improved in health.

The little snow storm looked bad Monday afternoon but it didn't last very long.

The first of April slipped by without some of us realizing it was April Fool's day.

Miss Agnes M. Peter called on Mrs. Fred McNally, in O'Neill, Saturday afternoon.

Chas. Martin, who lives south of the Waller lake, was in O'Neill on business, Saturday.

Rudolph Brachman and his uncle, Herman Brachman, were at Inman last week on business.

John, Harry and their sister, Miss Agnes, were visiting at the home of John Peter, Jr., Sunday evening.

We are all glad to hear that John Peter, Jr., is up and about. He is rather weak from the serious illness.

The Wm. Jutte house is about finished; the outside work is all done and the inside work almost finished.

Mrs. John Shoemaker has charge of the Westside food sale this week, for the benefit of the Catholic church.

John G. Peter is hauling hay to Inman again this week and finds the roads are pretty rough and sandy in places.

Anne Peter started to school Monday, as she hasn't been able to go for some time, since she had pneumonia.

B. B. Bay is moving south of the South Fork this week. He has charge of the road from the South Fork on south, for some time.

Miss Mae Peter, who is teaching near Phoenix, Nebraska, was in O'Neill doing some shopping Saturday; she returned Sunday night.

Rudolph Brachman drove his tractor home from Chambers, where he had some repairs made, and expects to start planting his fields soon.

Mrs. Ray Hoffman and Mrs. Wm. Jutte called on Mrs. Harry Ressel to see the new baby girl who was born a few days ago; baby and mother are getting along fine.

Last Saturday H. W. Tomlinson brought out to Jim Peter the churn which attaches to the Maytag washing machine; they are well pleased with the machine.

John G. Peter hauled a truck load of calves to Roy Alterman, who lives northeast of town, last week and brought back a load of wood from Oscar Newman's for H. W. Tomlinson, in O'Neill.

INMAN ITEMS

J. A. Gifford came up from Wayne, Nebraska, Wednesday for a visit with friends.

Miss Marjorie Smith came up from Norfolk, Saturday for a week's visit with relatives.

Miss Francis Tomjack, of Ewing, spent the week-end here with Miss Mildred Keyes.

Roy Goree and daughters Helen Fae and Irene, were in Inman Friday visiting relatives.

E. H. Smith is back from Monroe, Nebraska, looking after business for the defunct bank at this place.

Mrs. John Borders, who is teaching at Amelia, came Friday for a visit with relatives, returning Sunday evening.

Miss Della Thompson finished a very successful term of school at Inez last Wednesday, returning home Wednesday evening.

Mrs. E. A. Clark and son Leslie went to Madison, Nebraska, Thursday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. E. R. Rogers and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson came up from Meadow Grove, Neb., Saturday night to spend Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rutledge, of Newport, Nebraska, and Miss Kivitt, of Norfolk, were visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kivitt, last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Hartigan, who are employed by the Western Bridge and Construction Co., came up from Norfolk, Friday, to spend the week-end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bouy and children, of Gracia, Nebraska, came Saturday morning and visited with his sister, Mrs. W. H. Chicken and family until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wagner and children, of Fairbury, and Fred Romig, of Wilcox, Nebraska, came Sunday to spend a couple of days at the L. R. Tompkins home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Hutten and Mrs. Eugene Clark went to Ainsworth the latter part of the week for a couple day's visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Berger.

Mrs. Harry McGraw, who has spent the past two months visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Manchester, of Gilroy, California and other relatives, returned home Thursday night.

F. H. Outhouse and daughter Miss Alice, and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Davis, drove to Springview, Nebraska, Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. A. J. Outhouse, which was held Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fletcher and Mrs. Emma Howes came down from Orchard, Friday for a visit at the W. H. Chicken home; Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher returned the same day, but Mrs. Howes remained for a longer visit.

Harold E. Mitzfeldt, of Lincoln, was in town Monday to interview the school board in regard to a position in the schools for the coming year. Mr. Mitzfeldt was elected Principal of the high school at a meeting of the board on Monday evening.

Elder Wm. Smith of Independence, Missouri, came Friday for a short visit with his sister, Mrs. F. H. Outhouse; he was on his way home from Springview, Nebraska, where he had conducted funeral services for the late Mrs. A. J. Outhouse, on Thursday afternoon.

George Killinger and daughters, Mrs. John Borders, and Misses Ruth and Lois Killinger, drove to Wayne, Sunday to see Mrs. Killinger who is ill and is at Wayne receiving medical treatment; they returned the same evening and report that Mrs. Killinger is getting along nicely.

Ed Bradley, living northwest of town, underwent an operation at his home, Saturday afternoon, for the removal of his right arm. The arm was amputated just below the elbow. Drs. Gilligan & Brown, assisted by Mrs. Brown, performed the operation; at this time his condition is just fair.

Lois Moore, of Inman, who is attending Wesleyan University at Lincoln, Nebraska, was one of the eight Juniors who were elected to membership in the national honorary social sciences fraternity, Pi Gamma Mu. Membership is restricted to those who have high records of scholarship and interests in the subjects which may have a social or political application.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Butler; Mrs. Geo. Coventry; Mrs. E. L. Watson and Mrs. I. L. Watson, went to O'Neill, Monday evening to witness the electric stove demonstration by the Interstate Power Co. They were all enthusiastic about the stoves. Mr. Butler has been appointed representative for this district and plans several similar demonstrations in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Casper Pribil entertained a number of friends at a turkey dinner, at their home last Tuesday evening; covers were laid for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Leo Mossman; Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Watson; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Watson; Mr. and Mrs. John O'Donnell, all of Inman, and Miss Dunn, of O'Neill. The evening was pleasantly spent in visiting and cards.

Much interest is being shown in the revival meetings at the Methodist church; Rev. Window is bringing fine sermons each night, and good music is also furnished. As a special treat, the Methodist choir of O'Neill, under the direction of Miss Ruth Kramer, has consented to come down and sing for us one evening. The attendance has been good and several decisions have been made.

The play, "Cat O' Nine Tails," put on by the Senior class of the Inman high school last Friday night, was a huge success. Every part was well taken; special credit is due to Jerry Kopecky, who played the dual role as Henry, the chore boy (alias the Cat O' Nine Tails). The entire cast was well chosen and the play was greatly enjoyed by all. Proceeds of the evening amounted to $80.50.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chicken entertained a number of relatives and friends at a dinner, Sunday, the occasion being their twenty-second wedding anniversary and Mr. Chicken's birthday, both events coming on April 1st, but for convenience sake the occasion was celebrated on Sunday. Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bouy and children, of Gracia, Nebraska; Mrs. Emma Howes and Mrs. Stella Hamilton and son Richard, of Orchard; Mrs. G. J. Portzline and daughter, Evelyn, of Creighton.

ENTERTAINMENT ART

HITS PEAK WITH "RIO RITA"

"RIO RITA," the all-talking, all-musical Radio Pictures' extravaganza which opens Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at Royal Theatre, O'Neill, is evidence—tuneful, colorful evidence—that the screen has touched a new high mark in entertainment.

Interesting as is the story, lavish as are the sets and costumes, it is the singing and acting of the large cast of principals that lift "Rio Rita" to the peak in audience appeal.

Bebe Daniels, in the title role, is no less than a sensation with her new-found voice. No heralded prima donna of the opera ever so fascinated an audience as does Miss Daniels as she sings more than a dozen of Harry Tierney's beautiful melodies.

John Boles, erstwhile musical comedy star, is excellent as leading man with Miss Daniels. Presing the leading characters for honors of the piece, however, are Bert Wheeler, Dorothy Lee and Robert Woolsey, who give to the show not only a generous share of comedy, but contribute much to its large share of singing and dancing.

Helen Kaiser, one of the girls Ziegfeld "glorified" in the stage version of "Rio Rita"; Don Alvarado, George Renevant, Nick de Ruiz, and Eva Rosita are others who add much to the appeal of "Rio Rita."

One of the highlights of the show, so plentiful with highlights, is the Pearl Eaton chorus of 100 of Hollywood's most beautiful dancing girls. The Cimini Grand Chorus of 80 voices; Victor Baravalle's Symphony orchestra and a night club show, introducing some grand specialty acts, round out the fulsome entertainment of "Rio Rita."
