OPENING OF NEW ROYAL THEATRE, NOVEMBER 13

The opening of the New Royal Theatre is announced for Thursday, November 13th.

The building will have been remodeled both on the inside and the outside by that date; the new upholstered seats and the new drapes will have been placed; the new sound machines will be installed beginning next Monday and everything will be ready for the big opening. It is expected that the carpenters and masons will have finished their work by the thirteenth. When the work is completed the Royal Theatre will be one of the best equipped theatres in this part of the state.

Sumner Downey, owner of the building, has arranged the building according to plans and specifications drawn by sound experts with a view of making it perfect for the reproduction of sound films; Mrs. Rasley has booked the best pictures obtainable for the coming fall and winter so that the public may see the latest in motion pictures, some of them, no doubt before they are shown in the cities. O'Neill is going to have one of the best picture houses in the northwest when the new installations are finished.

Mrs. Rasley is negotiating today for one of the latest releases, which she is endeavoring to obtain for the opening; the announcement will be made next week.

FARM RESIDENCE BURNS LAST TUESDAY NIGHT

The farm residence on the Ray Zimmerman farm, about ten miles northeast of O'Neill burned with all its contents, some time Tuesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Zimmerman are visiting in Wisconsin; their son Dana, who resides a short distance west of the Zimmerman home,

ESTHER COLE HARRIS
Republican Candidate
For Register of Deeds
Election November 4, 1930

To the Voter:

As I will not be able to see all the voters personally, I take this means of asking for your support. I was born in Holt county, educated in the O'Neill and Atkinson schools. Have taught school and worked four years in a bank. I feel I am well qualified for the office I am seeking, and will fill it to the best of my ability, if elected. Will appreciate any assistance you can render in my campaign.

was doing the chores and looking after the place. It is not known what caused the fire. There was no insurance on the building.

THE FRONTIER WILL KEEP OPEN HOUSE

As has been the custom of The Frontier for a number of years, the office will be kept open practically all night to receive election returns and transmit them to the Associated Press. We urge the judges or clerks of each election board to call up The Frontier office and give us the returns from their precinct; reverse the call and we will take care of it.

We are making an extra effort to assemble the returns the night of election. There is going to be many interesting contests this year both in the state and county.

Please phone us the returns as soon as possible, but we will be open and anxious to hear from you any time during the night.

MR. AND MRS. F. C. GATZ CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Gatz of this city was celebrated last Friday. The children and their families were all present with the exception of Charley and family, of Niobrara, Nebraska, who were detained at home because of measles.

A four course dinner was served at the Western hotel at seven o'clock in the evening.

Frederick C. Gatz was born in Barton, Heidelberg, Germany, February 22, 1851; he came to America at the age of 17 years; he worked in a meat market in Baltimore, Maryland, for a couple of years before going to Omaha where he purchased four acres of land where the Cudahy Packing Plant now stands, and engaged in the soap business on a small scale. He paid $600 for the four acres and two years later he sold it for $800. At that time—1873—there was but one street—Farnam street, and the town had but a few hundred inhabitants. He went to Columbus, Nebraska in 1873 and entered into the meat and ice business which he conducted until 1882 when he came to O'Neill.

Miss Elizabeth Engel was born in Middletown, Butler county, Ohio, on January 12, 1857. A few years later her parents moved to Arcola, Illinois; she came to Nebraska in the early 60's with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Engel, who located in Columbus, where she resided until her marriage to Mr. Gatz on October 24, 1880; they came to O'Neill and rented of Billy Ryan a 20x20 shack that stood on the corner where the McNally filling station now stands, and went into the meat and ice business; he later bought two lots near the center of the block and built a meat market and the following year he built another building and rented it to Evans & Thomas, who opened a restaurant; later he built an addition to the building and W. T. Evans opened the Evans hotel which he conducted for thirty years. Mr. Gatz continued the meat and ice business until about fifteen years ago when he sold the shop and turned the ice business over to his sons, Edward and Clinton, who still conduct it under the name of Gatz Bros.

Those children present at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Clift and daughter, Miss Meta, sons George and Bob, Long Pine; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Schrader, daughter Maurine, son Gene, Omaha; Mrs. Frank Stevenson,

MASONS HOLD AN ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

The largest and most enthusiastic Masonic function ever held in north Nebraska took place last Thursday when Garfield Lodge No. 95 of O'Neill entertained the Grand Master of Nebraska, Orville A. Andrews, of Lincoln, and the lodges at Stuart, Atkinson, Butte, Spencer, Lynch, Creighton, Orchard, Ewing and Neligh. One hundred fifty Masons gathered at the Masonic Hall at 2:30 p. m. for the conferring of a Master Degree on an actual candidate. About the same number of ladies were entertained at a special matinee at the Royal Theatre, where they witnessed the first showing of the picture "So This Is London," by Will Rogers. At 6:30 a banquet was served in the Club rooms of the K. C. Hall by the ladies of the M. E. Ladies Aid Society where a turkey dinner was served to the guests.

At 8 p. m., Mr. Henry Wilson, a prominent lawyer of Lincoln, and Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Nebraska in 1895, gave his famous address "America and World Peace" to an audience that taxed the capacity of the Methodist church. A male quartette furnished by Siloam Lodge No. 147, of Stuart, furnished music at the evening program and a double male quartette from Garfield Lodge No. 95 of O'Neill furnished music at the banquet.

Guests from out of town aside from the lodges invited were Gerrit V. Tyler of Ainsworth, Roy E. Syfert and W. E. Patterson of Long Pine, Harold A. Banta, of Anselmo and Past Grand Master Harry A. Cheney of Creighton.

WM. REAM

William Ream passed away in

O'Neill last Thursday at the age of 67 years, 6 months and 29 days. He was born in Somerset, Pennsylvania. He came to Holt county from Wayne county, Nebraska, in 1900. He leaves one brother, Wallace. A cousin, Levi Kreger, came to attend the funeral services which were held from the Biglin funeral parlors Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. H. D. Johnson; burial was at Wayne.

JOHN P. McNICHOLES

John P. McNichols passed away at his home in Spokane, Washington, October 24, 1930. The cause of his death was carcinoma oesophagus. He was 73 years, 4 months and 17 days old at the time of his death.

Mr. McNichols was born in Syracuse, New York; he came to O'Neill in 1883 where he made his home for some time before locating in Atkinson, Nebraska where he resided until a short time ago. Mrs. McNichols passed away about seven years ago.

His daughter, Miss Genevieve, accompanied the remains to O'Neill. Funeral services were held from St. Patrick's church in this city. Burial was in Calvary cemetery, last Tuesday.

ARNOLD—JENSEN

Willard Arnold and Miss Imogene Jensen were married at Lake Andes, South Dakota, Saturday, October 25, by Rev. E. C. Smith, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Jensen of this city, coming here from Spencer a few years ago; she has been employed at the Sanitary Laundry.

Willard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Arnold, of Hastings. He was graduated from the O'Neill High School with the class of '23. For several years he was pianist and manager of an orchestra which played for social functions in Nebraska, Wyoming and South Dakota. At the present time he is manager of the Sanitary Laundry.

Both of these young people have a host of friends who wish them much happiness.

The Frontier extends congratulations.
