entitled: "In the Matter of the Acquiring Title to Blocks 53 and 54 in McCafferty's Addition to the City of O'Neill, Nebraska by The School District of O'Neill, in the County of Holt in the State of Nebraska through the right of eminent domain," whereby it is sought to acquire Blocks 53 and 54 in McCafferty's Addition to the City of O'Neill, Nebraska, for general school purposes by the exercise of the right of eminent domain.

And it appearing that appraisers having been heretofore appointed by this Court herein to assess the damages that may be sustained by reason of the taking of such property, have fixed the 16th day of February, A. D., 1938, at the hour of ten o'clock A. M. in the office of the County Judge in the Court House in the City of O'Neill, Holt county, Nebraska, as the time and place for hearing on the matter of the assessment of such damages and as the time and place for the assessment of such damages following said hearing.

And it further appearing by affidavit of a member of the Board of Education of said School District that the residence of the following persons who own or have any interest in said described real estate, to-wit: W. R. Butler, Trustee; Elsie Butler; Ethel Butler; Matt Serk; T. C. Cannon; Nellie Smith and E. C. Coon, are unknown.

And it further appearing that this Court on the 24th day of December, A. D., 1937, entered the following order:

It is, therefore, hereby ordered that hearing on the petition filed in this case and the actual assessment of the damages sustained by reason of the taking of the property involved herein shall be had on the 16th day of February, A. D., 1938, at the hour of ten o'clock A. M., in the office of the County Judge in the Court House in the City of O'Neill, in the County of Holt in the State of Nebraska. It is further ordered that notice of the time and place of such hearing and of the assessment of damages shall be given the City of O'Neill, Nebraska, and B. T. Winchell, County Treasurer, by serving upon the Mayor of said City and upon said B. T. Winchell, County Treasurer, a certified copy of this order, and that notice be given W. R. Butler, Trustee; Elsie Butler; Ethel Butler; Matt Serk; T. C. Cannon; Nellie Smith and E. C. Coon by publication for a period of not less than thirty days in The Frontier, a legal newspaper printed at O'Neill, Nebraska, the last publication to be at least ten days before the day of hearing.

You and each of you are required to be present at the time and place fixed by said order if you desire to make objection to these proceedings or if you desire to be heard upon the question of the amount of damage you will suffer by reason of such taking. If you fail to appear at such time and place the application will be granted and the amount of damage fixed by such appraisers will be final.

By the Court: C. J. MALONE, County Judge. 33-6 (County Court Seal)

Standard Oil Dealers Handle Quaker State

The Quaker State Oil Refining corporation has announced the appointment of the Standard Oil company as distributors of Quaker State products in Nebraska. This new distributorship becomes effective Feb. 18. On and after that date, motorists can buy Quaker State Motor Oils and greases of Standard Oil dealers in Nebraska. The many other retail outlets already established will continue to sell Quaker State products. This addition to the widely recognized line of quality motor oils sold by Standard dealers serves as an added convenience to Nebraska motorists.

Lincoln Daily Journal $4 Year By Mail 10c Week By Carrier

People paying 25c a week spend $13.00 a year. Times are hard and money is scarce. Everyone must save. The Lincoln Journal will help you. The Bee-News suspension leaves but one other large morning daily in the state besides The State Journal. It leaves but one other large Sunday paper in the state besides The Sunday Journal and Star. The State Journal has been serving the territory between Omaha and Denver for the past seventy years.

The Lincoln Journal sells for one to five dollars a year less than any other big state morning daily, and is priced as low as day late afternoon papers. With the Lincoln Journal you practically get the Sunday free, for the other big morning paper charges as much for daily only as The Journal does including Sunday. By mail in Nebraska and North Kansas, three months Daily $1.25, with Sunday $1.50; a year Daily $4.00, with Sunday $5.00. Or by carrier boy 10c a week for daily, 15c daily and Sunday. The Lincoln Journal has openings for carriers on morning, evening and Sunday paper routes in many towns.

If Secretary Wallace wants his department to do something really worth while he might try plowing under the Big Apple.

BRIEFLY STATED

John Gaughenbaugh returned last Thursday night from Excelsior Springs, Mo., where he had spent the past two months enjoying the mineral baths at that popular resort. John says that he was getting along fine but got lonesome for the familiar faces in the old home town and had to come back.

Roberta Arbuthnot, Laura Burke, Evelyn Stannard and Margaret Joyce entertained forty-eight ladies with a dinner at the Golden last Monday evening and with bridge after dinner. Although the evening was very disagreeable it did not detract any from the enjoyment of the participants at this, one of the classiest parties of the season.

William McKinney, who was arrested a week ago last Saturday charged with the theft of some cattle from Harry Van Fleet, living north of Atkinson, had a preliminary hearing in county court last Monday and was bound over to the district court. Bail was fixed at $1,000 for his appearance in court. He had not furnished bond up to Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Meals of Valdez, Alaska, were in the city last Saturday visiting old time friends. Mr. and Mrs. Meals had been in Atkinson visiting Mr. Meals' brother, George Meals and family, and his mother, Mrs. A. J. Meals, who has been visiting there for the past year. Mr. and Mrs. Owen Meals were to leave Sunday for their northern home.

Last Friday evening the Misses Margaret Ellen and Mary Louise Reka, Daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Reka, entertained seventeen of their young friends at their home. The young folks enjoyed Bingo and they were treated to a very delicious luncheon, which, it is needless to say, the young folks thoroughly enjoyed. The young guests, decided that the Misses Reka are exceptionally good entertainers.
