AND HERE IS THE PROOF

One of the world's finest beers is made right here in the middle-west. Four times Storz Beer has entered International Competition and four times has won the World's Championship. Storz Beer was awarded the Grand Prix and the highest award at the Paris Exposition; the Grand Prix and highest award at Brussels, Belgium; the Gold Medal and highest award at the Lewis and Clark Exposition and the Gold Medal and highest award at the Trans-Mississippi Exposition.

All these awards were made in competition with the finest beers from all over the world, so when it comes to quality, Storz really has the proof.
