The first thing to keep in mind about next Sunday service is that Dr. Schreckengast, Chancellor of Nebraska Wesleyan University, will preach one of those wonderful sermons he has in store for us. We have a letter this week from him confirming his telegram that he would be here. We are not sure about the evening service, as he cannot get out of town on his train till early Monday morning; he may also preach in the evening. Evening service in the Presbyterian church.

Christmas envelopes will be handed out next Sunday to all who wish to make a Christmas offering to any of the various causes the church is sponsoring. We call it World Service. Children and grown-up folks may share in this. Let us give something to the great needs of the world. Surely the price of an evening or two of entertainment could be spared, even if we must go without the entertainment. If Jesus gave himself and the glories of the Heavenly and became subject to suffering and death, what shall we give? You may enclose your offering in these special envelopes and we will know this is your offering to World Service. It helps to spread the Gospel in more needy places than our own community, both in the United States and other countries.

A program is being planned for Christmas Eve, to be given in the church. Our word of good cheer next week.

LAMB—ASHER

Robert W. Lamb and Miss Dorothy Asher were united in the bonds of matrimony at the Methodist parsonage in O'Neill, Tuesday afternoon.

The groom is well known in O'Neill having attended school here several years, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lamb, who reside on a farm two miles east of O'Neill, are among our best citizens.

The home of the bride has been east of Page where her folks, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Asher, reside on a farm.

The young couple expect to remain in their home vicinities for a time until more definite decisions can be made for future location.

BABY STREETER

A little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Streeter, Wednesday morning at five o'clock and passed away about midnight of the same day. Mr. and Mrs. Streeter reside ten miles east of O'Neill.

The little one was laid to rest in Calvary cemetery today.

SUPERVISORS PROCEEDINGS

The Honorable County Board of Holt County, Nebraska:

Mrs. Julia E. Parker and Joel Parker and R. H. Parker complain to the county board of Holt county, through its honorable board, that the said County Board dug a ditch across the land belonging to the above claimants, without proper authority.

That they made a new creek by diverting the old creek into the ditch they dug. That the ditch keeps getting deeper and deeper each year and causes more and more damage each year. Numbers of the land are the south half of the south east quarter of section five, township 28, range 14

Holt County, Nebraska, being 80 acres. That there is no way to cross this ditch with a load of hay on account of its depth. That the ditch is about 8 feet deep in places. That said land has been damaged in its sale value and in its real value to the extent of about $1500 or thereabouts.

That one or two bridges are now needed to get over the deep ditch made by said county board. That the hay from the west end of the 80 acres cannot be hauled to the section line without first crossing this ditch. That it will probably cost $400 to build the necessary bridge or bridges to cross the ditch with loads of hay.

I invite your inspection of this ditch at this time, and an agreement as to the damages you will allow.

Julia E. Parker, Joel Parker, R. H. Parker.

On motion the board decided to go and inspect the ditch complained of.
