MEEK AND VICINITY

The Annual Group gathering of several Sunday Schools was held July 31 at the Johnson grove at Joy. A large crowd attended and much interest was shown. Harry Udd, Omaha, District Superintendent of the Midwest District, gave two very interesting addresses. Several others gave interesting talks, among them were Miss Parshell of Atkinson, Mrs. Paul Nelson of Paddock Union. Several beautiful and inspiring songs were sung. A solo by Mrs. A. L. Borg of Paddock Union accompanied on the piano by Miss Lois Jean Robertson and one by Miss Frances Spindler accompanied by Mrs. Glen Spindler on the piano, they were from the Mission at Atkinson. Several groups sang and one of the children gave readings. It was all very good and it made one feel that it was good to have been there. A basket dinner was served by the ladies, to which all did ample justice.
