

FUNERAL RITES FOR MRS. ENGLEHAUPT HELD WEDNESDAY

Succumbs To Heart Ailment At O'Neill Hospital. Had Lived In Holt County 57 Years.

Mrs. Anna Malloy Englehaup died at the O'Neill hospital last Monday morning after an illness of several weeks of heart trouble at the age of 71 years, 7 months and 16 days. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from the Presbyterian church, Rev. Arthur Sengpiel of Chambers officiating, and burial in Prospect Hill cemetery.

Anna Molly Van Cleve was born at Van Meter, Iowa, on October 27, 1866. In 1881 she came to this county with her parents, coming here from Diller, Johnson county, Nebr. On November 27, 1884, she was united in marriage to Michael Englehaup, the ceremony being performed in this city. This union was blessed with thirteen children, ten of whom, five sons and five daughters, with her husband, are left to mourn the passing of a kind and devoted wife and mother.

The children are: Newton J., Lawrence, Kans.; Michael R., of Crook, Colo.; William A., Sunnyvale, Cal.; Nellie M. Bodewig, of Unity, Oregon; Barbara A. Van Cleve, Oregon; Alice Bowering, Doty, Wash.; Oliver F. Bartlett, Wendall, Idaho; Violet H. Stewart, Amelia; Thomas F., Chambers; Arthur C., Chambers. In addition to her immediate family she leaves fifty-eight grandchildren and thirteen great grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Alice Crawford of Charleston, Nebr., who was here for the funeral.

Mrs. Englehaup was a resident of this county for most of her life. After her marriage they lived in this city for one year and in 1885 they moved to a homestead he had taken in the southwestern part of the county. In 1893 they moved to Idaho where they remained only for one year and then came back to this city and made their residence here for six years, moving to their farm in the southwestern part of the county in 1900, which had been their home since that time. She was one of the real old pioneers of the county and had a host of friends in the southwestern part of the county who will regret to learn of her passing.

Two Local Girls Named To Public School Faculty

At a meeting of the school board last Thursday night, Ira L. George of Osmond, was elected to teach history in the O'Neill public schools and as band instructor.

At the same meeting Loretta Enright, of this city, was elected to teach the Second grade for the coming school year, and Miss Elizabeth Henry, daughter of Mrs. Birdie Henry, was elected to teach the First grade.

The Frontier has always maintained that O'Neill girls, when they are qualified, should be employed to teach the O'Neill public schools and the board should not go outside the city to find teachers when competent teachers can be found here at home. We are glad to see that the members of the school board are becoming convinced that there was merit in our contention.

L. G. Gillespie Files As Legislative Candidate

L. G. Gillespie paid his filing fee into the office of the county treasurer last Saturday and on Monday filed with the secretary of state as a candidate for member of the unicameral legislature from this district. The district is at present represented by Frank J. Brady of Atkinson, and he has filed for reelection. Mr. Gillespie represented this county in the lower house in the 1935 session and he made a good record as a lawmaker. He was a candidate for the unicameral two years ago, but was defeated by Frank J. Brady.

The Weather

The weather has been the past week and a little dry. We had .43 of an inch of moisture here last Thursday and Thursday evening, but the rain did not cover a very wide area and small grain over the county is in need of rain. Corn is doing fine, but farmers say that small grain in most of the county is needing rain badly. A nice shower fell at noon today and rain clouds are still hovering over us. The precipitation was .27 of an inch.

Following is the weather chart for the week:

	High	Low	Mois.
June 9	89	60
June 10	82	55	.43
June 11	70	44
June 12	78	50
June 13	90	63
June 14	90	63
June 15	79	55

Total precipitation for June, .54; since Jan. 1, 1938, 10.47 inches.

SOUTHWEST BREEZES

By Romaine Saunders
A bud pageant would be a fitting celebration of the transformation rains have brought about.

The E. E. Young family were favored with a visit last week from Mr. Young's parents, who came up from their home at Dresden, Kans.

Having retired from business in Emmet, Lloyd James has been managing affairs at the ranch down here since Alfred was confined in a hospital at Burwell.

Wolf hounds from off to the southwest made a raid at the James ranch and secured the persons of four turkey hens that were about to come off of the nests with their hatch.

Getting the equipment in working order for the summer's go in harvest and hay field at the Watson ranch entailed a trip to O'Neill last Thursday by the senior Mr. Watson to secure some repairs.

The words of a Texas couple ought to be worth something. After more than 81 years of life together, he at 109, she at 105, have this to offer: "Have unwavering faith in God, work hard and be moderate in all things. Don't worry about money."

The ministers of distilled and brewed liquid propaganda have spent one hundred million in newspaper advertising to tell us they have the real fountain of youth and the cigarette manufacturers would have us believe that they have the fruit of the tree of life in their particular brand. Cruel realities disclose the toper with a face like a canned tomato, and the cigarette smoker a cough like a consumptive.

Neither Dr. Roosevelt, Herr Hitler, Mahatma Gandhi, the Oxford Group, Italy's bogus Julius Ceasar nor Pat McManus up at O'Neill have been able to concoct out of the apothecary's shop of reform a potent pill for the world-wide headache.

An engineer and fireman stopped their locomotive in a mountainous region of Colorado and rescued a deer by killing a mountain lion with a coal pick. That out-classes my own encounter with the snake which two meadow larks were doing their best to subdue.

With the graduates of a Colorado school flaunting as a motto, "PWA, here we come," and two Nebraska college bred young men injured, one fatally, in Idaho under circumstances as reported indicating they were traveling in a box car, a screw must be loose in the educational system.

Superannuated citizens in whom visions had been inspired of rounding out their pilgrimage in opulence with a $200 pension find it has become a stipend of little more than $17. It is not likely to exceed that amount, yet many will continue to be hoodwinked into supporting political demagogues who promise big things.

"What fools these mortals be" was a discovery made in Shakespeare's day. And we get no better fast, as verified by a 65-year-old member of the official White House group taking on a 25-year-old bride, and a New York matron embracing with a kiss the young devil who made her daughter an expectant mother and then killed her.

In 1918 Gen Pershing said to Gen. Foch: "I have come to say to you that the American people would be proud to be engaged in the greatest battle of history." Somehow these words don't seem quite so "hot" as they did 20 years ago. We thought we had a mission then to save civilization. Today it looks as if mighty little of it were worth saving.

We were favored Sunday with a visit from Mr. and Mrs. George Meals and George's mother, Mrs. Hannah Meals of Valdez, Alaska, who has spent the past year with her son and family on the farm near Atkinson. Mrs. Meals was for many years a resident of O'Neill, where she still retains the old home property, the Jack Meals place in the southeast part of town.

Considering myself more or less of a bogus farmer, when I look at the neighbors about me, those who have substantial land holdings, well stocked, good homes, money in the banks and their profitable ranching program having been built up by frugality and good horse sense—they are the ones who will have nothing to do with this whole triple-A proposition down at Washington.

Two riders came out of the west Friday, one on a raw bronc. At the bridge just down the road was an exhibition of horsemanship to induce the little dun-colored rascal to cross. Plugging, rearing and just plain bronc contrariness it stood braced against the bridge approach until the other horse yanked him across with a rope snubbed to the saddle horn. And the boys went on their way with an easy lope.

Awakening from the spree that involved many in the trek to the northwest, some going from here would like to be back on the old ranch in southwest Holt. When you bid goodbye to the open air, to the open sky, to the endless miles of verdant green where feed the herds of Hereford and Shorthorn, the matchless water from deep wells, the "sunset and evening star," the pink glow of early morning on the prairie, the charm of tinted bloom in radiant colors on hill and meadow, the sweep of winds, the mighty fury in the storm, neighbors, home, friends of a lifetime—what is there to go to?

MILO EPPENBAUGH IS DEAD OF ELEVEN MONTH OLD INJURY

Funeral Services Held At O'Neill Methodist Church Tuesday Afternoon.

Milo Eppenbaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Eppenbaugh living northeast of this city, died at his home last Sunday morning, at the age of 25 years, one month and seven days. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the M. E. church, Rev. A. J. May officiating and burial in Prospect Hill cemetery.

Milo Eppenbaugh was born on May 5, 1913, on the farm northeast of this city and had been a resident of the county all his life. He was a strong and rugged young man until he was thrown from a horse about eleven months ago, the horse falling back on him, and he never recovered from this injury, gradually growing weaker until death claimed him last Sunday morning.

Milo leaves his aged parents, five brothers and six sisters to mourn the passing of a kind and affectionate son and brother. The other members of the family are: Ruth Morgan, Hazel McClenahan, Pauline Leise and Fay Bailey, O'Neill; Ernest, Vern, Lyle, Earl, Lois, Doris and Dale, at home.

Father Isadore Dwyer Returns Here To Visit

Mrs. H. J. Birmingham, Mrs. W. J. Froelich and C. E. Stout drove to Omaha last Wednesday where they met Mr. Froelich and Father Isadore, who came out from Chicago that morning and they returned home that evening. Father Isadore Dwyer, C. P., who is now stationed at Sierra Madre, Cal., had been in Chicago and came out with Mr. Froelich for a couple of weeks visit with the old time friends in the old home town. Father Isadore is a brother of Mrs. C. E. Stout and an uncle of Mrs. Birmingham and Mrs. Froelich. He is spending his vacation here at the Froelich home.

During his years in the priesthood Father Isadore has spent several years holding missions in South America and in Mexico and came to the old home town to get a needed rest. There are not many now living here who knew Father Isadore when he was Richard F. Dwyer before he left the Michigan settlement to study for the priesthood. That was a good many years ago and those now here, who were then young lads like Father Isa-

PAYMENT OF OVERDUE TAXES NOW MEANS BIG SAVINGS IN INTEREST

Do you own real estate on which there are unpaid taxes long past due? If you do, you will be interested in this.

If paying these taxes on or before Dec. 31, 1938, you can save a good many dollars which otherwise will be charged against the property as interest on unpaid taxes.

For example, if your Holt county property is valued for tax purposes at two thousand dollars, and taxes have not been paid since 1930, you can save approximately $65 in interest which will be cancelled if you pay sometime within the next six months. Likewise, if your property is valued at approximately $8,000, the saving you can make by paying taxes now will be approximately $275.

By state law, interest is cancelled on all taxes delinquent on or prior to March 19, 1937. Interest is charged at seven per cent after that date, so the longer you wait

We had a short visit with Father Isadore the end of the week, and hope to have another before he leaves for his western home, as we knew him when he was a resident of the Michigan settlement, and we know that we would enjoy a good long visit.

Attend PCA Meeting At North Platte, Nebr.

James W. Rooney, secretary-treasurer of the O'Neill Production Credit association, returned Tuesday evening from attending a meeting of the Secretary-Treasurers and Boards of the Production Credit associations in western Nebraska, held at North Platte on Monday and Tuesday. Mr. Rooney was accompanied to the meeting by Dewey Schaffer of Emmet, A. U. Dix of Butte, M. F. Grable of O'Neill, and Otto Oberg of Ericson, members of the board of directors of the O'Neill association.

Mr. Rooney says that crops are fine between here and North Platte, except for a strip in Valley county, starting about 4 miles west of Ericson and covering a strip of country about four miles wide and twenty-four miles long, that was visited by a destructive hail storm last Thursday night.

Crops in the section of the storm were smashed into the ground, even pastures were ruined. Farmers in the stricken territory were cutting their ruined rye to try and save some of it for feed. He says that the hoppers are numerous and are liable to ruin crops unless something intervenes to get them out of the country.

Yantzi and will open for business Monday morning. An inventory of the stock will be taken Sunday.

Ted has been a resident of this city for five years and during that time has made a host of friends by his accommodating manner and pleasing personality. He has put in nine years working nights and decided to make a change, and thought O'Neill was a good place to start in business. The Frontier welcomes him to the ranks of O'Neill business men and hopes that his business career will be a successful one.

Eleven couples loaded with lots of good things to eat drove to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Porter last Sunday evening, taking possession for the evening as they deemed it necessary for Chauncey to properly celebrate his birthday anniversary. Cards were produced and the guests, as well as the host and hostess, were soon engaged in that good old fascinating game of pinocle, which was indulged in until time for the eats. About midnight all thoughtfully enjoyed the tempting viands that were spread for them. A good time is reported by all.
