HOME OF GOOD PICTURES

Friday and Saturday, January 16-17

Victor McLaglen in "A DEVIL WITH WOMEN"

Torrid—is the word for this gay drama of love and adventure down near the equator, where some people raise bananas and others Cain. To be shot at sunrise is not Victor McLaglen's idea of a happy ending. See this thrilling picture and discover why he was sentenced and what he did about it. Mat. Saturday, 2:30; 10c-25c.

Sunday and Monday, Jan. 18-19

Marie Dressler and Wallace Beery in "MIN AND BILL"

Two of the screen's greatest personalities come together in a laugh and thrill hit. Here is a drama that will make a sensation by its winning combination of a thousand laughs, tense situations and grand romance.

Tuesday, January 20

Joseph Schildkraut with Myrna Loy and Olive Tell in "COCK O' THE WALK"

His lady technique was daring and different—polished passion as perfected by a delightful Don Juan.

Wednesday and Thurs. Jan. 21-22

Marion Davies with Lawrence Gray and Walter Catlett in "THE FLORA DORA GIRL"

Get ready for a screen treat; the gay nineties are here again. Wait till you see Marion Davies in a bustle. She's a scream as one of the famed Floradora Sextette. Come and enjoy one of the best entertainments you have ever experienced.

LOCAL NEWS

D. B. Perkins, residing in the southern part of the county, was a pleasant caller at The Frontier office Wednesday.

Mrs. Phil Zeimer is visiting at Tilden with her daughter Mrs. Roy Catron and family and her mother, Mrs. E. J. Rockefeller.

Mr. and Mrs. George Henry left Tuesday for Kansas City, to visit at the home of Ms. Henry's brother, Byrl Martin and family.

F. J. Sexsmith, district chairman of the Boy Scouts, and Mr. Burch, of O'Neill were in Spencer, Tuesday in connection with Boy Scout work.

Jack Allinger expects to leave for Kansas City, Missouri, Sunday where he will attend a meeting of the J. C. Penney salesmen on a buying tour.

Rodell Root, of Chambers, assumed his duties as supervisor from the Fifth District, Tuesday. Mr. Root was elected over Elmer Gibson, last fall.

Emmet Roseler and Chester Cromwell who are features in the Black Hills orchestra will assist the orchestra at a dance in Ewing, Saturday night.

A Canadian farmer reports the hatching of a chicken with four legs. Might be all right for some families but ours would prefer one with four wishbones.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mellor entertained the Men's Whist Club at their home at Fifth and Douglas streets, last Friday evening. Fourteen guests were present.

Mrs. Albert Sundall, who was taken ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Robertson, while visiting there the first of the month, returned to her home at Wakefield last Sunday.

Carl Grant of Star, Nebraska, last week lost his insurance rate book and is having quite a time finding it. He advised The Frontier that he would pay a reward if the finder would return it to this office.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Harvey, of Orchard, Monday night, at the home of Mrs. Harvey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Winchell, who reside in the southwestern part of the city.

Scott Hough, George McNally and Joel Parker returned home Wednesday from Winner, South Dakota, where Scott has the contract for moving a large engine from Creighton to Winner; he is also removing an engine from the power house at Winner.

John L. Quig traded for a hog to butcher last Monday; that night the hog got away and Jack thought that his chances for a big fill on pork had vanished with the hog, but luck was in his favor; that day a fellow found the hog for Jack and "everything is going to be alright."

R. B. Mellor is associated with D. Stannard in the sale of monuments; he began work Wednesday morning and completed a sale that day.

The Frontier has just completed running a large store sale bill for Anton Toy, advertising the big sale that is going to start tomorrow morning, Friday, January 16th, in his store on Fourth street. Mr. Toy is advertising many bargains throughout the store.

Dr. H. L. Bennett, the veterinarian informs The Frontier that there is considerable black-leg among the young cattle throughout this section of the county; he tells us that cases are reported from all parts of the county. George Pongratz, the Musils and John Valla are among those losing cattle.

Court Reporter Ted McElhane submitted to an operation for gall stones and appendicitis last Saturday at the Mayo hospitals in Rochester, Minnesota; eighteen gall stones were removed. A card from his bedside stated that he was getting along nicely and would perhaps sit up in a day or two.

The Norfolk News of Wednesday stated that Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mathers and family of Plainview, Nebraska, returned from Marion, Sunday evening, where they were called on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Mather's father, G. Weyeneth. He was improving slightly when they left for home.

A light snow covered the ground in this locality last Sunday but did not remain long. The weather turned considerably colder; Tuesday morning the thermometer stood at 4 degrees above zero; on Wednesday morning seven below zero; this (Thursday) morning was about fifteen above, the sun is shining brightly and the air is warm.

By this time the tobacco pipes that were buried in the fulfillment of New Years resolutions are being dug up, and the meat eaters who committed themselves to a vegetarian diet are beginning to long for the fresh pots of Egypt. By the way, who ever heard of an old man who swore off on anything at New Years? Perhaps experience has taught the aged that it requires something more potent than a fresh calendar leaf to bolster up human weakness in carrying out a vow.

LEGAL NOTICE

To William H. Sigler, John W. Sigler, Elizabeth Landis, George W. Sigler, Etta Sigler, Alonzo Sigler, Glenn Sigler and Ross Sigler, Non-resident Defendants:

You and each of you are hereby notified that on the 9th day of September, 1930, Merchants National Bank of Omaha, Nebraska, a Corporation, as plaintiff, filed its petition in the District Court of Holt County, Nebraska, against you, and each of you, impleaded with others, as defendants, the object and prayer of which petition is to foreclose a certain mortgage of $8,500.00, made by J. L. Fisher and Katherine Pearl Fisher, husband and wife, to Merchants National Bank of Omaha, Nebraska, dated the 19th day of August, 1922, recorded on the 21st day of August, 1922, in Book 132 at page 153 of the mortgage records of Holt County, Nebraska, and covering the following described real estate, to-wit:

The North half (N½) and the North half of the Southeast quarter (N½SE¼) of Section Thirty-one (31), and the North half of the Northeast quarter (N½NE¼) and the Northwest quarter (NW¼) of Section Thirty-two (32), in Township Twenty-five (25), Range Ten (10) West of the 6th P. M., Holt County, Nebraska, containing 640 acres, which mortgage was given to secure a promissory note of even date for $8,500.00 and interest.

Plaintiff prays that in default of the payment by the defendants, or some of them, of the amount due plaintiff on its said note and mortgage, said premises may be sold according to law to satisfy the amount found due, with interest and costs; that the defendants, and each of them, may be forever barred and foreclosed of any and all right, title, interest or equity of redemption in and to said premises; that out of the proceeds of the sale thereof the plaintiff may be paid the amount found due it, together with the costs of said action; and for such other and further relief as equity may require.

You and each of you are required to answer said petition on or before the 9th day of February, 1931.
