

LOCAL NEWS

H. J. Hammond spent the week-end in Omaha.
 W. J. Hammond made a business trip to Omaha, Tuesday.
 Supervisors L. C. McKim and Jas. Barsach drove over to Yankton, S. D., Sunday.
 The next State Teachers Examinations will be held on Saturday, July 18th, at O'Neill only.
 John Phalin came up from Omaha, Sunday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phalin.
 Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Kubitschek and family returned Monday, following a three week's vacation in Omaha.
 Seymour Harkins, Ezra Cooke and Edward Adams, of Chambers, transacted business in O'Neill last Friday.
 Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Carnes, of Neligh, spent the 4th at the J. C. Harnish home.
 Mrs. Edward O'Connell and Mrs. Frank Nolan are remaining here for a week's visit with friends and relatives.
 M. F. Harrington, George M. Harrington and C. F. McKenna drove to Rushville, Gordon and Alliance the first of the week.
 Miss Mary and Miss Anna Joyce went to Sioux City, Saturday morning where they are spending a few days visiting friends.
 County Attorney Julius D. Cronin went to Rochester, Minnesota, the first of the week where he expects to go through the Mayo clinic.
 Mrs. H. M. Uttley left Tuesday morning for Seattle, Washington, where she was called by the serious illness of her sister, Calista Payne.

EMMET ITEMS

The Fernholtz young folks visited at the Joe Pongratz home, Sunday evening.
 Mrs. Mattie Weller, of Atkinson, visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson.
 Mrs. Edward Mullen, of Atkinson visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Winkler this week. Saturday she called on Grandma Winkler at her home in Emmet.
 Mr. and Mrs. Dan Scott and children, of Atkinson were Sunday visitors at the Joe Winkler home. Little Margaret Scott stayed until Monday with Leona and Florence Winkler.
 Everett Young and a friend, Robert Magnuson, of Hamilton, Mo., were up from Stockton, Kansas, to spend the Fourth with Everett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Young; the boys returned to their work Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Guy Beckwith and children; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckwith; Miss Mildred Findley; Franklin Hickman, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hickman were visitors at the Wm. Coleman home, at Phoenix, Sunday.
 Mrs. Alice Gion; Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Beltz and daughter Dorothy; Mrs. Lloyd Pierce and daughter Sigma, of Gandy, arrived Sunday night at the Ralph Young home for a short visit.
 Mr. and Mrs. Beltz and Dorothy Jean stayed Sunday night at the home of Mrs. Beltz' cousin, Mrs. Hazel Beckwith. Monday, all of the relatives, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Young and children were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Beckwith. Friday they went to Central City to visit relatives.
 Edward Winkler and his younger brother discovered a den of coyotes in their oats field Thursday afternoon. Edward went to Cal Tenborg's, a near by neighbor, for help; they assembled a number of shovels and set to work; the results were great, for they dug out six young coyotes. Still, this neighborhood is not a safe place to live, for yelping coyotes can be heard almost every night. With a few more helpers like Edward and the Tenborg boys, the remaining coyotes may soon be guests at a surprise party.
 Miss Minnie Seger returned home Monday evening after a few week's visit with relatives and friends at Norfolk; Wednesday she visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nietzke; Mrs. Nietzke was formerly Miss Esther Bick, with whom Miss Seger taught in the Hoskins public school two years ago. The greater part of her time was spent at the home of her sister, Mrs. Vern Keeney, and with her brother, Harold Seger.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckwith and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Beckwith left for Gregory, S. D., early Friday morning for a visit with Dean, who is pitching ball for the Sioux Falls Canaries. However, they did not get to see him play as he was scheduled for July 4th. The game played that day was between the Canaries and the Colored Vandykes; the score was 16 to 5 in favor of the Canaries. Mr. and Mrs. Vern Beckwith visited for a short time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Schultz, who formerly taught in the Atkinson public school. They went by way of Spencer and returned by way of Carns bridge and Bassett. The grasshoppers are very destructive around Gregory; it is said that those north of Gregory are infested with lice and are expected to die before going much farther. The crop conditions are much the same as they are here; a dandy rain fell there the first of the week.
