POPULAR O'NEILL COUPLE WED

Miss Geraldine Yarnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Yarnell, and Robert C. Calvert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Calvert, were united in marriage at a very impressive ceremony at the Methodist church in this city at ten-thirty a.m. on Wednesday, with Rev. V. C. Wright officiating. The bride, who was given away by her father, Charles B. Yarnell, was dressed in a two piece ensemble of blue, and carried a corsage of red roses, was attended by her aunt, Mrs. Earl Bruening of Hendley, Nebraska, who carried a spring bouquet.

A beautiful duet, "I Love You Truly," was sung during the ceremony, by Junior Harris and Charles Yarnell, Jr., accompanied by Archie Bowen, who also played the wedding march. Following the wedding ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents to the immediate relatives and close friends. Following the breakfast, the bride and groom left for a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home to all of their friends in their new apartment in the south part of O'Neill.

The Frontier joins with their many friends in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

John Biglin and son, John, Jr. of Hastings, returned to their home on Monday after visiting here at the home of Mrs. O. F. Biglin.
