"Sound Pictures At Their Best"

Sun., Mon., Tues., Nov. 30, Dec. 1-2

—Three Days—

Olsen and Johnson—America's funniest Clowns—

"OH SAILOR BEHAVE"

With Irene Delroy and Charles King. The moon-kissed waters of the Mediterranean made the river Nile look like mud creek when the charmers of Naples sang their siren songs to these innocents abroad. The greatest comedy team that the vaudeville stage has ever known. A highly spiced Neapolitan dish of rapid-fire entertainment.

Wed. One Night Only, December 3rd

Bebe Daniels—Lowell Sherman, in "LAWFUL LARCENY"

Stealing love not a crime says the law, but there's a different answer in the heart of every woman. A wife, frantic—ruthless—fighting to hold her man with every weapon God gave her. A great drama of men and husbands—and the women they love.

Thur. Fri. Sat., Dec 4-5-6 3 Days

"UP THE RIVER"

In again, out again, fun again and again in this comedy sensation, with Spencer Tracy and Claire Luce and a dozen others, great comedians, from the Maurice Watkins story. A kitchen-girl with saucer eyes and golden hair turns a few twenty minute yeggs into gentle lambs. The picture is a wow—more fun than a circus.

Sun., Mon., Tues., Dec. 7-8-9 3 Days

Constance Bennett in "SIN TAKES A HOLIDAY"

Star of "Common Clay" in a picture you will pronounce perfect. A young girl, secretary to a lawyer, marries her employer in order to foil a designing woman. She blossoms into a society woman of great allure and thereby wins the love of her husband. Exceptional high class entertainment.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Benj. Kuhler, Pastor

We invite you to Sunday School at 10 a. m.

At 11 a. m., the preaching hour. Another illustrated sermon for children will be given. It will take in all ages, however.

The evening service will be in our church. Brother Johnson, minister of the Presbyterian church, will be the speaker.

The Epworth League will meet at 6:30 p. m. They enjoyed another social Friday evening in the church basement.

Doctor Gomom, our District Superintendent, announces that he will be with us to hold the first quarterly conference on Monday evening, Dec. 1st. Please have reports ready. Any are invited to be present who are interested in the business of the church.

We also have the promise of Dr. Schreckengast, Chancellor of Nebraska Wesleyan, to be with us Sunday morning, December 7th. Put a ring around that date on your calendar and mark it red letter day. If you have ever heard him you will not want to miss it. If you have not heard one of the most forceful, helpful and inspiring speakers of the state. Let young people especially, take note. He might help you decide some of life's vital problems.

Next Tuesday a group meeting of ministers will meet at Spencer for a program. You are welcome to attend.

That industrious and zealous Ladies Aid Society have been busy decorating and painting the walls and furniture, having repair work done on benches, chairs, etc., adding and changing stoves and beautifying in a general way and making more comfortable the church basement, at considerable expense. Let us all do our part to help them keep it that way.

In spite of the storm there was a splendid attendance at their meeting at Mrs. Hubbard's last week.

Miss Dorothy Harrison, who is attending school in Atkinson, came home Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with the home folks.

Dan Hansen found one of his best horses dead in a pasture a short time ago. It had been dead for some time and Dan was of the opinion that it had been shot by hunters.

The strong north winds of the past week have delayed corn husking are still busy shucking; some are somewhat and several in this locality nearly done and others have several acres in the fields yet.

John Osier and his friend, of Beltingham, Washington, who have been visiting here for several weeks started for their home on Tuesday. We imagine they will find some very bad roads before they get across the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Johnson and children motored to Omaha last week where he will undergo an operation on his ears in the hope of regaining his hearing. His neighbors hope that the operation and treatments will be successful.

Word was received last week of the death of Mrs. Addie Dartt, at her home in Bend, Oregon. She grew to womanhood in this community and will be remembered here as Addie Beaver. She was married to William H. Dart, here, July 11, 1896, moving to Wall, South Dakota in 1907 where they resided until a few years ago, when they moved to Bend, Oregon at which place she passed away. She was the mother of nine children, all of whom, with her husband, survive her.

Announcing! an IRONER as good as the MAYTAG WASHER at a popular price

The New Maytag Ironer takes the hard work out of the ironing and does it in less time. It is just such an ironer as you would expect from Maytag... compact, portable, simple, automatic in operation, and at a popular price.

The New Maytag Ironer heats faster and transfers heat to the garments being ironed, faster than other ironers. It gives a finish superior to hand ironing because more pressure is exerted on the clothes. Irons flat work perfectly with the first ironing. Difficult pieces such as ruffles, shirts and dresses are easily handled with a little practice.

The New Maytag irons everything, presses trousers and pleated skirts... steams velvets, ribbons and neckties.
