American Turf Champ Gets Rub-Down

Seabiscuit, American turf champion, is Charles S. Howard's chief hope for the $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap in March. The Biscuit was handicap favorite in 1937, but finished behind Rosemont. SAFETY TALKS

Can It Be the Climate?

THERE'S something about western climate — ! But Rocky Mountain and Pacific Coast chambers of commerce will file an indignant disclaimer that the climate had anything to do with this:

The National Safety council's report on 1937 shows a solid block of 11 western states, excepting Utah, had higher accident death rates for the year than any other group of states in the country. Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Nevada, Arizona, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado and New Mexico — in each of these states an average of more than 100 persons, per 100,000 of population, suffered accident deaths in 1937. Utah barely escaped the "100 or more" group with an average of 99.4.

Florida (chambers of commerce please note) and Delaware were the only other states with an average of 100 or more accident deaths per 100,000 of population last year. Florida's average was 105.6, and Delaware's 105.7. Nevada's average of 137.6 deaths was the highest reported by any state. Rhode Island's average of 55.9 deaths was the lowest.

NEW AMBASSADOR

'Eleazar Goes to Town'—At Dartmouth

Carlos Martine Pereira e Sousa, Brazilian ambassador to the United States, whose appointment was announced recently by President Vargas, will arrive in the U. S. late in March to take over his new duties.

Entitled "Eleazar Goes to Town," this snow sculpture won first place at the Dartmouth college winter carnival recently. It portrays the founder of Dartmouth college, who purchased the land on which the college stands for the Indians for 500 gallons of New England rum. Miss Dorothy Gardner, Steubenville, Ohio, presents a cup to Nathaniel Sample, Philadelphia, co-designer with John D. Horn.

Columbia Students Do Their Fishin' in Class

It won't be necessary for students to cut classes to go fishing if the new course instituted by Columbia university's Teachers college proves popular. Angling in all its phases, from baits, lures and plugs to cooking and mounting, will be surveyed in a series of lectures by Dr. Francois D'Eilscu. The New York school includes it as part of its camp leadership course. At the left Dr. D'Eilscu prepares some of his specimens for mounting. The instructor also shows students how to prepare a fishing net from an old tennis or badminton racquet. Resourcefulness is the keynote of his lectures.

Union Records Pawn in CIO Conventions

Formerly under guard in a Detroit warehouse, the records and equipment of Plymouth Local No. 51 are a pawn in the coming C. I. O. conventions. A circuit court judge granted Homer Martin's forces custody of the equipment pending the outcome of a replevin suit. The Martin convention will be held in Detroit early in March, while the Lewis forces will gather in Cleveland late the same month.

Aimee Semple McPherson Returns

Not even during the lush days of the silent screen was a reigning star given a lustier welcome than that accorded Aimee Semple McPherson when she returned recently to Los Angeles from the tropics, where, she said, she rested, relaxed, and inspected her outposts. Huge crowds greeted her at the railway station.

Good Old Days Were Never Like This

The Pony Express was just as thrilling, but not quite as fast, according to James Donnelly, an old Indian fighter and a scout in the days of the early west, as he sat at the controls of a modern transport plane in Miami. Donnelly greatly enjoyed his first ride.

Bomb Shelters Perfected for Family Use

When—and if—the next war breaks out, London residents will be prepared.
