EMMET ITEMS

The Emmet school was the winner of the third weekly prize given by a contest sponsored by the Independent. There was a misunderstanding at first because some of the votes from Emmet were misplaced at the Independent office, Mr. Miles found the votes and the error was readily corrected placing Emmet as the winner of the weekly prize.

The Foreign Missionary Society held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Abart Wednesday afternoon. A delicious lunch of ice cream and cake was served by the hostess.

Miss Geraldine Harris was a dinner guest at the home of Mrs. Claude Bates Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Conard and daughter, Mary Lou and Helyn Anspach visited at the John Anspach home in Inman Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Givens are the proud parents of a baby boy born May 12th. They have named him Roger Lee.

Mrs. Ruth Wagon went to Fremont Sunday afternoon to visit her son, Donnie, who is in the Orthopedic hospital at Omaha.

The boys of the Emmet school went to Martha Saturday, where they played ball. Claude Bates took them.

P. W. McGinnis received word of the death of his brother, Roger, at Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. McGinnis went to Grand Island Friday from where he took a train for Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mains and daughters visited relatives in Stuart Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. John Conard and daughter, Mary Lou, went to Norfolk Tuesday afternoon where they visited friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Allen and children visited Mr. Allen's brother in Norfolk Sunday. Bernard Pongratz worked in the station during their absence.

Mrs. Bob Rox and family and Melvin Luben went to Kearney and Miller, Nebr., Saturday evening, where they visited friends and relatives. They returned home Sunday evening. Milford Merriman returned home with them.

The South Side Improvement club met at the home of Mrs. Charles Earls Wednesday afternoon. Nine members were present. Lunch was served by Mrs. Price and Mrs. Callalee.

If Mr. or Mrs. Bob Mains collide with you or don't speak within the next week think nothing of it—the reason, Mrs. Mains just won a hundred dollars in a nationally advertised soap contest.
