

Ferry Boat Passengers Cool Their Heels

An ice jam which formed in the Hudson river off Newburgh, N. Y., trapped the ferryboat Dutchess with 20 passengers aboard for five hours. The ferryboat was bound from Beacon, N. Y., and only a change of tide allowed it to work free and dock.

"Chinese" White Boy Comes Home

Fung Kuok Young, aged Chinese restaurateur, of New York greets his white foster son, Fung Kuok Young, Jr., (left) on the latter's arrival from China, where he has spent the past 17 years. The boy was born Joseph Rinehart, son of an American soldier. He was signed over to the Chinese when a baby and sent to China, where he was educated and brought up a Chinese. He speaks no English yet.

NEW BEACH WEAR

Something new in beach wear is this imported bongay in which pretty Miss Connie Keane is seen on Tahitia beach at Miami, Fla. The wide-brimmed hat is made of hand-woven straw in two colors. Many innovations in beach costumes are being seen at this winter resort in the 1938 season.

Supreme Court Appointee Cracks a Smile

Pictured above are three studies of a man who has fast learned the price of fame—as far as being photographed is concerned. The gentleman is former Solicitor General Stanley Reed, appointed by President Roosevelt to succeed retiring Justice George Sutherland on the Supreme court bench. At the left his profile is formal, but in the center he is beginning to loosen up. At the right the complete smile.

Poodle Selected New King of American Dogs

This arrogant-looking canine is "Ch. Fillicoc Rumpelstilskin, C. D.," a black standard poodle owned by Mrs. Milton Erlanger of New York city which was selected as the new king of America's pure-bred dogs at the recent American Kennel club show in New York city.

War Minister Inspects Guns

Leslie Hore-Belisha, British minister for war, peeps down the muzzle of a large-caliber gun during his visit to the Woolwich arsenal recently when he inspected guns and other fighting equipment which England is rushing to completion in its rearmament program. The program costing many billions of dollars includes the strengthening of all branches of Britain's arms—navy, army and air forces. It includes also the training of civilian population to protect itself against attacks

Scenes and Persons in the Current News

COWBOY LOU

Du Pont Heiress and Husband

Presiding at Utility Trial

United States Circuit Justice Florence Allen, shown as she presided over the three-judge court hearing the recent TVA-Utility company case at Chattanooga, Tenn. Judge Allen was prominently mentioned for the vacancy on the Supreme court of the United States for which President Roosevelt nominated Solicitor General Stanley Reed.

HAS "WHISTLING" EYE

Does a Big Job

Advertising of canned fruits and vegetables created demand, produced competition, made large and economical production possible, provided markets for the farmers and owners of orchards, and jobs for many thousands of people. The consumer profits by better quality and lower prices. Without advertising, these things could not have happened.
