INMAN NEWS

nearly everyone visited the local cemetery. The members of the Epworth League of the Methodist church went out in a body and cared for the neglected graves, clearing away the tall weeds and grass and placing flowers on the graves. Many graves were put in presentable appearance due to the efforts of the young people.
 Mrs. Brittell was born and reared in Inman; she was graduated from the Inman schools several years ago; she has a host of friends who wish her well in her new home. Mr. Brittell formerly lived here but moved with his parents to Newport, Nebraska, several years ago. They will operate a meat market at Johnstown. The Inman people hasten to extend congratulations.
 Miss Thelma Crosser, second daughter of Mrs. Chas. Crosser of Inman and Fay S. Brittell, of Johnstown, Nebraska, were united in marriage last Sunday morning, June 1st, at O'Neill, by County Judge Malone. Immediately after the ceremony they drove to the home of the bride's mother, just west of Inman, where a delicious wedding dinner was served; after dinner the young couple left for Johnstown, where they will make their future home.
MEEK AND VICINITY.
 Leonard Young called on Leroy Spindler, Sunday.
 Frank Nelson shipped a carload of cattle on Monday.
 Mrs. Libbie Nelson spent Thursday with Mrs. E. H. Rouse.

 Ralph Rousch called on Leroy Spindler, Monday afternoon.
 Mrs. Roy Spindler and Leone called on Mrs. Griffith, Saturday.
 Roy Karr has started to build the basement for his new garage.
 Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spindler called at Frank Griffith's, Friday night.
 Neva June Schelkopf called on Leone Spindler, Monday afternoon.
 William Hubby made his usual trip to Cuba on Saturday, returning home Sunday.
 Mrs. Wm. Hull and grand-daughter spent Sunday at the Frank Nelson home.
 Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hull came from Sioux City for a visit with relatives and friends.
 Leonard and Edward Young spent Tuesday afternoon with Lawrence and Lloyd Rouse.
 Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grady and sons were dinner guests at the F. H. Griffith home, Sunday.
 Ralph Young recently purchased a new Maytag washing machine from Mr. Bowers, of Clark.
 Mr. and Mrs. Clark Young and son Walter, of Opportunity, were Sunday dinner guests at the Ralph Young home.
 Mr. Dillon, of Ainsworth; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lindberg and Helen were dinner guests at the Fred Lindberg home, Sunday.
 Miss Marie Steinberg of Orchard, and Miss Maude Rouse, were overnight guests at the Ralph Young home, Friday.
 Miss Opal Hull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Hull, of Crookston, came on Tuesday for a visit with friends and relatives.
 A good rain fell in this vicinity

Tuesday night; it was accompanied by some hail, but as far as we can learn, it did not do any damage.
 Mrs. E. H. Rouse; Mr. and Mrs. Horace Rouse and daughters and Miss Mary Erma Spindler and brother James, spent Sunday at the Gus Johnson home.
 George Weidon; Miss Martha Mitchell; Mr. and Mrs. Marrieddy Hubby; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hubby; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rouse and sons and Arthur Rouse, were Sunday dinner guests at the Eric Borg home.
 Mr. and Mrs. Hansen, of Iowa, were week-end visitors at the Harry Fox and Will Kaczor homes. Miss Bernice Rousch and little sister Virginia, accompanied them and remained for a longer visit.
 Mrs. Harry Fox and son Charles returned home Monday evening from South Dakota, where Mrs. Fox went to consult a doctor. Charlie also went to Iowa to be present at the graduation of his cousin, Miss Bernice Rousch.
 Decoration Day was fittingly observed at the Leonia cemetery and church. A large crowd gathered and a short program was rendered by some of the young people, after which Rev. Fortune, Methodist pastor of O'Neill, delivered the address. The church was beautifully decorated and a great deal of credit is due Mrs. Clarence Hicks and Mrs. Sam Robertson, who did the work.
EDUCATIONAL NOTES
 The Holt County Eighth Grade graduation exercises were held at the K. C. Hall on Thursday afternoon May 29th. The O'Neill Photo Co. took a group picture of the graduates on the court house lawn and the students then marched to the hall where the following program was presented:

 Selections—Atkinson H. S. Band
 Invocation—Rev. O. A. Fortune
 Song, "Commencement Day," Eighth Grade, Dist. No. 4.
 Reading, "An Answer to Maggie and Jiggs," Vincent Mullen, St. Joseph's Hall.
 Violin Solo—Burdette Miller, O'Neill School.
 Reading—Joyce Outhouse
 Song, "Nebraska," Eighth Grade of St. Mary's Academy and O'Neill Public School.
 Reading—Sarah Elizabeth Fink
 Dialogue "Discontented Sisters," St. Boniface School.
 Address—Newton W. Gaines, Nebraska State University.
 Presentation of Diplomas—Luella A. Parker, County Superintendent.
 Benediction—Rev. O. A. Fortune
 The Atkinson High School Band furnished the music for the day, which was appreciated very much.
 Professor Newton W. Gaines, of the Nebraska State University, gave an exceptionally fine address, particularly stressing higher education. His address was very educational and interesting as well as entertaining.
 With the exception of the Band and the speaker, the entire program was presented by eighth grade graduates. After the exercises each grade was given a free ticket to the Royal Theatre at which time a special matinee "The Flying Fool" was presented for them.
 Three hundred and thirty-nine pupils graduated from the eighth grade in the schools of Holt County this year. Of those who took the state examinations, the following received the highest averages:
 97%—Agnes Shald, St. Boniface School.
 96%—Vincent Mullen, St. Joseph's Hall; Coletta Ramm, St. Boniface School; Irene Lienhart, Dist. 121.

HARDLY

!!!
 "Finest gasoline . . . emphatically yes," say our Aromax customers. You sense it in the quiet, quicker start . . . there's hardly time to say goodbye. You feel it in the rush of power, in quickly accumulating speed, in the smooth regular purr of the motor, with never a trace of a knock. You test it briefly on hill and country road in breath-taking speed. And you thrill to knowledge of quiet power you'll never dare unloose. "Finest gasoline . . . . . decidedly yes."

AROMAX

GASOLINE, ANTI-KNOCK, HIGH TEST - BY SKELLY

We fully appreciate there are other gasolines having anti-knock value. But, in none of these will you find all the qualities of Aromax. We want you to try a tankful of Aromax, confident you will quickly recognize these superior qualities. Maximum anti-knock value of course; and complete gasification which insures instant start, smooth pick-up, fleet and silent speed, and the smooth motor operation your car manufacturer wants you to enjoy. Start today to enjoy this finer performance.
