

From Ice Fields to Sunshine

Admiral Richard Byrd enjoys a little warm sunshine on the lawn of the Tivoli Hotel, at Ancon, Canal Zone, during his sojourn en route back to the United States. The Admiral received an enthusiastic welcome from the natives and was the guest of honor at a banquet given by President Arosmena. With the Admiral is one of his loyal companions.

(International Newsreel)

Classmates Elect Her Best All-Round Athlete

Miss Damaris O. Wilson, of Jacksonville, Fla., whose classmates at Rollins College elected her the "best all-round woman athlete" for this year. Miss Wilson has been a member of her class teams during her entire college career, her activities including basketball, swimming and volleyball.

(International Newsreel)

Mulrooney Appointed Police Commissioner

Edward P. Mulrooney is New York's new Police Commissioner. Announcement of his appointment came immediately after Grover A. Whalen handed his resignation to Mayor Walker. Mulrooney has been a member of the New York police force for more than 34 years.

(International Newsreel)

Barnard Student Wins Foreign Scholarship

Miss Mary Geraldine Goggin, a senior at Barnard College, will have a year's study abroad as a result of winning the student fellowship. She has selected the American School of Classical Studies in Athens, Greece, for her advanced studies. Miss Goggin is a native of Boston.

(International Newsreel)

Signs of the Season—in Eastern Canada

Lumberjacks doing their strenuous and hazardous work on the famous St. Maurice River in the Province of Quebec. Riding a log is one of the world's great sports. Try it in your bathtub some time.

(International Newsreel)

Rule Home Instead of Movies

Efforts to mix the obligations of stardom with the duties of a housewife where the husband also shines on the silver screen has wrecked many filmland romances. Vilma Banky, beautiful Hungarian screen star, wife of Rod La Rocque, has announced her intention of retiring from motion pictures to take up the duties of housewife. She believes that with her husband (insert) star in filmland, one star in a family is sufficient.

(International Newsreel)

Crowned May Queen at Beckley College

Lovely Josephine Kirkwood was chosen queen of the May by the students of Beckley College, Harrisburg, Pa., and crowned with elaborate ceremony at this year's annual floral celebration, held by the students.

(International Newsreel)

British Royalty in Robes of State

Queen Mary of England in full court dress, such as she wears at formal court functions, including the presentations attended by American debutantes. She is wearing the state jewels reserved for these formal functions. Two royal courts have already been held this season, with the usual quota of American women making their curtsy to the sovereigns.

(International Newsreel)

Austrian Princess Tells Tale of Dire Poverty

"Princess" Mauveriz Touschkan told a story of utter destitution to Magistrate Brodsky in the Domestic Relations Court, New York City. She charged her husband, a former colonel in the Russian army, with abandonment and non-support. The charges were dismissed. Mrs. Touschkan said she was a grand-daughter of Franz Joseph, the former Emperor of Austria.

American Deb. as She Appeared to Royalty

Miss Charlotte Dorrance, of Cinnaminson, N. J., wearing the court gown in which she made the curtsy before King George and Queen Mary of England at the brilliant first court of the season at Buckingham Palace. Miss Dorrance's gown is of white silver lace, cut princess style, with a full skirt, high neck and square front.

(International Newsreel)

Rules at Smith College Junior Prom Party

Miss Mary Madison, of New York City, chairman of the junior prom at Smith College, Northampton, Mass., officiated at the junior prom garden party. Notice the comfortable Spring costume worn by the New York girl for the Spring fete.

(International Newsreel)

Modern Musketeer of Kansas University

Nevada Tallien, of Altamont, Kansas, a member of the University of Kansas girls' rifle team, has amassed the fine average of 98.2 for the eighteen matches in which she competed last year. She competed in six matches from the sitting or kneeling position, which are usually reserved for men.

Young Rider Feted at Show

Miss Marilyn Himes, six, daughter of Joseph H. Himes of Washington, being presented with the blue ribbon in the pony hunt team class of the National Capital Horse Show.

(International Newsreel)

Textile Works Win First Place in School Awards

Miss Verona Johns, student at the Union High School of Phoenix, Arizona, whose extraordinary textile won her first prize of $50 in that branch of the competitions for which the scholastics national high school magazine offered prizes totalling $4,500.

Legionnaires at White House

Members of the American Women's Legion of the World War received by President Hoover at the White House during their session in Washington. Left to right, (in center of group) Mrs. Acherson Hassen, first vice-president; President Hoover, Mrs. Edward Campbell Shield, national president.

(International Newsreel)