HOW TO SEW

by Ruth Wyeth Spears

THIS Christmas it is not just the children who will receive dolls as gifts. Doll collecting is becoming a popular hobby for grown-ups. The most valued dolls are of whatever materials may be at hand and reflect the individuality of the person who made them. Rag babies of all kinds have an important place in such a collection. You will enjoy making the one shown here. Book 2 offered herewith also offers many suggestions for making and dressing dolls from scraps of materials.

If you want to make the stocking doll, clip these directions and keep them as this doll is not in either of the books offered here. The head and body are made of the foot of the stocking cut off where the heel begins, as shown. Stuff this part with cotton or bits of soft clean rags, sew across the bottom and then wind a thread around so that the toes of the stocking will form the head. Fold the leg and arm pieces lengthwise, stitch, turn and then stuff. Wrap thread around to make divisions for hands and feet. Sew the legs to the body, then add the skirt. The arms are sewn on top of the sweater piece and the sweater collar is turned down over this sewing.

NOTE: Mrs. Spears' Book 2—Gifts, Novelties and Embroidery, has helped thousands of women to use odds and ends of materials and their spare time to make things to sell and to use. Book 1—Sewing for the Home Decorator is full of inspiration for every homemaker. These books make delightful Christmas gifts. Mrs. Spears will autograph them on request. Crazypatch quilt leaflet is included free with every order for both books. Order by number, 25 cents each book. Address: Mrs. Spears, 210 S. Desplaines St., Chicago, Ill.

Uncle Phil Says:

And Even That Weakens Half of our pastimes are pursued to escape boredom. It requires intelligence to fight against it.

Every day, stop and think whether that day is going to be part of an unpleasant past.

That's Sincerity A man doesn't marry a woman to reform her. He likes her just as she is.

Say pleasant things about people. At least 8 per cent, under the law of averages, ought to be carried to them.

Close to Disaster A ship should not rely upon one small anchor, nor life upon a single hope.

You never lack a goal to strive toward in building a rock garden, for it never quite satisfies you.

Wise and Otherwise

Walkers are saying that a pedestrian crossing is a dash between two dotted lines.

Shopkeepers call it "sales resistance." The rest of us think it's the triumph of mind over matter.

Even Solomon with a thousand wives must have wondered at times if he wouldn't have been happier if he had married somebody else.

You never can tell. Many a half-baked millionaire has more crust than dough.

"What's wrong with the girl of today?" asks a poster. Perhaps that she wasn't born yesterday.

In Spirit of Love

You will find as you look back upon your life that the moments that stand out, the moments when you have really lived, are the moments when you have done things in a spirit of love.—Henry Drummond.

New Dresses for Holidays

THESE two designs bring you brand new fashions for mid-season dresses you'll thoroughly enjoy wearing to all the luncheons and festive afternoons of the holidays. They're so easy and simple to do that you can finish them in plenty of time.

Drape-As-You-Please Dress.

This is not only new—it's the very newest, a real sensation, and so easy to make! It is made with a straight back and bias cut front that you can wear with the fullness at the sides, fullness all round, like a dirndl, or fullness concentrated in front, as the picture shows it. Then fasten the belt around your middle, creating a soft, bloused line above! The shirred shoulders and square neckline are just as flattering and smart as they can be! For this, choose silk crepe, velvet or thin wool.

Girdle-and-Panel-in-One Dress.

Of course that midriff section isn't really a girdle—it just looks like one, and the way it is extended into the front skirt panel simply makes the pounds melt from your appearance. This is a beautifully slenderizing dress, and so elegant-looking, designed with such good taste! It fits beautifully. Gathers above the middle section and below the shoulder give just the right amount of fullness to the bodice front. You'll feel so grand, and look so slim, if you make this of velvet, wool broadcloth, satin or silk crepe.

The Patterns.

No. 1647 is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20 and 40. Size 14 re-
