"VITAPHONE COURTSHIP" GIVEN BY DORSEY LADIES

The play, "Vitaphone Courtship," was presented on April 18th by the Dorsey Ladies Aid at the Dorsey church, to a crowded house. This was a very snappy play, mixed with some beautiful scenes and every part was played as only real actors could play it. The show was a two act play with five scenes in the last act in the form of a pageant. The costumes were very pretty as well as typical of what they represented and the songs were well rendered. Aunt Eliza and Uncle Ebe, the old dorky servants (comedians), kept the house in laughter whenever they were on the stage. The cast consisted of eighteen ladies and we must say that Dorsey has some real talent, both in acting and singing. You should have seen the play to appreciate it.

The Pickering orchestra, with Miss Wilma playing the piano; Miss Vera the violin and Claude the saxophone furnished some lovely music. The two songs given between acts, one given by the two Marshal children and the other by Claude Pickering and Vivian Newman, were very well rendered.

The cast in the play: The Col., a southern gentleman, Miss Sadie Derickson; his wife, Mrs. Roy Emerson; their daughter (Miss Janet), Miss Vivian Newman; her lover (Dick), Miss Ruth Holz; Uncle Ebe (dorky servant) Mrs. Frank Hunter; Aunt Eliza (dorky servant) Mrs. Wm. Pickering; Hiawatha, Mrs. Frank Butterfield; Minnehaha, Mrs. Throckmorton; John Alden, Mrs. Harry Johnson; Priscilla, Mrs. Wm. Derickson; Scotch Lassie, Mrs. Mike Piclap; Civil War Lover, Mrs. Carl Grant; Civil War Sweetheart, Mrs. Chas. Cole; World War Lover, Mrs. Ray Siders; World War Sweetheart, Mrs. Henry Heurman; Radio Announcer, Mrs. John Carsen; Pianist, Mrs. Guy Johnson.

Judge Dickson was attending court at Ainsworth this week. He is expected home tonight.

George Jones, residing near Tonawanda postoffice southwest of O'Neill was before the insanity board in this city on April 12th; he was sent to the Dr. Verges Sanitarium in Norfolk for treatment that evening.

EDWARD SATTLER, INMAN, IN TROUBLE AGAIN

Edward Sattler, of Inman, was brought to O'Neill last Saturday on a complaint charging him with insanity; he was represented by Hugh J. Boyle, of Norfolk, at the hearing Tuesday before the Insanity Board, who adjudged him an inebriate and ordered him sent to the Norfolk State Hospital. He is still in O'Neill because of the crowded condition of the hospital.

The trouble arose when, it is reported, Sattler pulled a large revolver on a clerk in the hardware store at Inman and endeavored to make him cash a check which the clerk had refused to do; the gun was taken from Sattler but other trouble followed; he was finally subdued and held for the sheriff, who went down and got him.

Inman people were pretty much excited over the escapade.

The census dodgers and those who give untruthful or smart answers to the enumerators are meeting with hard luck all over the country; an ultra smart fellow in New York City is facing a $500 fine and sixty days in jail because of a number of untruthful and flippant answers to the questions on the questionnaire; a school teacher down east is also in trouble because she refused to answer the questions; a number of others in various parts of the country have been brought into court for irregularities connected with the taking of the census.

A group meeting of the Boy Scouts was held at the court house on Monday evening of this week. Nearly every town in the county was represented at this meeting. Rev. Farley, of Bloomfield, and John D. Wright, Chief Scout Executive of the Covered Wagon Area of the Boy Scouts of America, were in attendance, and at this meeting, plans were formulated for the big ten day camping and outing trip which will be held at Spencer some time in June. The Boy Scouts are all planning on this outing and with the arrangements for all the camping equipment being taken care of by the area supervisor of the Scouts, everything promises to be a real time for the boys. The Spencer Chamber of Commerce has made a number of recent improvements at the camp site near that city and are going to considerable expense in equipping the camp grounds there for the scouts. Another troop is being organized at O'Neill, making two at this place. The Scouts plan on making O'Neill the key town for this district, and later on expect to have an office at this point.
