The O'Neill National Bank

Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits, $125,000.00
This bank carries no indebtedness of officers or stockholders.

A couple of fellows picked up at Reno, Nevada, last week have confessed to having robbed the Genoa bank a short time ago. Douglas Dewitt, the fellow picked up at Parsons, Kansas, a couple of weeks ago, confessed to being one of the gang that tapped the Hay Springs bank; he is now serving a fourteen year sentence for his part in the robbery. Dewitt has implicated Harold "Spike" Dominisse, of Norfolk as leader of the bandits that robbed the Hay Springs bank on September 19th.

MEEK AND VICINITY

Clyde Bowden is painting the buildings on the Charlie Linn place. Levi Yantzi trucked a load of rye from O'Neill for the Rouse Bros., on Friday. Several from this community attended the funeral of Dr. Gilligan on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Johnson and Hazel spent Sunday afternoon at the Spindler home. Leonard and Howard Devall spent Saturday afternoon with Lawrence and Lloyd Rouse. Mrs. Rose Gannon, of Inman, was an over night visitor of Mrs. F. H. Griffith on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blunt motored to Clearwater, Saturday for a visit with friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Thompson and baby, of near Lynch were over night visitors at the Frank Griffith home, Wednesday. Mrs. E. H. Rouse, who has been visiting a brother and family in South Dakota for the past few weeks, returned home Saturday. Steve Hicks and Henry Kaczor are repairing the buildings on the Nollkamper place; they expect to work there for about six weeks. N. D. Hansen, of Fairfax, South Dakota was an over night visitor at the Eric Borg home, Thursday. Mr. Hansen is a brother of Mrs. Borg. No Sunday School nor Christian Endeavor was held at Paddock Union on Sunday as quite a few went to the group gathering at Gibson school. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lindburg motored to Inman, Saturday to take Mrs. Rosa Gannon home and spend the day visiting with other relatives there. Lloyd Rouse had the misfortune to hurt his foot quite badly, Saturday; it remained swollen and sore for several days and caused him to miss school. Joe Harris, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Nellie Stevenson and other relatives at Valentine, returned to his brother, Orville Harrison's, Saturday. Callers at the Rouse Bros. and F. H. Griffith homes Thursday afternoon were Mrs. Bert Buel, of Alpena, S. D.; Dan Stroup; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kubik and Lloyd Carey, of Plainview. Grandpa Kaczor and daughter Miss Tena, who have been visiting at the Albert Kaczor home for some time, returned to the Will Kaczor home, Sunday. Friends from Los Angeles, California, were visiting at the McDonald home this week. They had been on a trip to Canada and were returning to their home. Callers at the Harry Fox home on Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Will Kaczor and son Edward; Mr. and Mrs. Eric Borg and Marvel; Mr. and Mrs. Marriedy Hubby; and William Hubby. Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Barrett, of Cedar Bluffs, and Mrs. Carson, of Madison were over night guests at the C. E. Linn home on Saturday. Mr. Barrett is a cousin of Mrs. Linn and Mrs. Carson is Mrs. Linn's mother. On Thursday, September 25th the weather turned cold and windy and in the afternoon became cloudy, with thunder and lightning, some rain and sleet; it cleared up again Friday morning without a frost, and the weather since has been ideal.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the Legislature of Nebraska by a three-fifths vote of the members elected to each house has submitted to the electors of the state for approval or rejection at the general election to be held November 4, 1930, a proposal to amend Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution of Nebraska, to read as follows:

"The credit of the state shall never be given or loaned in aid of any individual, association, or corporation. The state legislature, however, in order to help pay any deficit in the Depositors Guaranty Fund and to discharge the obligations thereof to depositors in banks closed by the Department of Trade and Commerce prior to December 31, 1931, may appropriate out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated the sum of eight million dollars or as much thereof as may be deemed necessary, and such appropriation shall be deemed to be for a public purpose, namely, to relieve distress and prevent suffering and to stabilize and strengthen the state banking system."

SENATE FILE NO. 189

"FOR amending Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution of Nebraska to read as follows:

"Section 3. The credit of the state shall never be given or loaned in aid of any individual, association, or corporation. The state legislature, however, in order to help pay any deficit in the Depositors Guaranty Fund and to discharge the obligations thereof to depositors in banks closed by the Department of Trade and Commerce prior to December 31, 1931, may appropriate out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated the sum of eight million dollars or as much thereof as may be deemed necessary, and such appropriation shall be deemed to be for a public purpose, namely, to relieve distress and prevent suffering and to stabilize and strengthen the state banking system."

"AGAINST amending Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution of Nebraska to read as follows:

"Section 3. The credit of the state shall never be given or loaned in aid of any individual, association, or corporation. The state legislature, however, in order to help pay any deficit in the Depositors Guaranty Fund and to discharge the obligations thereof to depositors in banks closed by the Department of Trade and Commerce prior to December 31, 1931, may appropriate out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated the sum of eight million dollars or as much thereof as may be deemed necessary, and such appropriation shall be deemed to be for a public purpose, namely, to relieve distress and prevent suffering and to stabilize and strengthen the state banking system."

The above proposed amendment, to be voted upon at the general election, November 4, 1930, is published in accordance with Section 3087, Chapter 112, Session Laws 1925, State of Nebraska.
