THOMAS J. KEYS

Thomas J. Keys, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Keys of this city was accidentally shot in the forehead last Friday evening while handling an old twenty-two rifle; the ball evidently penetrated a part of the brain for Tommy did not regain consciousness after the accident. It was thought for a time that he would recover but pneumonia developed and he passed away on Monday morning at nine o'clock.

The accident occurred at the Cornelius Keys home one mile west of O'Neill.

An inquest was held Monday afternoon in the Biglin undertaking parlors. The verdict of the jury in substance was that the deceased came to his death by reason of a certain rifle ball and that the death was purely accidental.

The fact connected with his death, as near as can be learned, are that Tommy had gone to bed as usual but had gotten up later and secured an old rifle and had sat down by a window; the assumption is that he heard some peculiar noise coming from the vicinity of the chicken house, which could be seen from the window; he had put on a pair of trousers and sweater over his night clothing; it is thought that the rifle was discharged when he stood it in a corner.

Thomas Keys was born in O'Neill Nebraska, October 4, 1892, and was 38 years, 4 months and 6 days old at the time of his death.

He served in the World War for two years with actual service in France where he was wounded in the battle of the Marne. Since his discharge from the service he has lived with his parents.

Besides his parents he leaves two brothers, Cornelius J., Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and Patrick, O'Neill; also one sister, Miss Mae, O'Neill.

Funeral services were held from St. Patrick's church at nine o'clock on Wednesday morning conducted by Father B. J. Leahy. The American Legion, of which the deceased was a member, escorted the remains to the church and later to Calvary cemetery where their comrade was given military honors at the grave.

MRS. ANNA JOYCE

Mrs. Anna Joyce, one of the early settlers in Holt County and northeast Nebraska died on last Saturday, February 7th, at St. Joseph's hospital in Omaha following an illness of about three weeks.

Mrs. Joyce and her husband, William, had spent almost fifty-eight of their years together, rearing a splendid family, when in August, 1929, he died. The shock of his passing, coupled with her advancing years took heavily of her strength. She had not been feeling very well and about three weeks ago was taken to Omaha for treatment; while there in the hospital she developed pneumonia from which she died.

Mrs. Joyce, whose maiden name was Anna Stanton, was born in County Mayo, Ireland on the 5th day of May, 1856. When a child she was taken by her parents to Scotland, from which country they later migrated to the United States. In Ohio she met William Joyce and at Youngstown, in that state, on November 27th, 1871 they were married.

In April, 1875, from Youngstown, Ohio they came west and settled in Holt County on a homestead about 5 miles northwest of O'Neill. There were but few settlers here at that time; it was the day of the pioneer; the day of hardship, privation, courage. Possessing the attributes of wife and mother in abundance, Mrs. Joyce was not discouraged by the suffering of the pioneer. Upon this homestead her children were born; there they were raised and there she and her husband remained until about twenty years ago when they retired and removed to O'Neill.

To them were born seven children, Mary, Ann, Grace and Thomas J., of O'Neill; Agnes and Margaret, of Chicago, and Mrs. George Shoemaker. All of her children survive to mourn her passing excepting Mrs. George Shoemaker; three grand children, Russell Shoemaker, Leonard Shoemaker and Sister Georgella of Stella, Niagara, New York.

Funeral services were conducted by Monsignor M. F. Cassidy at St. Patrick's church on Tuesday morning. That beautiful edifice was filled with friends paying their last meed of respect and devotion to her memory.

The pall bearers were C. C. Reka, Edward Early, E. F. Porter, W. C. Templeton, B. F. Naughton, Thomas Dolin.

MRS. SUSANNAH J. McNALLY

Mrs. Susannah Jane McNally passed away last evening at the home of her son Fred in this city, following an illness that covered several weeks.

The remains were shipped to Dublin, Nebraska, Tuesday morning. Funeral services were held Thursday morning; burial in Glencoe cemetery.

Mrs. McNally was born in Lafayette, Indiana, January 6, 1847. She was 84 years, 1 month and 3 days old at the time of her death.

She was married at Galesburg, Illinois, February 22, 1866. She was the mother of twelve children, nine of whom are living; they are Wm. D. McNally, Long Pine; Mrs. Alvira Gavin, Julesburg, Colorado; George McNally, O'Neill; Harry McNally, John McNally, Mrs. Rose Dowd, all of Schuyler, Nebraska; Fred McNally, O'Neill; Mrs. Katie Higgins, Inez Nebraska; Ray McNally, Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. McNally had been critically ill for several weeks and her death was expected momentarily for some time. The children have been at her bedside many times during her late illness and everything was done to make her last hours as pleasant and comfortable as possible.

FREDERICK KILTZ

Frederick Kiltz was born in Erie, Pennsylvania, July 15, 1854. He lived there until thirteen years of age, at which time he moved with his parents to McHenry County, Illinois. In 1880 he married Miss Addie Perkins, of Union, Illinois. The couple made their home at Union until 1886. In the month of April of that year they moved to Nebraska and settled on a farm near Chambers. That has been their home ever since.

Mr. Kiltz has been affiliated with the Kellar Presbyterian church since 1889.

His wife and four children survive to mourn his passing. Nettie Ruth died in infancy; a daughter, Mrs. T. E. Alderson; two sons, Clyde E. and Clarence L. Kiltz, live within a few miles of the home place; Burton F. Kiltz, the third son, resides at Stillwater, Oklahoma; a brother, Samuel Kiltz, at Los Angeles, California; fourteen grand-children and four great grand-children also survive.

Mr. Kiltz lived to the age of seventy-six years, six months and twenty-one days. He passed away quietly, without illness, in his own home, on February 5th, 1931.

With the passing of Mr. Kiltz, Holt County in general, and the Chambers community in particular, loses one of its early settlers and one who in every way helped in the development of the new country to which he came in 1886.

Living on a homestead, along with other early settlers, he and Mrs. Kiltz helped in developing the school and churches and were to be counted on for everything that was worth while and would count for good.

Having united with the Presbyterian church in 1889, he was one of its leaders and always helped to build it up and keep it going. In fact, as he was a carpenter, he really did most of the work in building the church edifice, so that the Kellar church may be called a monument to his memory.

He taught in the Sunday School and served as trustee of the church for many years.

Last fall Mr. and Mrs. Kiltz celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, at which all their children, grand-children and great grand-children were present, also his only living brother; many other relatives and a great number of friends were present to honor their fifty years of married life.

Having lived a full, active and worth while life, God called him to his Heavenly Home, to dwell forever with Him.

"One of his Friends."

EVA ADDISON

The remains of Miss Eva Addison daughter of John Addison, who resides in the Opportunity neighborhood, twenty-four miles northeast of O'Neill, arrived in O'Neill from Moske, Wyoming, Tuesday morning.

Miss Eva was ill with diphtheria about a year ago from which she did not fully recover; she was under the care of a physician at different times during the summer; in the fall she was taken to the home of a sister at Moske, Wyoming, in the hope of finding relief from her illness; it seems that she developed trench mouth from which she died on Monday of this week.

Miss Eva was born near Opportunity, Nebraska on March 13, 1918.

Funeral services will be held from the John Addison home northeast of Opportunity, today at 2:30; the services will be conducted by Rev. H. D. Johnson, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city; burial will be in the Mineola cemetery.

ANNA BOYLE

Mrs. Anna Boyle passed away at her home twenty-six miles south of O'Neill near the county line, early Tuesday morning at the age of 59 years, 6 months and 4 days. The cause of her death was given as cancer of the liver.

She was born in Illinois, August 10, 1871. She came from Illinois in 1885; in 1898 she was united in marriage to Patrick Boyle, in Clearwater, Nebraska. She leaves seven children to mourn her departure; they are Garrett, Patrick, James, Joseph, Mrs. Mary Turner, Miss Anna and Miss Goldie, all of this vicinity.

Funeral services were held from St. John's church in Deloit, today, Thursday, Ft. B. H. Leahy of this city officiating at the services; burial will be in the cemetery near the church.

The Price of Eggs

Poultry flocks have been a big source of revenue on the farm during the last few years. On account of the low price for which poultry and eggs are now selling, this source of income is greatly reduced. It is the purpose of the Robert C. Moore Stores at all times in exchanging merchandise for eggs and the products of the farm to try and pay the price at which such products can be sold. In other words, we undertake to accept the products of the farm as cash for our merchandise.

It might be that if everybody would eat more eggs and use more eggs and poultry for the table that the over supply could be consumed and result in an increased price for poultry and poultry products.
