A NEW DAY

Omaha World-Herald, June 18, 1938
The promptness with which action was taken in the Vernon Staskiewicz case is a recommendation of the sincerity of Nebraska brewers and beer distributors in their undertaking to enforce a standard of law observance and decency in the beer business.
Two agents of the state liquor commission were assaulted in the Staskiewicz place last Saturday morning.

They must be highly educated. They must be physically perfect and above all they must be gentlemen.

While Americans should be proud of these young men in these two great government institutions it must be remembered that they are trained for national defense and to be prepared in case of future wars.

Civil War Vets Plan Reunion
Many letters are being received in the Third district office asking for specific information about the program at Gettysburg and for information the following is passed on: "The 75th Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg will be celebrated from June 29 to July 6, 1938, at Gettysburg, Pa.

It is believed that upwards of 3,000 of these fine old men will attend, and they come from practically every state in the Union. This reunion will be the last, because the average age of these veterans is now ninety-four years and it is most befitting and generous on the part of our great Government to extend this privilege and opportunity for these men to meet once more before they are called to their final resting place. The official program starts on July 1, and will lend itself more to reuniting of direct descendants of leaders of war and peace time pursuits.

It will also be Governor's Day and most of the governors have agreed to be in attendance.

To Remain in Capitol 3 To 4 Weeks After Adjournment

The Third Nebraska congressional office in Washington will remain open about three or four weeks after adjournment so that a voluminous amount of work may be cleaned up. While some of the files will be moved to the Norfolk office about a week after adjournment, most of the files will remain in Washington longer so that there may be no interruption in the service to the district.

The trouble with pump priming is that too many people want to stand in front of the spout with a bucket and nobody wants to ride the handle.

Nothing is quite so restful as an adjourned congress.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sunday school at 10:00—C. E. Yantzi, superintendent.
Morning Worship at 11:00—Dr. James G. McMurtry will preach. Especially prepared music is to be rendered at this service.
Evening Service at 8:00—Dr. McMurtry will give most interesting exposition of the 23rd Psalm. The young people will furnish the music. The evening service is a union service.

All are invited.

H. D. Johnson, Pastor.

Mr. Sandall ACTS

In Nebraska, as in other states, laws are sometimes violated by a few of the thousands licensed to sell beer.

Owners of breweries and of distributing plants—as well as practically all retailers—operate in the public interest and in strict conformity with law.

The few who violate their privileges cast a reflection upon thousands employed in this highly scientific industry and upon those with millions invested in the business.

To make our attitude known, and to assist public officials, we have placed the public conduct rules of the industry in the hands of one man, with supreme authority. That man is Charles E. Sandall of York, Nebraska, former United States District Attorney.

Immediately upon taking office Mr. Sandall went into action. The following editorial from the Omaha World-Herald is typical of the statements of approval received from over the entire state:

"The promptness with which action was taken in the Vernon Staskiewicz case is a recommendation of the sincerity of Nebraska brewers and beer distributors in their undertaking to enforce a standard of law observance and decency in the beer busness. . . . The inference is perfectly plain that tavern keepers who fail to maintain orderly and decent places can hope for neither support nor sympathy from those who supply their stock."

As Nebraska citizens in an industry which is one of the state's largest taxpayers, we are highly pleased with the reception of our action. This reception is typified by such comments as the following:

"May we congratulate you on the success of the development of your organization and may we go on record as anxious to co-operate with your program."—North Platte Daily Telegraph.

"We are glad indeed to see the brewing industry take such a forward step in inaugurating the promotion plan as it has been outlined."—North Platte Daily Bulletin.

"The State knows Charlie Sandall as a two-listed prosecutor of liquor law violators. We had come to associate him with the dyed-in-the-wool opponents of liquor in any form, but he clears that up with the statement that he was convinced during his term as federal district attorney that prohibition is impossible of enforcement."—Hastings Daily Tribune.

"The brewers and beer distributors of Nebraska have embarked upon a praiseworthy effort at self-regulation under the direction of Charles E. Sandall, one-time militant prosecutor of the prohibition era. . . . It is a movement within the industry which deserves commendation and will be watched with interest by the entire state."—Falls City Journal.

"I am in hearty accord with your plan. As long as we have beer in Nebraska, let's keep it just as clean as we can possibly do so. Not only the brewers and distributors, but the thinking public have a duty to perform in this regard."—J. H. Sweet, Editor, Nebraska News-Press.

"Your effort is indeed in the interests of good citizenship and is the most important news of its kind since repeal."—Francis H. McDermott, Vice-President, First National Bank of Omaha.

"Sandall probably is one of the best men for the post and we are willing to co-operate with any agency which apparently will improve the situation."—Rev. Herbert L. Ford, Nebraska Anti-Liquor League Superintendent.

We are happy to get expressions like this—more of them by every mail. We publicly renew our pledge to conduct our business in a highly acceptable way.
