Bill of Goods Sold

By Sidney Hillman

Sidney Hillman, president of the Amalgamated Clothing Worker's union, has been to Washington and sold a bill of goods—literally. He took an order for 10 million dollars worth of coats, vests and pants from Harry Hopkins, WPA administrator.

Why limit it to the garment industries? They have actually suffered less in the depression than other industries. The government finds employment in the clothing trades is off only 15 per cent from a year ago.

Many a self-supporting man during these trying times has had to get along with less than his neighbor on relief has had. What will be the effect when the one who cannot afford a new suit this year sees his idle neighbor dressed up in the Hillman-Hopkins garments?

STANNARD'S

Our Lantern Supply
Is Getting Low
Get One Before They Are All Gone!

You will find this lantern very useful. It is two lights in one, a long range focusing light in front and a broad beam flood light on top, both operated by a single switch on the back of the lamp.

This lantern uses standard flashlight batteries and bulbs, so it is something that will serve you for a long time, and that will not be useless when the first set of batteries are used up.

A YEARS ADVANCE SUBSCRIPTION ENTITLES YOU TO ONE FREE!

Anyone who pays a years advance subscription to The Frontier, will receive one of these lanterns free, as a gift. The offer is open to anyone. Don't fumble in the dark or take chances with matches. Play safe by letting one of the Kwik Lite lanterns light your way.

If your subscription is paid in advance and you do not care to advance it further at this time you may have the lantern free by merely paying 40c to cover the cost of the two batteries and bulbs required to operate it. No other obligation.
