LOCAL NEWS

Miss Florence Leamy went to Pierce, Friday and celebrated the Fourth with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Leamy.

The O'Neill baseball team went to Albion last Saturday where they were scheduled to meet the Carter Lake, Omaha team at the Albion celebration. The heavy rain of the morning and the cloudy afternoon made it impossible to play ball. The Carter Lake team has been leading the Metropolitan league and are a fast bunch.

The 4th of July was a quiet day in O'Neill. No celebration was planned for O'Neill, but many of the citizens had planned to spend the day at the various celebrations and at the lakes and fishing places in this part of the state. A very fine rain began falling about seven o'clock and continued until about noon. Most of the celebrations that were planned for the day were cancelled and the people remained at home and enjoyed the rain and cloudy afternoon. As far as we are able to learn there were no accidents in or surrounding O'Neill of a serious nature as a result of handling fire crackers; no auto accidents have been reported for that day. The dance Saturday evening at Danceland was a success from every angle; a large crowd was present and enjoyed the excellent music.

Phil Ziener suffered the loss of his "Bell Hotel" tent and equipment by fire at Riverside Park last Friday; Phil had set up his tent and was getting ready for the celebration at the park on the following day; he was in the act of filling his gasoline stove when the five-gallon can he was using burst into flames; it is thought that the shaking of the can on the side of the car in the hot sun caused gas to form which ignited as soon as it came in contact with air. Phil gathered a new outfit and continued business as planned.

THE IDLHOOR SERVED SEVERAL SOCIAL AFFAIRS

The Idlhour is proving itself a very popular place for dinners and club affairs.

The Tes Trams had a French treat party, Wednesday of last week. Saturday night little Miss Mary Mellor entertained a group of out of town guests.
