

Backyard Kronies— Before and After —By M.B.

ROYAL THEATRE

O'Neill, Nebraska
HOME OF GOOD PICTURES

Friday and Saturday, Jan. 9-10
Louise Fazenda and Bennie Ruben in
"LEATHERNECKING"

Rampaging 'round creation with the fightin' fools of the Marine corps. Guns nor dames ain't tamed 'em yet. Up and goin' he-man and she-gal show primed to set the world bellowing with leather-lunged laughs. Matinee Saturday, 2:30, -0-25c; night admission 10-40c.

Sunday, Mon., Tues., Jan. 11-12-13
El Brendel, John Garrick, Maureen O'Sullivan, Marjorie White, Frank Albertson, in
"JUST IMAGINE"

Something new under the sun. Love and laughter in 1930. Get a load of this advanced course in love-making, hear the newest and liveliest songs by the melody masters from Broadway. See what the girls will wear fifty years from now. Laugh at the riotous comedy on the future. Matinee Sunday, 2:30, adm. 10-35c; adm. at night 10-50c.

Wednesday & Thursday, Jan. 14-15
Billie Dove and Clive Brooks in
"SWEETHEARTS AND WIVES"
A highly amusing farce the whole family will enjoy.

LOCAL NEWS

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Peter, Tuesday, January 6th.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Krska, of Emmet January 7th.

The Woman's Club will hold a food sale at the Ben Grady store on Saturday, January 10th.

Irwin Cronin returned to Omaha last Sunday where he is attending law college in his senior year.

Frank Gallagher returned to St. Louis, Missouri, last Sunday where he is a student in a medical college.

Claude Johnson left for McCook, Nebraska, this week after spending the holidays with his parents at O'Neill.

Harry A. Volz, a real estate dealer of Winner, South Dakota, was in O'Neill a couple of days the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Zimmerman and children were New Year's day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Nemic of Spencer.

Mrs. Clarence Rasley has recovered from her recent illness and is again looking after business matters at the Royal Theatre.

Miss Violet Struby returned home on Tuesday of last week from Norfolk where she was an over Sunday guest of Miss Martha Ohlen.

Ralph Elliot, experimental farmer at the Nebraska Securities Experimental farm north of O'Neill, was in Lincoln the first of the week.

Bert and Miss Fern Hubbard returned to Lincoln last Sunday. Miss Fern is teaching in the Irving high school; Bert is attending college.

Miss Anna and Miss Helen Clark, of Omaha, who were visiting their sister, Mrs. M. R. Sullivan and family, returned home last Saturday.

Charles C. Millard suffered a light stroke of paralysis last Tuesday which has affected his right side. He is able to be up a part of the time.

Mrs. James Coventry, of Inman, has accepted a position for the present in the office of County Judge Malone and began her duties Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sisco of Pawnee City, Nebraska were over Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Sisco's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Carter.

Ted McElhane went to Rochester, Minnesota, last Saturday where he expects to go through the Mayo clinic to determine the cause of his ill health.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Nemic, of Spencer, spent Sunday at the C. E. Zimmerman home; Mrs. H. J. Zimmerman returned home with them that evening.

Mrs. Harry Haffner received word today that Gene Haffner, youngest brother of Harry Haffner of this city, had been accidentally shot at Donaldson, Iowa.

Miss Helen and Miss Hilda Gallagher, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gallagher of this city returned to their studies at Loretta Heights, Denver, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Calvert moved to Wayne, Nebraska, last Sunday where each has a position in the Colson Chicken Hatchery. They began their work Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. George French, of Page, stopped in O'Neill a short time Monday morning enroute to Valentine, where they will visit with their daughter, Mrs. M. E. Brouse and children.

Radio fans had the pleasure this forenoon of hearing little nine-year-old Donna Rae Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Cooper, of Fairbury, Nebraska, sing and tap dance from radio station KMMJ.

Judge and Mrs. R. R. Dickson were at Bassett Thursday evening where the Judge was the principal speaker at a Father and Sons banquet. Mrs. Dickson was guest of honor at a bridge party given that evening.

Marriage licenses have been issued recently to the following parties: Gerhart Hoffman and Elizabeth Marie Timmermans, both of Stuart, on January 3rd; Arthur Helmricks, Orchard, Nebraska, Edna Riege, Page, on January 2nd.

Mr. and Mrs. John Honeycutt entertained the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Morton, at their apartments in the Scott building on New Year's evening, in honor of the thirty-first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Morton.

E. F. Porter has erected a filling station on his farm on Highway No. 13, eighteen miles south of O'Neill, where he will be located when the weather warms up in the spring. The building is located on the highway five miles east of Chambers.

Miss Anna and Miss Helen Clark, of Omaha have purchased the Midget Golf Links of F. K. McCarty, of Dubuque, Iowa. The ladies were visiting in O'Neill over the holidays and made the purchase of Mr. McCarty, who was also visiting in O'Neill.

Harold Zimmerman, his mother, Mrs. H. J. Zimmerman, and Carroll Templeton drove up from Hastings, Nebraska, last Sunday. Mrs. Zimmerman will visit relatives in O'Neill and Spencer. Harold and Carroll returned to Hastings Monday morning.

Miss Hazel, the Red Cross nurse, arrived in O'Neill, Sunday and began her work in the local schools Monday morning. Any lady desiring to take the work to be given an adult class is required to come to the Kindergarten room in the Public School building Monday evening at 7:30. At this meeting the course to be taken will be decided upon, also the day and time of day classes will be held.

We are pleased to tell our readers that the price of cream went up five points in O'Neill on Wednesday of last week; the local market is now 24c; the O'Neill price was reported to have been several cents lower than neighboring towns up to the raise in price last week and we are glad to make this announcement of the raise. The price of chickens has also advanced 2 cents; springs are now 13 cents and hens are 14 cents, regardless of weight.

Roy Warner brought some dandelion blossoms to The Frontier office a day or two ago that he had just picked in his back yard; there had been a bunch of dandelions blooming in our back yard all through December; the robins are still with us; Judge Meredith still sleeps with his bedroom window wide open; Wink Waid hasn't put on his overcoat this winter so we want to tell Art Cowperthwaite that he missed spending the winter in an ideal climate when he went to California last November.

Mrs. A. Welton is seriously ill at her home on north Fifth street. She is past eighty-one years old. Her children are all at her bedside. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gunthorpe and daughter Miss Marjorie, arrived here from Denver, Sunday morning; Mrs. Sam Gaffer also came Sunday from Mankato, Minnesota; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Welton, Josie, Nebraska, have been here for some time, helping care for her; their daughter, Mrs. Leonard Finnegan, came Sunday from North Platte, Nebraska. Mrs. Floyd Pilger, of this city has also been assisting in the care of her mother.

Dr. and Mrs. M. F. Meer and daughter Miss Mary Ann, of Valentine, spent Sunday visiting at the home of the former's father and sister, Owen and Miss Mary Meer. Miss Mary Ann will remain here and continue her school work at St. Mary's Academy.

Rev. D. S. Conrad, field representative for the Children's Home Finding Society of Omaha, is moving to Norfolk, Nebraska this week. Rev. Conrad has been a resident of O'Neill for some time, coming here from Long Pine, where he was a Methodist pastor. He expects to return to O'Neill some time during the coming spring or summer.

December 1930 was the warmest December that has been recorded in this vicinity for a number of years. An examination of the government records officially kept by Harry Bowen discloses that December 1921 the average maximum was 41 degrees, the average minimum was 22 degrees above zero, the warmest day was 68 above and the coldest was 18 above; in 1930 the average maximum was 52 degrees above; the average minimum was 26 above; the warmest day was 64 above and the coldest was 9 above. The weather so far this month is about the same as December. We have had no zero weather since January 22, 1930—almost a year.

TWO COUNTY OFFICIALS RETIRE ON WEDNESDAY

E. F. Porter, Republican, County Clerk and B. T. Winchell, Democrat, County Recorder, completed their terms of office with the closing of business Wednesday evening—the end of the fiscal year.

John C. Gallagher, Democrat, assumed the office of County Clerk; Mrs. Esther Cole Harris, Republican, became the County Recorder at the opening of business Thursday morning.

Miss Eva Harmon is Deputy County Clerk; Mrs. Harris will handle the recorder's office alone after she becomes accustomed to the work. B. T. Winchell is assisting her for the present.

The county board of Supervisors adjourned sine die Wednesday evening; the new board will meet and organize for business next Tuesday.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES

The first Eighth Grade examinations will be held on January 30th at Stuart, Atkinson, O'Neill, Page, Inman, Ewing, Chambers, Amelia and Beotville, District 38. This examination is for eighth graders only and examinations will be given in the four following subjects: English composition, mental arithmetic, penmanship and Civics.

The next state teacher examination will be held in Atkinson, Ewing, and O'Neill on January 17th.

The teacher and pupils of school district 16 gave a very successful program and box social on December 19th. Mrs. Ted Schiessler is the teacher.

District No. 127 had a program ad box social on Dec. 22nd. Their proceeds amounted to $17.45. Florence Primus is the teacher.

The teacher and pupils of school district 20 were very pleased to find that a new merry-go-round had been purchased and set up during vacation.

The teacher and pupils of districts 99 and 192 gave a program and box social at the school house in district 99 on December 18th. Their proceeds amounted to $24.50. Miss Mabel Hendrick and Miss Rose Gilg are the teachers.

School has recently been opened in three school districts which have heretofore had no school this term. The districts and teachers are as follows: Dist. 229, Mrs. Laura Strube Maring; Dist. 82, Josephine Borgelt; Dist. 132, Mildred Finley.

A few changes have also been made in the teaching force. Miss Esther Butler has resigned from district 35 and her vacancy has been filled by Miss Ethel Chace, of Atkinson.

Miss Della Thompson of Inman has accepted the position for the school made vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Elva Burner and Mrs. Mildred Hulshizer has taken the Meek school, district 27, made vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Grace Calvert.

MRS. P. D. MULLEN HIT BY DOCTOR'S AUTO

Mrs. P. D. Mullen, of Lincoln, is still in St. Elizabeth's hospital in Lincoln, Nebraska, as a result of being struck by a car driven by a Lincoln physician as she was crossing 13th street, New Year's morning. She was knocked down but the car did not pass over her; she suffered three broken ribs, a fracture of the arm and cuts and bruises on the leg; all of the injuries are on the left side.

Mrs. Mullen was returning home from Mass, New Year's morning when the accident occurred.

Her son, Homer Mullen, of this city, received a letter from her this morning which stated that she is recovering as well as could be expected.

EMMET HARMON ENTERS CHAPMAN LAW OFFICE

Emmet Harmon became a partner in the law office with L. C. Chapman on January 1st. The style of the new firm will be Chapman & Harmon.

Mr. Harmon was graduated from law college last spring; since graduation he has been employed with a law firm in Norfolk.

COMBINATION SALE

I will hold a Combination sale at my place, one-fourth mile east of Round House, on Wednesday, January 14

15 HEAD MIXED CATTLE—COWS & CALVES
2 Milk Cows, will be fresh by sale day.

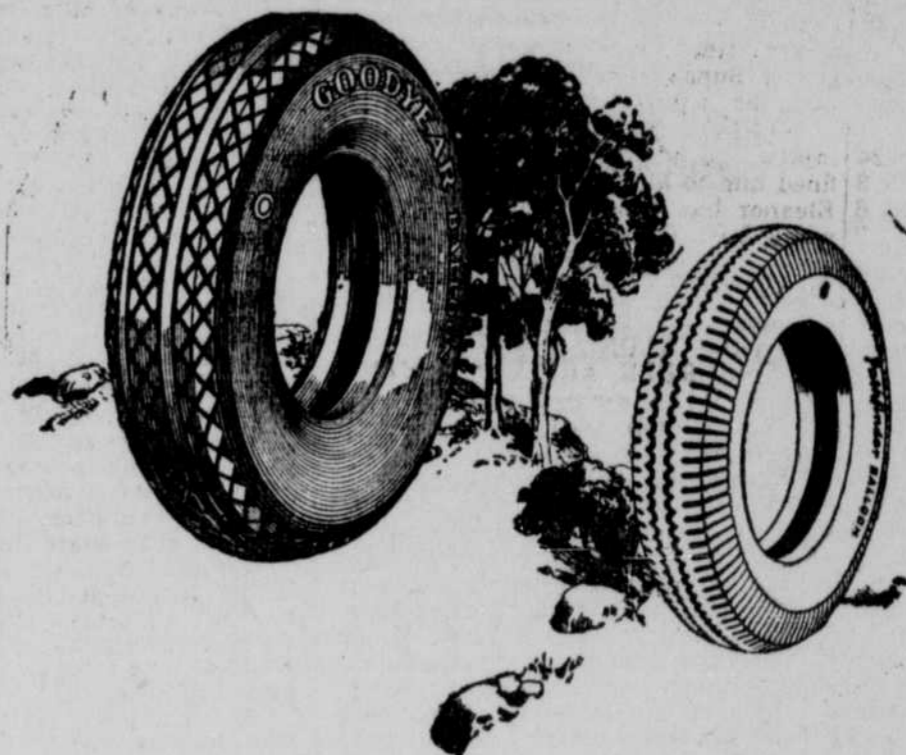

20 HEAD OF FALL PIGS. 1 CHESTER WHITE BOAR, WEIGHT 225 POUNDS.

15 PUREBRED WHITE ROCK ROOSTERS
SOME FARM MACHINERY, ETC.

List anything you have to sell, at once.

Write or phone me for terms.

COL. JAMES MOORE, Manager.

Now is the Time to Get Yours

Goodyear Double Eagles,
New Heavy Duty All-Weathers
or the Standard All Weathers.

No tread has ever equalled the Goodyear All-Weather for quick, safe stops, for grip on curves and traction in mud. And its protection lasts—the rubber is the toughest and longest-wearing that can be used. You pay no more, BUT YOU GET MORE in a Goodyear, because of economical huge scale production—largest in the world.

GOODYEAR

Pathfinder

A Quality Tire Within the Reach of All.

FULL OVERSIZE BALLOONS

Lifetime Guaranteed.

Regular

6-Ply Heavy Duty

10-Ply Truck Tires

4.75x19

4.75x19

32x6

$8.05

$10.20

$35.90

Tubes Also Low Priced.

MELLOR MOTOR CO.

O'Neill, Nebraska