

Here's a Little Boxer Rebellion

It looks like a rebellion of some sort, but it is really only a battle royal among kids at Palm Beach, Fla., for the purpose of getting in shape for the high-chair championships in Miami. The young entrants are from the Sun and Surf club. Notice the two young ladies mixing it up at the left.

Scenes and Persons in the Current News

1—Gov. George D. Aiken of Vermont munching an apple before he addressed the annual dinner of the National Republican club in New York at which he urged party leaders: "Forget your hatred of President Roosevelt—stop crying every time he makes a move." 2—Dramatic rescue of a baby from flooded home in Mt. Clemens, Mich. 3—Sen. Robert J. Bulkley of Ohio pointing to proposed superhighways which would traverse the continent and call for an expenditure of from six to eight billion dollars.

Yesteryear Charm in Crocheted Bedspread

Here's an heirloom popcorn bedspread that's going to lend richness to your bedroom—just see how effectively that striking popcorn motif is set off by the lacy mesh background. It's fascinating work—crocheting the individual squares of durable string and once you've learned one you won't want to stop until all the squares are finished and joined

Navy Launches New Destroyer

The navy's newest destroyer, the 1,500-ton Maury, launched recently at San Francisco. Second naval vessel to be built privately on the west coast since the World war, the Maury was christened by Miss Virginia Lee Maury Werth, great-granddaughter of the ship's namesake, the late Lieut. Commander Matthew Fontaine Maury.

NO ARMS FOR HIM

Frank Littell of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, student at Union Theological seminary, New York, who represented the National Council of Methodist Youth before the house naval committee on the United States naval building program, where he attacked President Roosevelt's request for increased military expenditures as "anti-social action" and said the young men he represented "will not bear arms" in event of war.

Portals of Pacific Exposition

Main entrance gates of the 1939 Golden Gate International exposition on Treasure island in San Francisco bay where millions are expected to enter next year are shown in this sketch by Artist Louis Rothe. Towering above the exposition is the 400-foot Tower of the Sun.

AIR PIONEER

Vilhjalmur Stefansson, noted scientist and explorer who recently predicted that the world's air routes will soon be laid out in straight lines instead of the present curves. Pointing to the ultimate necessity of flying directly northward from the United States to Paris, he said that such a route would save at least 1,000 miles from the present course.

PRINCESS BEATRIX

Every Inch a Champion

From the tip of his nose to the tip of his tail, Daro of Maridor, 11-month-old english setter, is a champion. He was judged the best dog of the sixty-second annual dog show of the Westminster Kennel club at Madison Square Garden, New York. Handler Charles Palmer is shown with him. The dog is owned by D. W. Ellis of East Longmeadow, Mass.

PATTY WINS AGAIN

Miss Patty Berg, nineteen-year-old Minneapolis golfer, with the Grace Doherty trophy which she won for the third consecutive year as she defeated Jane Cothran Jameson of West Palm Beach in the finals of the Miami Biltmore women's golf championship at Coral Gables, Fla.

Here's Rugged Road to Beauty

An applicant for the course at the free public beauty clinic recently opened in a neighborhood settlement in New York city is being measured before she starts on the rugged road to beauty. Experts tell the ladies where the avoirdupois should come off and how to take it off.

"Papoose Plane" for Air Mail Service

Photographed from an accompanying airplane is the Mayo composite plane during a trial flight near Rochester, England. This radical departure in aeronautics comprises two planes, the Maia, or mother plane, and the Mercury, the smaller ship which rides the mother's back like an Indian papoose. In service the Mercury will be loaded with mail and carried far out over the Atlantic by the Maia, whence it will be released to continue its flight to the United States.

Alpine Troops Guard Brenner Pass

The splendor of the Alpine beauty silhouettes these guardians of Italy's frontier in the famous Brenner pass which leads to Austria. These troops were demonstrating Il Duce's might to impress on Austria that Italy backed up Germany in Hitler's recent coup which brought Nazi ministers into the Austrian cabinet.
