BRIEFLY STATED

Miss Constance Biglin celebrated a birthday party last Friday evening by entertaining eight of her young friends at her home. Various games were played and a delicious luncheon served. The young folks say they had a delightful time.

Monsignor McNamara celebrated a birthday last Tuesday and to properly celebrate the event he gave each pupil in St. Mary's academy a box of candy. The students were delighted with the gift and they were unanimous in wishing Monsignor many more happy birthdays.

Hayden Brothers store in Omaha, for fifty-three years one of the stalwart business enterprises of that city, is voluntarily retiring from business. They have rented their store building to the J. C.
Penney company, who will occupy it as soon as the present stock is disposed of.

Walter Fick, the Inman light heavyweight champion of the Omaha Golden Gloves contest, lost a decision to Joe Murdock, colored Detroit fighter, at Chicago last Tuesday night. The papers say it was a mauling contest all the way thru and Fick acquitted himself with credit.

Woods Cones, pioneer banker and lawyer of Pierce, died at his home in that city Monday, the funeral being held Wednesday. Mr. Cones was well known in this city where he had frequently appeared in district court. He had been engaged in the banking business at Pierce for over fifty years.

On March 1, some of the highway patrol districts in the state were consolidated. In this section of the state the office at Madison has been abandoned and the work will be handled by the patrolmen stationed at West Point and O'Neill.

Governor Cochran announced Wednesday that he would again be a candidate for the democratic nomination for governor at the coming primary election and that he would file shortly. This, we think is the first time a governor of the state has filed for the third successive term for the office of governor.

March was ushered in Tuesday as a lamb, mild and meek. Will the old time-worn adage that when March comes in like a lamb it will go out like a lion, hold true. If so, we can look for a lot of nasty weather the latter part of the month. The snow is all gone and the ground has absorbed all the moisture which puts it in pretty good shape for spring planting.

The O'Neill office of the state employment service was closed on Feb. 22, and hereafter this will be looked after by the Norfolk office, according to word received from there by this office. They suggest that applicants and employees write to them at Norfolk, if they wish to transact business. Quite for driving an automobile while in-year. The arrest was made by one of the state patrolmen. It is driving, was tried to a jury before the county court.

Harry Hiscock, who has been a resident of the northeastern part of the county for the past forty-five years, was an O'Neill visitor last Friday. Harry had a sale of his personal effects last week and was to leave the middle of this week for Oregon where he expects to make his future home. He has a son who has been in Oregon the past two years and he likes the country fine and Harry determined to try it. He said that if he was not satisfied, however, he would come back to old Holt. Harry's many friends hope that he will find prosperity and contentment in his new home.
