IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF HOLT COUNTY, NEBRASKA
In the Matter of the Application of Sadie Snell as Administratrix of the Estate of Roy E. Snell, Deceased, for License to Sell Real Estate.
ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE
Now, on this 10th day of December, 1937, Sadie Snell, Administratrix of the estate of Roy E. Snell, deceased, having presented her petition under oath praying for license to sell the following described real estate of the said Roy E. Snell:
The Southwest Quarter (SW $\frac{1}{4}$) of Section Four (4), Township Twenty-eight (28), Range Ten (10), West of the 6th P. M., Holt county, Nebraska, or a sufficient amount thereof to bring the sum of Two Thousand One Hundred Fifty Six dollars (\$2156.00), for the payment of debts allowed against said estate, and allowances and costs of administration, for the reason that there is not a sufficient amount of personal property in the possession of said Sadie Snell, Administratrix, belonging to said estate, to pay said debts, allowances, and costs.
It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me at chambers in the city of O'Neill, in said County, on the 17th day of January, 1938, at the hour of ten o'clock A. M., to show cause, if any there be, why a license should not be granted to said Sadie Snell, Administratrix, to sell so much of the above-described real estate of said deceased as shall be necessary to pay said debts and expenses.
It is further ordered that a copy of this order be served upon all persons interested in said estate by causing the same to be published for three successive weeks in The Frontier, a newspaper printed and published in said County of Holt.
ROBERT R. DICKSON,
31-3 Judge.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES
We are very proud of the achievements of the Girl's Glee club this semester under the direction of Miss Duffy. The members of the Glee club are as follows: Dorothea Bachman, Doris Bellar, La Vern Borg, Dolores Claussen, Bonnie Kurtz, Maybelle Osenbaugh, Betty Puckett, Roxey Puckett, Violet June Riley, Eileen Robertson, Lois Jean Robertson, Rachel Salmons, Ina Mae Worth, Victoria Worth.
The students and faculty hope that you will have a joyous Christmas.
The upper grades presented a well prepared operetta in the auditorium last Thursday afternoon and evening.
The staff of the high school paper, "Blue and White," presented the students with a Christmas issue yesterday just before we adjourned for the Christmas vacation. The students are very proud of their paper and sincerely strive to improve it with each issue.
Martha Switzer has been spending some time in the library preparing some bibliographies of our books of fiction and history which will be posted later on the bulletin board. These are intended to be of help to the student for outside reading.
The Civics class has been studying government social problems among which one of the outstanding discussions was on the old age pension and unemployment insurance provided for by the recent Social Security legislation.
In the theoretical division of the shop the students are delving into electricity, proper wiring methods, repair work and trouble shooting, a very interesting course for students to follow up.
Nearing the close of the first semester the History class are completing their work books and book reports which follow up their text book work on Rome and its possessions. The use of the illustrated lecture last week makes completion much easier for the work book.
The Normal Training music class members were learning the instruments of the band and orchestra as heard over the P. A. system. The different instruments were displayed before the class in nearly exact size canvas display cards—visual education again plays a very important part in another class.
The Freshmen* have caught the prevalent Christmas spirit. In English 9 we find them composing Christmas poems.
In the American Literature class the Christmas stories in "The Sketch Book" by Washington Irving furnish interesting and appropriate reading material for the Christmas season.
