EDUCATIONAL NOTES

(Received Last Week)

The date of the World-Herald contest has been announced as Saturday, April 26th.

About 625 Seventh and Eighth grade students of Holt County wrote on the state examinations on Thursday and Friday of last week.

National Child Health Day, May 1, and World Good Will Day, April 18, are set aside in order that some definite advancement may be made each year in the character life of every child with regard to these two important subjects, Health and World

Understanding.

The winners of the final Written Spelling Contest were determined last Saturday by a written contest held at the court house to pick the winners of the trips. Angela Mullen, St. Joseph's Hall, Atkinson, was winner of first place and Irene Wertz, of the Page public school, was winner of second place. Angela was also the winner of first place in the Oral Elimination contest, too. She will be given a free trip to Lincoln to the State Fair, in September. Irene Wertz will go with Mary Virginia Agnes, winner of second place in the oral contest, to the Interstate Contest, to be held in Council Bluffs, on Friday, April 18th.

MIDDLE BRANCH ITEMS

(Received Last Week)

Wm. Hart, the assessor, called upon us last week.

Chas. Goree, who lives with Leslie Summers, is on the sick list. Mark Summers will be back on his old star route from Elgin to Bartlett after July 1st.

Mrs. A. D. Palmer of Page, our efficient census taker, was calling upon residents in this vicinity last Saturday.

Roger Bowen has not been in the best of health recently, but as he is a graduate from the Page high school this year he is keeping up his school work.

E. E. Summers went to Bartlett the first of the week to get his wife who has been caring for Mrs. L. McLain, who was seriously burned a week ago; Mrs. McLain is recovering nicely from the burns and hope for her recovery is maintained.

Dr. O. W. French, of Page has been very busy the last week; there were five births in his territory. Some of the babies born were a son to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hines; a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Haines; a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. John Stauffer; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Park.

The county road from Venus to the Holt county line is being graveled from Roy Hunter's and Mr. Jefferies'; E. Summers, Mr. Carey, E. West, E. Carson and others, are doing the work. We are in hopes that the graveling will be continued; it joins the highway at the Kohler corner; we would then have a road that would be of untold value to everyone.

SOUTH OF O'NEILL

Harry Ressel was at the Jim Peter farm on business last week.

Frank Posvar was at the Jim Peter home last week on business.

Rudolph Brackman was in O'Neill on business the first of the week.

Milford and Frank Hall were over to Wallace McKim's, Sunday afternoon.

John and Harry Peter put up a windmill for Clarence Shaw, Tuesday afternoon.

Grover Shaw was at the Charles Martin farm recently to get some horses to break.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shoemaker were at the Walter Stewart home one evening recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pribil Jr., called on Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shaw, Sunday afternoon.

Miss Agnes Peter and her brother called on Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shaw the other evening.

John Peter Jr., and family were visiting at the Joe Soukup home north of O'Neill, Sunday.

Miss Evelyn Hall purchased a case of Buff Orpington hatching eggs from Agnes Peter, Tuesday.

John Peter Jr., Harry Peter and Joe Peter were at the Cyril Peter home Monday, branding cattle.

Easter morning wasn't very bright for many to show off their Easter togs on account of rainy weather.

Stanley, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Peter has been ill recently but is somewhat better at this writing.

An old time dance was held in Chambers, Wednesday night; a good time was enjoyed by both the young and old.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Peter, Grandma and the two little girls, Elsie and Lillian, were in O'Neill, Saturday afternoon.

Richard the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Shoemaker, who had his hands burned badly last week, is getting along fine.

The weather has been very unsettled for the past week or so; it don't know whether it should rain or clear up; let's hope for the latter.

Most of the neighbors have their small grain planted and are hoping for some real warm weather, as we have had enough rain for a while.

Miss Lois Wier and brother Harold Weir, came home to spend Easter with their folks; they returned to Wayne Monday via bus, where they are attending school.

It is said that if it rains on Easter Sunday, it rains for six weeks; we can't tell whether it did or not, but hope the weather clears so that we will have real spring to enjoy.

H. W. Tomlinson was at Grover Shaw's, Monday demonstrating the Maytag washing machine and Tuesday at Jake Pribil's. He seems to have real good luck for quick sales for the Maytag so far.

INMAN NEWS

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. Dalbert Sholes, on Wednesday, a ten pound baby boy.

Wes Murphy, of Stuart, who was a former resident of Inman, was in town Friday greeting old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bowering and Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Simmons, of O'Neill, visited at the R. M. Conard home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Peterson, of O'Neill, were in Inman Sunday, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Conard.

Joe Bittner, who is employed in a hardware store at Scribner, came Saturday night to spend the weekend with home folks.

Miss May Flood of Newman Grove who is teaching in the schools at Gordon, Nebraska, is here spending her Easter vacation with her friend Lois Moor.

Among those purchasing new cars this week were James Coventry, a Chevrolet sedan; Paul Bitner a Chevrolet coupe and Dewey Davis a Chevrolet truck.

Clifford Smith and his mother, Mrs. Florence Smith, and Mrs. James Hopkins, went to Orchard Sunday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith.

Miss Lois Moor, who is attending school at the Wesleyan University at Lincoln, came Thursday night to spend the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Moor.

Charles Tompkins, who is attending school at the Wesleyan University at Lincoln, came home Friday to spend the Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Tompkins.

Clyde Ross, who received severe injury to his foot several weeks ago when it became caught in a hay bailer, and who has since been in O'Neill receiving medical aid, was able to return home last Monday.

Clarence McClurg, student at the Wayne State Normal, came Thursday night to spend the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Jessie McClurg, and his sister, Miss Bessie McClurg. He returned to Wayne on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Thompson went to O'toe, Iowa, Sunday in response to a telegram announcing the death of Mr. Thompson's aunt, Mrs. Perry Coon. They attended the funeral which was held on Monday; they were accompanied by their son William Thompson and wife, of Meadow Grove, Nebraska.

A very interesting service was held at the Latter Day Saints Church last Sunday evening. After the regular opening the service was turned over to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Butler, who had a few days before returned from Independence, Missouri, where they had attended a conference of the Latter Day Saints Church. They each gave a fine report, which was greatly appreciated by the members.

Easter Sunday was appropriately celebrated at the Methodist church last Sunday. At 6 o'clock a. m., a sunrise service was held by the members of the Epworth League; at 10 o'clock Sunday School convened, at which time there was a large attendance; at 11 o'clock, regular church service was held and in spite of rain and muddy roads, the church was full. At this service the ordinance of Baptism was administered, at which time four infants and nine children and adults received baptism. A class of 14 was then received into membership in the church.

"HOT FOR PARIS" A GREAT COMEDY

Put on your asbestos rimmed eye glasses when you take a peek at some of the more scorching scenes in Raoul Walsh's successor to "The Cock Eyed World," namely, "Hot For Paris," which, as you probably know, is the further adventures of the erstwhile Capt. Flagg Victor McLaglen, and is at the Royal Theatre, Sunday and Monday.

Assisted ably by the talented comedienne, Fil Dorsay and Polly Moran, with El Brendel of the Swedish accent, McLaglen makes "Hot For Paris" as thoroughly enjoyable as its predecessor. What was trench humor in the past is now flavored with salt spray, but the marines and sailors talk the same language and have the same amorous pursuits. But whether the fun be earthy or salty the result is solid entertainment.

Consider the primary situation: McLaglen and Brendel are sailing the bounding billows, headed for Havre, a port with many piquant, if somewhat flamboyant, memories for the pair. Indeed, they suspect the gendarmierie would very much like to lodge them at the city's expense. Meanwhile McLaglen on several occasions is about to lose or destroy a ticket he purchased sometime previous on the Calcutta Sweepstakes. Brendel's Swedish thrift alone saves it from destruction. And, strangely enough, it's the winning ticket.

At Havre the boys are to be notified of their good luck but never quite manage to "get the breaks" as they suspect the race official is a detective. In fact from there on they keep running away from a fortune. Fil shelters them from their pursuer and sets off a romance which is crammed with hilarity.

A provincial wedding proves to be a scene of much merriment, in more ways than one. The wine flows freely and little Brendel gets neatly stewed. A near riot breaks out when the bride to be is found beneath a hay-cock completely 'swacked' with Brendel.

A number of catchy tunes were provided by Edgar Leslie and Walter Donaldson, chief of which are "The Duke of Kakiak," "Sweet Nothings of Love," "Sing Your Little Folk Song" and "If You Want To See Paree." Miss Dorsay "puts over" a song with all the talent of Irene Bordini, while McLaglen creates somewhat of a surprise by his pleasant voice.

It's a delightful comedy; a worthy successor to that other brilliant Fox success, "The Cock Eyed World."

EDUCATIONAL NOTES

There were 114 contestants entered from Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota.

Mary Virginia will go to Omaha this week where she will compete Friday in the World-Herald spelling contest.

In the oral spelling there were 24 still contesting when Mary Virginia went down. Irene went down a short time before.

They commenced to spell at 10:30 a. m., and Mary Virginia did not go down until 3:00 p. m., and the words pronounced were very unusual and very difficult. There was the largest crowd and the largest number of contestants ever attending in an Inter-State Contest.

The Holt County Spelling Champions, Mary Virginia Agnes and Irene Wertz, returned Sunday from Council Bluffs, where they competed in the Inter-State Spelling Contest. Although they did not take a place, they made a fine showing for Holt County and we may well be proud of them.

In the written spelling the entire group were given 100 words. Those who had perfect papers or who missed only one word were given another test. There were only three with perfect papers and eleven who missed one word. Mary Virginia missed one word so was eligible to the final contest for Championship in the written spelling. Irene missed two words.
