This office is in receipt of a letter from our old friend E. E. Cole, of Star, enclosing a renewal of his subscription for another year. Mr. Cole also requests three extra copies of each issue that contains the history of Holt county new running in these columns. He says, "I know a few old settlers now living many miles away to whom I wish to send the papers. In reading the history of the early days in the county it brought to mind the old times when Tommy Dillet and I arrived here in 1882, when we had to sleep with a rifle handy and with locks on our horse barn. I sure enjoy reading of the early days."

Ambrose Biglin, accompanied by Miss Constance Biglin drove to Sioux City on Saturday, where they met Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Froelich, who were returning from a visit to the West coast and in Chicago. Miss Marjorie Lyons also accompanied them to Sioux City, where she remained to enter St. Vincent's hospital as a student nurse.
Mr. and Mrs. Chet Oursland and children drove to Volin, S. D., on Saturday and visited at the home of relatives. On Sunday, Mr. Oursland's brother, John Oursland, was instantly killed in an auto accident. This is the second tragic death in Mr. Oursland's family, within a short space of time, his sister having been killed in an auto accident about four months ago.
The Holt County Independent installed the past week a new linotype in their office. The new machine is one of the latest on the market, A Bluestreak 32 and costs a small fortune. It takes nerve to put the amount of money necessary to purchase a machine like this in these kind of times, but The Frontier hopes that the new machine will be a source of profit and joy to the owners.

Another coyote hunt will be held next Sunday afternoon north of this city, starting at 2 o'clock. This hunt will start eight miles north of O'Neill, on the Highway at the Alfred Drayton place, then north to the county road; thence east to the Agee school house; then south to the old Gaghagan corner; thence west to the Highway.
Last Sunday they captured one coyote, four getting away. Next Sunday Norb Uhl will be at the Deep Rock filling station with his truck and will take anyone from citizens in their communities and can be expected to make a very credible record among Nebraska's outstanding boys and girls. Our best wishes are extended for their continued future success.

The Holt county gricultural conservation association reports that they have received payments on the 1938 farm program in the amount of $134,233.03 and on the 1938 range program in the amount of $9,188.07. 105 corn loans on the 1938 crop have been made to date for a total of $29,351.90. Out of this amount $1,451.93 has been paid to the Holt County Treasurer for personal taxes.

Alpha Club
Alpha club met with Mrs. Helmer Widfeldt Wednesday afternoon, February 8.
Mrs. Joe Donohoe was voted on and taken in as a new member.
Mrs. Ed Boshart gave a review of the National Mother of 1938, who was Mrs. Grace Noll Crowell, which was very good.
The club members chose sides taking the affirmative and negative in discussing "Old fashioned morals in a new fashioned world." Some fine points were brought out. The general conclusion was all laws based on the first laws or the Ten Commandments.
Lunch was served by the hostess.

Holt County 4-H Club Members Given Awards
Four members of Holt county 4-H clubs received state awards this week as the high ranking individuals in counties with the largest enrollments.
Holt county ranked "number one" in Nebraska for having the largest number of boys and girls enrolled in beef cattle 4-H clubs. A total of 79 boys and 14 girls enrolled in this project in 1938. Knox county was second with 69 boys and 12 girls.
As a result of the awards the Crete Mills presented to Ray Forbes, of Amelia, a free trip to the State 4-H club week in Lincoln and 100 lbs. of feed to each of the following: Wayne Hoffman, of Atkinson; Dick Shearer, of Stuart; and Harlan Dierking, of Amelia.
In addition to these awards Carol Summerer, of Ewing, receives a free trip to club week from the Burlington railroad for his leadership qualities and Margery Rees, of Amelia, will receive a free trip to the Conservation Camp at Seward, from the Federal Cartridge Company.
These boys and girls are all deserving of such honors and are recognized as outstanding young
