MY TRIP TO OMAHA

On Thursday morning of last week I started, with Mrs. Parker, the Superintendent, Francis Soukup and Elda Mae Butterfield, to Omaha, by automobile, to attend the Interstate Spelling Contest which was held in the city hall, Friday and Saturday.

Neither Elda Mae nor I won any place in the Interstate, but Francis won a money prize of $5.00 in the World-Herald contest.

Among the interesting places that we saw were Tech High, Krug Park, Elmwood Park, the Deaf and Dumb School, Father Flannigan's Boy's Home, Jocelyn Memorial and Jocelyn Castle.

We went through the Deaf and Dumb School. Our guide was a girl of about sixteen years of age. Her home was in North Bend and she has been at the Deaf and Dumb School for eleven years. She showed us through the school, making us understand by signs. They have school through the twelve grades and it is equipped with most modern activities.

The basketball team of this school won the 1930-31 district championship and the 1931 state championship.

The Jocelyn Memorial is a three million dollar Memorial, all marble, dedicated by Mrs. Jocelyn to the memory of her late husband. It is to be used as an art gallery.

ANNA TOY.

HAYNE-PALMER

Miss Carmen Palmer and Claire Hayne, of Page, were married at O'Neill on April 25th.

Mrs. Hayne is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Palmer, of Page, and is a graduate of the Page high school.

Mr. Hayne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hayne, of Neligh, and is employed by the Armour Company at O'Neill.

BASE BALL MEETING

A meeting of baseball phans and those interested in baseball are asked to meet at the band hall, Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. O'Neill should have a ball team; come out and boost.

FORD MOTOR COMPANY HOLD DEMONSTRATION

It is estimated that between 500 and 700 people were guests of the Ford Motor Co., at the Spring Salon held April 23rd, 24th and 25th, at the show rooms of the Mellor Motor Co., of this city.

This showing, which included talking motion pictures and the cut-away models of motor and chassis of the Model A Ford cars was in charge and under the supervision of Ford Motor Co. representatives, Dawson, Sterling and Benedict, who explained and illustrated the many ideal features of the Model A car.

The pictures portrayed the River Rouge Plant where the Ford cars are manufactured. These pictures were intensely interesting in their suggestions for value and sturdy construction in these cars, showing to the Model A owner and the prospective buyer alike, the efficient and prompt servicing and the low cost of upkeep of the Model A car.

CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN A CONTEST WINNER

The Chicago & North Western has just been designated winner of the Class A award in the Annual Steam Railroad Accident Prevention Contest, carried on among United States Railroads, according to a letter just received by Fred W. Sargent, president of the road, from C. W. Bergquist, president of the National Safety Council.

This award, made for the greatest reduction in casualty rates (killed and injured) among employees on duty in train, train service and non-train accidents, was determined on the basis of million man hours worked as shown in the official records of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Class A includes railroads on which employees worked more than 100 million man hours.

METHODIST MEN ENTERTAIN PRESBYTERIANS

There was a Men's meeting of unusual interest last Thursday night at the Methodist church when the Methodist men entertained the men of the Presbyterian church. There were over sixty present. The band entertained with music while they were gathering. Then there was a period of stunts which jarred loose the risibilities of everyone present and broke the stiffness of any strangeness that might have been present. The shadow pantomimes were especially interesting and amusing. Several remarked that they saw more stunts in a short time than they had seen for a long time. Then after a period of song, lunch was served, after which the speakers of the evening were introduced. Professor Miller was the first who gave a short but pointed talk after some introductory remarks by Mr. Hancock. Then Mr. W. S. Rogers, business man and prominent layman of the Methodist church of Ainsworth, spoke on "Big Business and Christianity." There were many highly complimentary remarks about this half hour address, simple, sincere and crowded with facts of interest. Finally, Mr. Sexsmith was called upon, who gave one of his usual brief but fitting poems with accompanying comments. Rev. Johnson was the closing speaker who dismissed the services. We believe all went home with the feeling of a happy evening together and many expressed the desire that we "do it again."

ANNUAL GOLF TOURNAMENT JUNE 21ST, 22ND AND 23RD

The tenth annual golf tournament to be held by the O'Neill Country Club will commence Sunday, June 21st and continue through the two days following, June 22nd and 23rd. Chairman L. A. Burgess has designated the tournament as an anniversary affair and it will be his aim to see that all attendants at former meetings will be present at the tournament this year. All amateur golfers are invited and the winner will be declared champion of north Nebraska, the title being held at present by Harry Houston, of Plainview, the winner at the last tournament. The prizes at the affair this year will be the finest that have ever been given by the club and will be awarded to all winners and runner-up participants in all flights. Among other prizes will be numerous traveling bags and cases, a new idea in the prize line as O'Neill gifts go. One of the finest dance bands available will be engaged to play for the dancing party that is always a feature of the tournament festivities. New and added entertainment will feature the bridge parties for the ladies in attendance.

"SACRED STORY OF THE MASS" AT O'NEILL, THURSDAY, MAY 7

One of the most beautiful pictures transferred to the silver screen is "The Sacred Love Story of the Mass," as impressive as "The Passion Play of Oberammergau." Its presentation at St. Patrick's church, O'Neill, on Thursday night of next week, May 7, is sponsored by the Catholic Daughters in that city who are giving the public an opportunity to see this wonderful production. Despite the heavy expense incurred to secure the picture the admission fee is held down to the popular price of 50c.

This marvelous picture will be shown in colors, and 250 artistic gems as unfolded to the eye in presenting the inspiring story are from the masterpieces of the world. It represents the life work of Rev. George A. Keith, S. J., who devoted 30 years, his entire career as a Jesuit, to the preparation, perfection and rendition of this singular unique pictorial spectacle—"the sweetest and the saddest, the strongest, the most comforting, most beautiful and inspiring love story—the most sacred that was ever told."

The gorgeous drama has achieved a phenomenal success in the large cities of the east, and the enterprising sponsors who have secured it for next week's engagement at O'Neill were prompted to do so by a vision of the gripping message it carries. They would greatly appreciate the co-operation of the public and hope for a liberal patronage.

Owing to the importance and correlation of the pictures and the sacredness of the subject, all are requested to be on time. If possible, be seated by 7:50. Doors opened at 7:15. Positively close at 7:55. Prelude, 7:57; picture 8:00. Children under high school age not admitted.

CHARLES M. BROWN

Charles M. Brown, aged 82 years, was so badly burned last Monday that he passed away the following morning.

The facts as we are able to learn them are that the old gentleman was burning some dry grass and rubbish and became entangled in a loose wire fence and the fire came upon him before he could extricate himself. Mrs. Brown came to his assistance but he had received the fatal burns.

MRS. HERMAN KORNOCK

Mrs. Herman Kornock, who died at the county hospital at San Francisco, California, April 12th, was buried in the Lutheran cemetery, south of Orchard, on April 17th. She had suffered from cancer and in July, 1930, went to San Francisco hoping to get relief.

She leaves her husband and four children, Edgar, Olga, Bernard and Dorothy.

She was 47 years old at the time of her death.

Her home was about five miles southeast of Page.

INMAN ITEMS

Vaughn Ticknor, of Anoka, was here Monday visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Conger went to Norfolk, Thursday on business.

Roy Jensen, of Royal, visited at the Wm. Brown home here Sunday.

Tom Chilquist spent the week-end in Norfolk, returning home Sunday evening.

Laurence Turner, of Rising City, Nebraska, spent the week-end here with friends.

Miss Marvel Hartigan went to Norfolk, Wednesday for a few days visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Tompkins went to Norfolk, Thursday of last week, for a visit with relatives.

Word has been received here of the critical illness of Mrs. Jim Leffler, of Norfolk. Mrs. Leffler formerly lived here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Harte and children and Leo Harte went to Spaulding for a visit Friday, returning on Sunday.

Mrs. Ella Riley, of O'Neill sold her 7-acre tract of land just east of Inman to Miss Lillie Ek of this place, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson were dinner guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, at Page, Sunday evening.

Mrs. Gertrude Bowering, who has spent the past month here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Conard, left Thursday for Omaha.

Word has been received here of the serious illness of Frank McDermott, of Ewing. Mr. McDermott was a former Inman citizen.

Fred Simmons, of Battle Creek, purchased the Richardson property and seven acres of land in the Knapp addition south of town, last week.

Mrs. Ella Riley and daughter, Miss Thelma, and Miss Bessie Brennan, were in Inman, Saturday, transacting business and visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Jackson, of Sioux City, Iowa, spent the week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jackson and other relatives.

Mr. Lyle Sprecher, of Omaha came Monday afternoon for a short visit with his uncle, George Coventry and family. Lyle was a former resident of Inman.

3,000 jack pines were set out at the Inman cemetery last week; there are large groves of pine on the north and south sides of the cemetery and with the addition of these 3,000 more the cemetery will be surrounded by a pine forest.

Miss Della Thompson closed a successful term of school in the Hopkins district, nine miles south of Inman, Friday. A picnic was held Friday, at which there was a large crowd. Miss Thompson has been elected to teach the school again next year.

The Senior class of the Inman high school were noticeably absent from classes Thursday and Friday of last week. Together with their sponsor, Supt. Alice French, they had sneaked away on Wednesday evening and had gone to Mead, Nebraska, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter French over night; the balance of the time was spent in Lincoln and Omaha; they returned home Sunday evening.
