MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER FOR A NEW BRIDE

A miscellaneous shower, complimentary to Mrs. Raymond Wickham (nee Levine Pierce) was given at the hospitable home of Mrs. J. Widman at Amelia, Saturday afternoon.

The color scheme and mode of George Washington's time predominated.

Mrs. Blake Ott and Mrs. Lee Sammons were hostesses and displayed marked ability in that capacity as the afternoon passed. Martha Washington (impersonated by little Gloria Ott) was becomingly dressed, even to powdered curls and cap, and her sweet little smile and endearing ways was indeed a true character part. George Washington, (impersonated by Master Billy Sammons) was indeed our beloved George, even to the hatchet. The little couple presented the new bride with the beautiful gifts.

Luncheon of ice cream and cake was served to about seventy guests.

CRAWFORD—MILLER

Mr. Theodore Crawford of Redbird Nebraska and Miss Mae Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Miller, of Meek, Nebraska, were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage in O'Neill on Thursday morning, February 26th, Rev. Benj. Kuhler officiating. Mrs. Crawford will finish the term of school which she has been teaching near her home, but their future home will be near Redbird on a farm.

OUR BLUSHING BRIDES

Is love on the bargain counter—a thing of barter and sale? Don't make up your mind till you see this engaging story of three department store girls who travel three different roads to romance.

Saturday, February 28

MOUNTAIN JUSTICE

With Ken Maynard, Kathryn Crawford, Otis Harlan, Paul Hurst and Les Bates. A ranch owner's son, aided by the heroine avenges his father's death.

Sun., Mon., Tues., March 1-2-3

TOP SPEED

Just a great big man with a great big mouth. You'll roar every time he opens it. He's funnier than he was in "Hold Everything." It's the funniest picture we have ever shown.

Wednesday & Thursday, March 4-5
Jeanette MacDonald, Reginald Denney, Marjorie White and Warren Hyack, in

"OH, FOR A MAN"

Romance in the spotlight. He came to steal and stayed to love, she awoke from a dream and he was the reality. Man-hunting by a famous beauty who had everything but that big heart of a man she craved. She was irresistible and he did not resist. Do not miss the gayest comedy of the season.

O'NEILL HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Have you heard of March roarin' like a lion? We let the Lion's Club do the roarin' but we're a-rarin' to go with a whole month of big events. Save your time and put your pep into the O'Neill side of the wheel.

Friday, February 27th we schedule two attractions for this evening—O'Neill High plays St. Mary's—the final game of the season, on the Convent floor. At the same time the Holt County Spelling Contest will be held in the Public School auditorium.

Wednesday, March 4th. The date of the Senior play, "The Big Cheese" has been changed from March 3rd to March 4th. If you like cheese, you'll like this. Even if you don't, we'll bet you'll be 'crazy' over this.

Wednesday, March 11th. The local Declamatory Contest has been set for Wednesday, March 11th, provided we can secure Miss Florence Sherman as judge.

March 5th, 6th and 7th. The District Basketball Tournament will be held at Ainsworth on March 5, 6 and 7.
