SPANN—MALONE

The wedding of Elmer F. Spann and Miss Mildred Malone was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Judge and Mrs. C. J. Malone, promptly at 6:30 Monday evening.

The bridal couple took their places at the marriage altar to the strains of Lohengren's wedding march, played by Mrs. C. P. Hancock, aunt of the bride; the Rev. H. D. Johnson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city pronounced the words that united this happy young couple, using the ring ceremony.

Miss Florence Malone of Omaha, sister of the bride was bridesmaid; Albert Spann of Atkinson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride wore a flat crepe dress of dahlia shade, trimmed in orchid, and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds; the bridesmaid wore a becoming black velvet dress with silver trimming; she carried a bouquet of lavender cosmos.

The bridegroom and best man were dressed in neat suits of appropriate color.

The bride is well and favorably known throughout the entire county; she has grown to womanhood in O'Neill; she was graduated from the O'Neill public school a few years ago, and later attended Wayne College and taught in the schools of the county. For the past three years she has been secretary of the Nebraska division of the Izaak Walton League of America and was again re-elected to that position at the state convention held in this city last month.

Mr. Spann owns and operates a filling station on Highway No. 20 in the southeastern part of Atkinson, Nebraska; he is a young man of exemplary habits, is energetic and industrious.

Following the ceremony a three-course wedding dinner was served by Mrs. Malone.

The home decorations were red roses, yellow chrysanthemums and gladioli.

The out of town guests were: Mrs. Mary Spann, daughter, Miss Fern, and son Albert of Atkinson; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spann, Atkinson; Mrs. Mary Hancock and daughter Miss Gladys, Inman.

The bride received a total of forty telegrams of congratulations from girl friends and from Waltonians over the state; many of the telegrams were quite unique.

The newly weds plan to take a trip west in a short time. They will be at

SKIN OF LEOPARD KILLED IN CHINA

The following article appeared in the Nemaha County Herald, published at Auburn, Nebraska, September 26th. Rev. Goodenberger, who is mentioned in the article, is the husband of the former Hilda Longstaff, who resided in O'Neill for a number of years. Rev. and Mrs. Goodenberger have spent five years in Yunnan province, China, in missionary work, and have again returned to the same province for another five year's sojourn; they are located far beyond the trouble zone in China and say that they enjoy their work very much.

"Rev. J. H. Patterson has in his possession a very beautiful leopard skin sent from China by Rev. E. C. Goodenberger, an old college classmate, who is now engaged in missionary work. The skin was sent to Rev. Patterson who will have it made into a rug and returned to Rev. Goodenberger. The animal from which the skin was taken was very large and beautifully marked. Rev. Goodenberger visited Rev. Patterson in Auburn some time ago and will be remembered as having made a very interesting talk at the union meeting in the court house square in which he told of his experience as a missionary in China."

JOHN CAVANAUGH

The remains of John Cavanaugh arrived in O'Neill last Tuesday morning and were buried in the Catholic cemetery at eleven o'clock that morning.

John met his death on Saturday, September 25th by being struck by an automobile while walking on a roadway at Dillon, Montana, where he was enroute to or from a fair that was being held there. We understand that John stepped to the center of the road to dodge a car when another car came around a corner and hit him; we learn that the driver of the car did everything he could to prevent hitting him, even going to the ditch, but to no avail. Death was instantaneous.

The body was brought to O'Neill by Jack Sullivan.

The deceased was thirty-nine years years old. He went to Montana last spring and has been working in the vicinity of Dillon for some time. He made his home south of O'Neill for a number of years where he farmed.

He leaves three brothers, Charles, James and Morris, of near O'Neill; two sisters, Mrs. Warren Sparks of O'Neill and Mrs. Earl Hatton of Chambers.

Tuesday, October 14, 1930

55 BULLS, 38 coming 2 years old, 17 coming 1 year old. 60 Females, 22 young Bred Cows and 2 year old bred Heifers. 20 yearling open face Heifers and 18 Heifer Calves.

Lunch Served at 11 A. M., Sale following immediately after.

With the exception of a few of the older bulls the entire offering will be presented in range condition and owing to the number to be sold most of them will be put up in bunches of uniformity in type and breeding and sold with privilege.

The offering as a whole is of a high standard, descending principally from Anxiety 4th, the bull that is responsible for the Hereford today holding its strong position, commercial or purebred, due to its performance on the ranges. Were it not for this great sire, the tide might have gone to one of the other two beef breeds. Anxiety 4th gave to the Hereford breed the hind quarter, compactness, smoothness and thickness of flesh, a short, broad head with a flat, drooping horn and most of all the ability to transmit these characteristics through his descendants, which is credited to his being line bred. His most noted direct descendants of later days are Beau Mischief, Beau Blanchard, Bright Stanway, Spartan, Prince Domino, etc. Bright Stanway and Spartan are both half brothers to Prince Domino, who is now noted as the greatest sire of all time of any beef breed, making his first identity for producing pounds on the range of the ideal feeder type. The above families are strongly represented, some being line bred Prince Dominos and all bred females are mated with Prince Domino bred sires. To us this means a mark of quality and an assurance of breeding performance, which is our aim in our breeding operations. However, we do not wish it to be understood that we are pedigree fanatics for we consider individuality first.

Catalog will be cheerfully sent on request and your presence appreciated sale day.

and has been one of the outstanding lives of a group of good-natured hits of the Broadway season. The quarrelling neighbors are contrasted with the remote, well-ordered existence of the wealthy. It is a laughable comedy of life, with pathos as well; a good drama, honest portraiture and an absorbing story. You will see Mr. Misner at his best in "Kibitzer." If, as the Apostle Paul said, "we cannot persuade," we have no other weapon to use. But we do hope by precept and example to help create a bit of Heaven for some.
