METHODIST CHURCH NOTES
Benj. Kuhler, Pastor

Sunday School at 10 a. m. We are glad to note an increased attendance. Let us "keep on keeping on."
Preaching at 11 a. m. We appreciate and are helped also by the fine attendance at both morning and evening services. If the Gospel is good news we have to hear it to be made glad by it. "And how shall we hear without a preacher" says the Word. It seems like we need each other.
The evening service will be held in the Methodist church; Rev. Johnson will deliver the sermon.
Next Monday evening the official Board is invited to meet at 7:30. We hope for a full attendance so as to get organized for the year. The church has some business features as well as spiritual. Thank you.
The Epworth League meets at 6:30 Sunday evening at the M. E. church. Topic, "Why Do Christians Differ." Leader, Pansy Coleman. All young folks are invited to attend.
The Young People's S. S. Class of the M. E. church held a candy sale on Saturday, Oct. 11th at the Ben J. Grady's store; they took in $5.50; this money will go towards helping the needy down in San Domingo.

EMMET ITEMS

Relatives of Henry Seger received a card from him Saturday, mailed at Kansas City, telling of his trip with the track team from the University of Nebraska. He is one of the six boys on the team that was on its way to Oklahoma to compete in a track meet there. Henry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Seger of Emmet.
Mr. and Mrs. Custer Johnson, of Waverly, left their home at noon on Thursday and arrived here about six o'clock in the afternoon. They visited Mrs. Johnson's sisters, Mrs. Mary Beckwith and Mrs. Sylvia Coleman, and at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hickman; they returned home Saturday.
The Pleasant Dale P. T. A. will meet Tuesday evening. The entertainment committee has planned a treasure hunt. If the weather is not suitable the treasure hunt will be postponed and games played indoors.
The Chevrolet hay truck which was stolen from the Emmet Hay Co. was found last Wednesday in a grade ditch near Page.
While trying to harness a colt last Monday, Guy Beckwith was quite badly hurt. The colt became angry at being harnessed and tried to demolish his master in various ways, but Guy escaped by crawling into a manger; Mr. Beckwith was badly bruised but not seriously hurt and is about as well as usual now.
Mr. and Mrs. George Bable and little grandson Francis have been moved to Stuart. Mr. Poncratz is operating the Bable farm.
The Northwestern Bridge and Construction gang are putting in a new bridge across the Elkhorn river just west of the Sam Jennings farm.

Harold Kelly has completed his work on the G. A. Seger farm and returned to his home near Page, Saturday.
Henry Vequist, assisted by John Hunt, tore down a chimney in the Vequist house the first of the week and made preparations for the brick layer who came Wednesday and built a new chimney.
Little Miss Vivine Vequist called at the home of her aunt, Miss Anna Vequist, after school Monday. Her aunt gave her a pretty new dress with nice red buttons on it.

J. Harold Murray, Fifi Dorsay, in "WOMEN EVERYWHERE"
One of those gems occasionally found in the picture game that is very good. Street and cabaret scenes in Morocco, a Foreign Legion post, and action aboard ship all contribute to the vividness. You will say that it is one of the best pictures you have ever seen.
Sunday, Mon., Tues., Oct. 19-20-21
"ALL QUIET ON THE WESTERN FRONT"
A great motion picture—still greater as a document. It is content to let us see war as it is, and to let us make up our minds about it. A stunning, moving, human film with a mixture of laughter and tears. It takes the youth of Germany, representing the youth of the world, and shows us what war does to them before it mercifully murders them. By far the greatest motion picture ever made.
Wednesday & Thurs., October 22-23
The all-dialog, singing, dancing, dramatic spectacle. Erich Von Stroheim, with Betty Compson in
"THE GREAT GABBO"
500 singing and dancing girls and boys accompanied by an orchestra of 125 symphonists. You've never seen anything like it since talking pictures were invented; a picture for the whole family. Wednesday Bargain Night.

Kocum, all of Anoka, Nebraska, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ticknor, son Donald and Sam, were guests of Mrs. F. E. Ticknor and her mother, Mrs. J. H. Fillmore, last Wednesday. A sumptuous chicken dinner was served at noon; the Ticknor family formerly lived in Anoka.
Miss Gladys Hancock was painfully injured last Friday while assisting with a family washing, three fingers of the right hand being severely crushed and lacerated when they were caught in the electric wringer. Doctor French came at once and dressed the injured members, seven stitches being required to close the wounds.
Dorlin Lockmon, 8th grade teacher in the Inman school, went to Stuart Friday evening to spend the weekend at home.
Mrs. Jennie Wilcox departed Saturday for New York City where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. N. L. Church and family and son Courtney Wilcox. She expects to be gone the entire winter.
Mr. and Mrs. George Coventry left for Fremont, Monday where Mrs. Coventry goes as a delegate to the Rebekah Assembly.
Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Watson and children and Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Butler and daughter Marjorie went to Neligh, Sunday where they spent the day visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Butler.
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Checken and daughters Dorothy and Wilma went to Creighton, Sunday to visit relatives. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Chicken's aunt, Mrs. A. Annis, of Ethan, South Dakota.
Mrs. Fay Brittell, of Johnstown, came Sunday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Minnie Crosser and other relatives.
Mrs. Jerry Hare and little daughter, Polly Ann, of Lincoln, came Monday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Colman.
The Epworth League of the M. E. church are practicing on a musical comedy entitled "The Minister's Wife's New Bonnet." They expect to present it at the I. O. O. F. hall on Thursday evening, Oct. 23rd. Those taking part are: Rev. Gundy, Harvey Tompkins; Mrs. Gundy, his wife, Dorothy Chicken; Samantha Slick, president of the sewing circle, Pauline Raitt; Nodenna Simpkins (always asleep) Gayle Butler; Penelope Perkins (so precise) Emma Anspach; Agatha Squalls (the blusterer) Willys Hopkins; Cayone Pepper (who stutters) Elsie Mulford; Dephe Hard Hear (who is deaf) Gladys Hancock; Vivian Walker (from the city) Marvel Hartigan. Always Knoxit (as his name implies) Dorlin Lockman; Billy Butcher (a good fellow) Kenneth Daley; High Howler a country sport, Lede Stevens; Prof. Highvoice (the choir master) Vere Butler.

MEEK AND VICINITY
Rev. and Mrs. Marts and daughters Wilma, Ila, Nancy Jo, and son Roland of near Bassett, spent the week-end at the Marrieddy Hubby home; Mrs. Hubby is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marts.
A large crowd attended the hard time treasure hunt at the Sam Robertson home on Friday night; a fine time is reported.
In last week's items where it stated Miss Elizabeth Spindler had gone to Foley, Ala., it should have read Miss Elberta Spindler.
Roy Spindler had several teeth extracted at Spencer last week; since then he has been quite ill but is coming along fine now.
John Osier, of Bellingham, Washington is visiting relatives in this vicinity; John left here for Washington twenty-five years ago and this is his first trip back to his boyhood home.
Mr. and Mrs. Morrison and Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan and children, of Central City, were week-end guests at the Fay Puckett home. Mrs. Puckett is a daughter of the Morrisons and a sister of Mrs. Sullivan.
Mr. and Mrs. Sundall and children of Wakefield were week-end guests at the John Robertson home; Mrs. Sundall will be remembered as Helen Robertson.
Mrs. Fred Weidman and children, of Plainview, and Mrs. McElhaney and children of Page motored to the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Robertson, Sunday, for a short visit.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walters and children visited at the Ralph Young home on Sunday.
William and Doyal Hull returned Saturday from atrip to Parnlee, S. D., and Crookston, Neb. They report good crops in most of the places up that way.
Gardner Taylor motored up from Lincoln last week and visited a short time with the Eric Borg family; he had been visiting his daughters, Angie and Kathryn, at Lincoln. He left for his home at Colome, S. D., the same day. Gardner is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Borg.
William Hubby and Ralph Ernst left Monday for Iowa where they expect to husk corn for the next few weeks.
John Kaczor, of Boyd county, came Monday to see his father, who was quite ill at the Will Kaczor home; at last reports Mr. Kaczor was better.
