METHODIST CHURCH NOTES Benj. Kuhler, Pastor

The cold snap froze out a few, but we will soon get used to the cold. Both preaching services were well attendedfi however. We are hoping to see more; here are a few reasons: The only virtues that have come out of us are what religion has put there. Christianity has been the only force able to break the major sins of society and outlaw them. When Christianity is weakened, every other moral agency is weakened. Coolidge said, "The Government of a country never gets ahead of the religion of that country. Religion is the foundation of this government." Judge L. L. Fawcett, of the Brooklyn Supreme Court, said that of 4,000 boys under voters personally, I take this means 21 arraigned before him, only three of asking for your support.
