THE HONORED DRAMA IS COMING TO O'NEILL

The announcement of the advent of Harriet Beecher Stowe's immortal drama, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in the very near future has caused a furore among the amusement-loving public. It is the one example of purely American drama that has withstood the vicissitudes of time because of its purity of tone and faithful historical depiction. The great moral lessons taught by its simple philosophy have attracted all classes and creeds for generations. When one stops to consider that this masterpiece of literature actually swayed a nation to arms, its popularity can be easily explained.

Trading upon this popularity and seeking to glean from a trusting public an ill-gotten livelihood, mountebanks and charlatans have invaded the country with inferior companies at different times, but all have suffered the consequences of such dissimulation. Since 1879, the William J. Harvall "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Company has been recognized as the very foremost institution of its kind on earth, for it has succeeded in building an amusement that is heralded from coast to coast as the most tremendous colossus of modern times.

This season the company is conveyed in a fleet of high-powered trucks and trailers. And thus the advance of time has made possible the faithful presentation of this sterling old drama in the smallest hamlet with exactly the same attention to detail as in the largest city. The production, far too massive for the average theatre, is presented in a mammoth waterproof tent theatre, said to be the most complete ever constructed, with comfortable seats for a whole town. This in turn allows for a volume of business that permits the exaction of such small individual admission charges that none need be denied the privilege of witnessing the performance.

The date is set and this tented colossus, with its myriad of novelties, plethora of gorgeous scenic effects and great opulence of detail will positively be presented at O'Neill on Saturday, May 31, at 8:30 p. m. This community is indeed fortunate to be included in the itinerary of this clever aggregation and a capacity crowd will, no doubt, be in attendance. Prices 25 and 50 cents.
