

STARLIN FUNERAL SERVICES HELD HERE MONDAY

Harry W. Starlin passed away at his home in this city last Saturday morning, at the age of 70 years. The funeral was held last Monday morning from the Methodist church, Rev. Porter, of Aurora, Nebr., an old friend of the family conducting the funeral services and interment in Prospect Hill cemetery.

Harry W. Starlin was a native of Cincinnati, Ohio. He grew to manhood in his native city and state and came west in 1909 and took a homestead in Mellette county, S. D., where he resided several years. On July 31, 1909, he was united in marriage to Miss S. Helen Eaton. To this union one daughter was born, now Mrs. James Walling, of Pierre, S. D., who with her mother are left to mourn the passing of a kind, affectionate and loving husband and father. Mr. Starlin also leaves to mourn his passing two sisters and one brother. They are; Mrs. Ida Mellor, Dayton, Ohio; Mrs. W. H. Snyder, Chicago; Clinton Starlin, Indianapolis, Ind.

Mr. Starlin came to this county in 1925 and purchased the garage on the corner of Douglas and Fourth streets, which he still owned at the time of his death. He later purchased the rooming house on Fremont and Fifth which his wife and he had been operating with success for the past twelve years. He was a jovial, genial gentleman and had a hearty word of greeting for all his friends, and everyone was his friend, whenever he met them, and there was genuine regret in the city when it was reported Saturday morning that he had passed away. He was a good citizen, a man that would be an asset to any city in any state in the nation.

Those from out of town attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Fleek, of Central City; Mrs. Margaret Gray, of Sioux City; Mrs. Anna McKenna, Sioux City; Mrs. Leo Chambers, Aurora; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Goetz, Aurora; Mrs. Paul Porter, Aurora; Miss Marie Wind, Aurora; Miss Betty Jones, Norfolk.

Tire Blow-out Brings Serious Results To Sewing Machine Agent

R. F. Horner, of Norfolk, manager for the Singer Sewing Machine company in this territory, had a narrow escape from serious injury last Tuesday afternoon. While coming to O'Neill from the west, about two miles east of Atkinson, the left front tire blew out and the car went into the ditch and turned over several times. Luckily Mr. Horner escaped with a few minor bruises and a severe shaking up. The car was badly wrecked.

Attorney General's Office Hands Down Opinion On Supervisor Vacancy

There is no legal way to break a deadlock on the county board in the selection of a seventh member to fill a vacancy, according to an opinion of Attorney General Walter Johnson.

The opinion was sent to County Attorney Julius D. Cronin and was written by Assistant Rush Clarke, who held that such an appointment could only be made by a vote of the majority of the remaining supervisors, and in the absence of a majority of the remaining supervisors, "the vacant place will remain vacant."

Winfield Haynes Dies Following Heart Attack Suffered March 20

Winfield Hayne died at his home north of Page and northeast of this city, on Saturday, June 17, after an illness of about three months following a heart attack on March 20, 1939, at the age of 70 years, five months and one day. The funeral services were held last Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Gospel Mission church at Page, Rev. Clyde officiating and burial in the Page cemetery.

Winfield Hayne was born in Marshall county, Iowa, on January 13, 1869. At the age of fourteen his parents came to this county and settled northeast of this city, near what was known in the early days as Antelope slough and there he grew to manhood. On May 20, 1914, he was united in marriage to Miss Nellie Cole, the ceremony being performed at Star, Nebraska. Eleven children were born of this union, eight sons and three daughters, all of whom with their mother are left to mourn the passing of a kind and affectionate husband and father. The children are: Mrs. Rena May Clyde, of Battle Creek, Nebr.; Ralph, of Star; Raymond Thomas, Fort Crook, Nebr.; Viola Victoria Clyde, Battle Creek, Nebr.; John Albert, Clifford Eugene, Edna Ruth, George Winfield, Frank Lee, James LeRoy and Richard Arlington, of Page.

Winfield Hayne had been a resident of this county for fifty-six years and at the time of his passing was one of the oldest residents of his section of the county. He was well known in this city and section of the county and had many friends over the county, who will learn with regret of his passing.

Red Bird Calf Club

The Redbird 4-H Feeder Calf club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morton Sunday for a lesson in judging livestock.

Clarence Wrede gave a demonstration to the members of the club. His subject was an injured calf's leg.

Principal entertainment for the day were members who rode the calves.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends and neighbors for their sympathies extended and the many beautiful floral offerings following the sudden death of our beloved husband and father. Your kindness will ever be gratefully remembered.—Mrs. Helen Starlin, Mr. and Mrs. James Walling.

Mr. and Mrs. Harve Derrick, ranchers of Atkinson, spent Sunday at the Lucas ranch.

SOUKUPS BUY BUILDING ON DOUGLAS STREET

Building Purchased By Couple As Investment

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Soukup purchased the brick building on the south corner of Douglas and Third street from P. E. Marcellus, of Atkinson. The building is one story high and about 45x80 feet. At the present time it is occupied by the Dew Drop Inn and Dick Tomlinson's liquor store. Mr. Soukup says that he does not intend to move his business into the building but purchased it as an investment. He expects to occupy quarters in the new hotel building now under construction.

Building Originally Built by Jacob Pfund, One of the First Exclusive Grocers in that City

When he purchased it he used it for his grocery store, but the expense entailed in its building was too much and he lost the building. Later it was occupied by John Brennan, who ran a store there for several years with marked success. Then George Bressler acquired the building and he operated a store therein for several years. Mr. Marcellus purchased the building about five years ago, making many improvements. He operated an implement store and automobile salesroom there for a time and then rented the building to others. It is a good location and has been in demand from those desiring business buildings.

Civil War Veteran's Wife Dies At Grand Island

Mrs. Sarah Haynes died at Grand Island last Monday morning, at the age of 86 years, ten months and two days. Biglin's went down after the body and the funeral will be held at 2:30 Thursday afternoon from the Methodist church in Page, Rev. Leo D. Carpenter officiating and burial in the Page cemetery.

Mrs. Haynes was one of the pioneers of this county, coming here in 1885 from Beemer, Nebr., with her husband and family. They located northwest of this city where they lived for many years, then moved to Verdigre precinct. Mr. Haynes passed away thirty-nine years ago and since that time for many years she has made her home with her sons, Allen Haynes, of Page, and William Haynes, of Torrington, Wyo. For the past year or more she was an inmate of the home for widows of deceased veterans of the civil war, at Grand Island, being transferred to Mill Island only a few days before her death.

Redbird Ball Club To Meet O'Neill Team Here Sunday, June 25

The O'Neill ball team crossed bats with the Chambers team at Chambers last Sunday and won with a score of 9 to 8. The locals made eight errors, which counted in the scoring, while the Chambers boys managed to make only three errors. Chambers secured five hits while O'Neill gathered in sixteen. The batteries were: O'Neill; Pruss, Fox, Honeycutt and Conarro; Chambers; Thorn, Thorn and D. Carson.

O'Neill will play the Redbird club on the local grounds at the city park next Sunday afternoon. The high school band will be present and the boys will wear their new uniforms for the first time.

Inman Motorcade Here Boosting 4th Celebration

A large delegation of Inman boosters, in thirty-five cars, were in the city last Monday evening boosting for their Fourth of July celebration. A splendid program of sports has been arranged, including ball games and the citizens of that enterprising little city are prepared to handle a large crowd. County Attorney J. D. Cronin is billed to deliver the address.
