college of business administration. James graduated from the Joy high school in 1928 and is a junior this year. Dick finished high school last spring and is registered as a freshman. Both belong to the Y. M. C. A. and play on intramural basketball teams.

Miss Carol T. Simonson is the only student at the University from Agee. She is majoring in zoology in the teachers college and will receive her degree at the end of the present semester. Last year Miss Simonson won the scholarship offered by the American Association of University Women and this semester holds a tuition scholarship. She belongs to Phi Sigma, honorary biological society.

Ewing students at the University are Wilda Dierks, agricultural college sophomore; Maurine LaRue, freshman in agriculture, and Russell Wunner, sophomore in arts and sciences. Inman is sending John E. Davis, sophomore in the college of engineering.

From Stuart come Ralph J. Chitick, first year student in business administration; Garnette L. Clare, teachers' college sophomore; George J. Criss, sophomore in engineering; William E. Kapan, junior in arts and sciences, and Phyllis Rhodes, senior in the college of pharmacy.

The Atkinson representatives at the University are Douglas Chapman, freshman in business administration; Tabor W. Kelley, sophomore in the school of fine arts; William G. Schultz, freshman in business administration; Henry Seger, junior in teachers college; Ella K. West, sophomore in teachers college, and Henry Zahradnick, freshman in arts and sciences.

INMAN ITEMS

Two cases of scarlet fever have been reported in this community; Eugene Linnet and Gwendolyn Benson, both high school students, have the disease; however it seems to be in a very mild form.

Mrs. E. R. Riley has been quite ill the past week but is much improved at this time.

The pastor and people of the M. E. church are planning for a series of Evangelistic meetings to be held in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Goree were visiting relatives in O'Neill, Sunday.

John Read, of Norfolk, is in this vicinity buying up hogs this week.

F. M. Colman was in Norfolk on business, Friday of last week.

Judge C. J. Malone, of O'Neill and Mr. and Mrs. L. Kopecky, were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Mary M. Hancock, Sunday.

Dean, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Conger, is on the sick list this week.

The monthly gathering of the Coffee Club was held at the home of Mrs. G. E. Moor last Friday. It was an all day affair and a large crowd was present; a big dinner at noon was the main feature of the day. Guests of the club were Mrs. Karl Keyes, Mrs. Dagan, Miss Clute; Miss Elsie Krueger, Mrs. Carrie McMahn and Mrs. Harold Miller. The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mary Hancock. Mrs. Jennie Crosser and Mrs. Art Renner will assist her as hostess.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. church will hold an all day meeting at their parlor on Thursday of this week; the work on hand will be for the Methodist hospital; quilts, infant gowns, dish towels and bath towels will be donated to the hospital. The ladies are also sponsoring a "Surprise Basket" which is creating a lot of fun and adding a nice sum to the treasury; an article valued at 25c is placed in the covered basket and sold to a lady who keeps the article she bought, places another 25c article in the basket and sells it to another neighbor. The basket is kept on the move and everything from spare ribs to fancy work has been found in the basket.

WALTER COLMAN

Relatives and friends in Inman were grieved and shocked on Monday to hear of the accidental death of Walter Colman, of Sexsmith, Alberta, Canada, which occurred on Saturday, January 17th, 1931. Mr. Colman, who is a brother of Frank and Geo. Colman of Inman, was sawing wood when his sweater was caught in the fly wheel of the engine, hurling his body around and around; his head was badly cut up, one arm broken in three places, and it was thought he was injured internally; he was rushed to the hospital, but died before reaching it.

Mr. Colman was born in Brooklyn, New York, on October 8, 1873; at the time of his death he was almost 58 years of age. In 1884, together with his parents and brothers, he came to Inman, where he grew to manhood and was married to Miss Dica Auten, to which union seven children were born. For several years he worked as section foreman at Inman, Newport, Emmet and Ewing, and then went to Norfolk, where he entered the train service on the C. & N. W. railroad, serving as brakeman and conductor for a number of years. He then resigned and farmed near Albion, in Boone county, for a time. In 1914 he moved with his family to Sexsmith, Alberta, Canada, where he has since resided.

Mr. Colman leaves to mourn his departure, his wife and six children, one child having died in infancy; four brothers, Frank and George, Inman; James, Omaha, and William, Chicago. A year ago this month, Mr. and Mrs. Colman were in Inman visiting relatives and old friends.

LOCAL NEWS

John Dumpert tells us that he has filled his ice house at his place west of O'Neill and is feeling quite jubilant; he says he was afraid that he would not be able to find enough ice to fill it this year. The thirteen loads he put in his ice house was about twelve inches thick.

Mrs. Mildred Malone Spann, her mother, Mrs. C. J. Malone, and Mrs. L. A. Carter returned home Wednesday evening from Omaha where they have been visiting for several days. Mrs. Spann attended the "All Nebraska" Izaak Walton League banquet held at the Fontenelle, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. George Robertson received word that Mrs. Willis Barker, who recently moved to Lincoln from here, was operated upon last Friday at Dr. Bailey's Sanitarium there and that she was getting along as well as could be expected. Her friends can write her in care of Dr. Bailey's Sanitarium, Lincoln.

Phil Harrington was taken to the Stuart hospital Tuesday evening where he submitted to an operation that evening for appendicitis; we understand that the appendix was ruptured and that gangrene had developed. His many O'Neill friends are anxiously awaiting for favorable news from his bedside.

A CORRECTION

In making up the list of donations to the Christmas Fund, Will Merriman's name was omitted. Will was in with the rest of the boys and the committee is glad to make this correction.

SHIPMAN—INGLES

Mr. James Wayne Shipman, of O'Neill and Miss Elinor Ann Ingles, of Amelia, were married at the M. E. parsonage here on Tuesday, January 27th.

Mr. Shipman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Shipman, residing four miles north of O'Neill. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ingles are the parents of Miss Ingles. They will reside on a ranch about twenty-five miles southwest of Atkinson.

FORD SMOOTHNESS

The new Ford has more than twenty ball and roller bearings

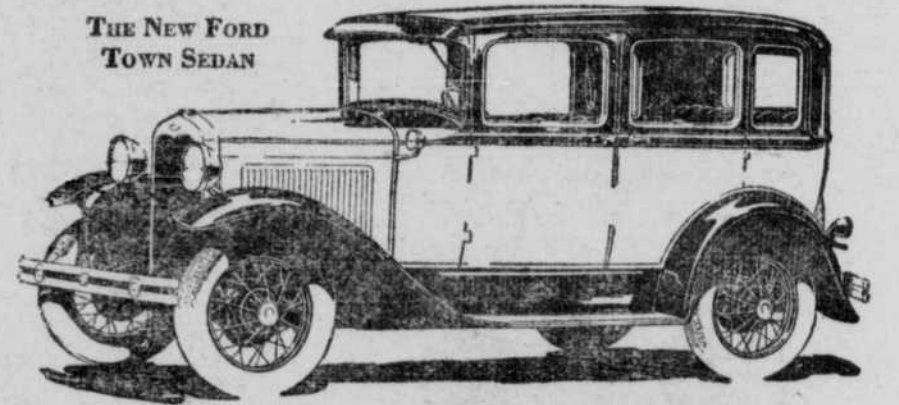

EVIDENCE of the high quality built into the new Ford is the extensive use of ball and roller bearings. There are more than twenty in all — an unusually large number. Each bearing is adequate in size and carefully selected for the work it has to do.

At some points in the Ford chassis you will find ball bearings. At others, roller bearings are used regardless of their higher cost. The deciding factor is the performance of the car.

The extensive use of ball and roller bearings in the new Ford insures smoother operation, saves gasoline, increases speed and power, gives quicker pick-up, decreases noise, and gives greater reliability and longer life to vital moving parts.

Other outstanding features that make the new Ford a value far above the price are the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, silent, fully enclosed four-wheel brakes, four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers, aluminum pistons, chrome silicon alloy valves, three-quarter floating rear axle, Rustless Steel, the extensive use of fine steel forgings, and unusual accuracy in manufacturing.

GLADYS SIMMONS WRITES ABOUT WASHINGTON LIFE

While Washington's chief interest to most people who visit it is the governmental activities located here, one of its greatest charms lies in the wide range of entertaining events which occur constantly. Several of these I have experienced recently.

A trip to Arlington National Cemetery to see the Lee Mansion, which has always been interesting because of its ownership a hundred years ago by Washington's adopted son, George Washington Parke Custis, and by his son-in-law, General Robert E. Lee. The view from it, surrounded by its trees, across the Potomac to Washington has always been unsurpassed. They have just repaired the beautiful old home, opened parts formerly closed to the public, and furnished it in the period preceding the Civil War, until now it is almost as lovely and fascinating as Mount Vernon.

A tea given to introduce to society one of the season's most prominent debutants. Here were great masses of lovely flowers, high government officials, music, dainty refreshments served from beautifully appointed tables, well-known women pouring fashionable gowns and formal afternoon clothes for the men, and most important of all, the dainty "bud" herself.

A dinner where Senators and Members of the House competed for a prize in telling campaign stories—and many of them were indeed worth hearing.

A concert given at the Library of Congress by a wonderfully fine orchestra, sponsored by an organization of music lovers, of which the Speaker of the House, Nicholas Longworth, is president. He is a violinist of ability. Many distinguished music lovers were present, musicians, composers, diplomats, people socially prominent. There is a small but beautiful auditorium built in one of the courts of the Library of Congress by a gift from a wealthy New England woman (Coolidge by name, but not a relative of the President.) She is trying to do her bit toward making Washington a musical center comparable to other national capitals. Her generosity makes possible each year several concerts by great musicians, entirely free to the public.

An illustrated lecture on "The New Turkey," with the members of the Turkish Embassy and their ladies guests of honor. Very incidental indeed they looked in their formal evening dress. The ladies, especially, one would have guessed to be American.

A meeting of the Nebraska Society, where members always enjoy seeing friends of friends at home, and make of them friends of their own.

A reception given at the National Headquarters of the General Federation of Women's Clubs for the ladies who have come to the annual Board meeting. Women from all over the United States, of unusual ability and charm, who do great service to their communities, states and nation.

A luncheon where one guest was the wife of a general who did such great work in digging the Panama Canal that a great cut is named for him. Also the wife of a White House official who told interesting, personal stories of President and Mrs. Coolidge. And a woman explorer who had travelled in remote and interesting countries, and had many thrilling tales to tell.

Just a few of the many experiences of various kinds which can be enjoyed by the sojourner in Washington. Not inspiring in patriotism as is the more intimate knowledge of government, but each worth while in its own way.

GLADYCE W. SIMMONS.

HOLT COUNTY STUDENTS AT STATE UNIVERSITY

Twenty-two Holt County students are attending the University of Nebraska at Lincoln this year, according to a recent survey which indicates that two of the twenty-two live at O'Neill. Eight of them come from Atkinson, five from Stuart, three from Ewing, two from Joy and one from both Agee and Inman.

Dorothy Youngkin and Burt Hubbard are the O'Neill students at the University. Miss Youngkin is taking commercial arts work in the teachers' college. She is enrolled as a freshman. Hubbard is a senior in the college of arts and sciences and will graduate next June. He finished high school in 1927.

The Robertson brothers, James A. and Richard W., are the two Joy representatives at the University. Both are majoring in accounting in the
