

Marine Ace Receives Trophy

Glenn Curtis, aviation pioneer, congratulates Captain Arthur H. Page of the U. S. Marine Corps, after the latter had won the Curtiss Marine Trophy, at Washington, D. C. Captain Page set a new record for the race when his little fighting seaplane made an average speed of 164.8 miles per hour. The old mark was 162 miles an hour for seaplanes, held by Lieut. W. G. Tomlinson. (International Newsreel)

Deserts Morrow Forces To Support Brother

Assemblywoman Margaretta Fort of New Jersey, who has announced that she has withdrawn her support from Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow in his race for the U. S. Senate because she does not approve of his recently announced "wet" platform. (International Newsreel)

Brigadier-General, New Chief of Ordnance

Brigadier-General Samuel Hof, was sworn in a few days ago as Chief of Ordnance. The post carries with it the rank of Major-General and the incumbency is for four years. (International Newsreel)

Slain in Attempt to Enter Private Home

William M. Schoepflin, 41, Chief of Police of Absecon, N. J., and father of five children, was shot and killed by George H. Much, a rheumatic cripple, when Schoepflin attempted to force his way into Much's bungalow, which he believed to be a speakeasy. The police chief was returning from a party accompanied by two women and a man. (International Newsreel)

Prominent Jurist in Robes of Office

Justice Owen J. Roberts, newest appointee to the Supreme Court Bench, shown for the first time in his robes of office. The new Associate Supreme Court Justice was one of Philadelphia's best known jurists. He first won an international name for himself when he handled the prosecution in the notorious oil lease cases some years ago. (International Newsreel)

Woman Leads Legion Post

Not satisfied with excelling in business and politics, women of today are also eager to wield the baton. Miss Nell Cooper, World War nurse and first woman drum major, is shown leading the band of the Robert Bently Post, American Legion, in Cincinnati. (International Newsreel)

Hailed as Beauty Likes Scholastic Career

The lure of the stage proved too strong for this 19-year-old Illinois girl, Lois Delander—particularly after she had been selected as "Miss America of 1927" at Atlantic City. But the lure of an education proved even stronger. And so Lois left the stage to return to her high school studies. Now she is being graduated with scholastic honors. (International Newsreel)

Braves Terrors of Niagara

William "Red" Hill, pictured in his steel barrel, after he had conquered the Niagara whirlpool and lower rapids on Decoration Day. It took five hours for Hill in his barrel to negotiate the distance between the "Maid of the Mist" landing to Queenston, Ontario, Can. Although somewhat the worse for his daring exploit, Hill was justly proud of his feat. (International Newsreel)

Nominee for Governor Disbarred by Court

State Senator George W. Joseph, despite his successful candidacy for the Republican gubernatorial nomination in Oregon, has been permanently disbarred by order of the State Supreme Court. Joseph is said to have attacked Justice John L. Rand, asserting that political interests influenced decisions in cases. (International Newsreel)

Brother of Dry Chief Reveals Secret Funds

Emmet McBride, brother of F. Scott McBride, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, discussed with Representative La Guardia of New York, the charges against his brother, in which the dry chief is accused of failing to report contributions to the league. McBride also offered to testify before the Senate Committee. (International Newsreel)

Princeton Professor Raps Temperance Board

Dr. Henry van Dyke, noted author and professor emeritus of English literature at Princeton University, answered the alleged attacks made upon him and his father by Dr. Clarence True Wilson, secretary of the Methodist Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals. Dr. Wilson attacked Dr. Van Dyke for his stand in the 1923 Presidential campaign. (International Newsreel)

Over Celebrated Jungfrau

The globe-circling Graf Zeppelin, throbbing its majestic way over a Swiss ice lake, 13,000 feet above sea level. The lake is on the Jungfrau, most famous peak of the Alps. The Zeppelin has just left Lakehurst, N. J., on its return trip to Germany, after making a new transatlantic flight from Friedrichshafen to the United States, via Pernambuco, Brazil. (International Newsreel)

Plans Round-World Flight

A recent photo of Ruth Nichols, society girl-aviatrix, who, it is reported, will accompany Clarence Chamberlain, veteran aviator on a round-the-world trip this Summer. It is further said that a gigantic plane is being completed for their use on the flight. (International Newsreel)

Named as Naval Aide To President Hoover

Captain Charles Russell Train, Commander of the battleship Utah, has been appointed as Naval Aide to President Hoover. Captain Train was commander of the vessel when it brought the President back from his South American visit last year. (International Newsreel)